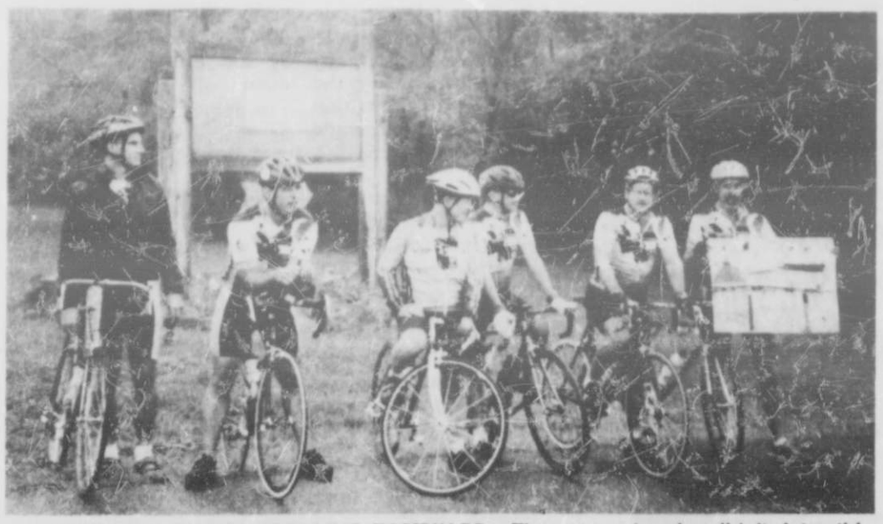
Three juveniles were injured Sunday in a collision of two recreational 4-wheel drive vehicles, operating on a woods trail near Accident. Police said that one juvenile from Frostburg was driving a 1998 Yamaha Banshee ATV with a juvenile passenger from Accident, when the vehicle ran head on into another ATV, a Kawasaki Bayou, driven by a another juvenile from Accident.

Northern Rescue Squad and Accident VFD responded to the scene of the 6:34 p.m. mishap and transported all three juveniles to Memorial Hospital in Cumberland for treatment of injuries.

4-Wheeler Theft

A 1998 tan Suzuki 4-wheeler was reported stolen between 9 p.m. Sunday and 7 a.m. Monday from Ralph and John Brewer. Tfc. J. LeMay said that suspects entered the victims' property and stole the vehicle, which is valued at $4,200. The investigation is continuing.



OUTSPOKIN' RIDERS PEDDLING EASTWARD - The gray, rainy day didn't deter this group of cyclists poised and ready to begin a trek across the state. Riders participating in the Outspokin' For Maryland's Kids event do so to help raise awareness of needy children. The group departed from the Maryland Salem Children's Trust in eastern Garrett County Monday morning, destination the Eastern Shore. In the photo above at the far right is Salem employee Tom Ruckert, who will lead the cyclists on this first leg of the trip. Other riders pictured are Bruce Anderson, San Mar Inc.; Tom Badley, Cedar Ridge Children's Home and School; Howard Rocket, mentor; Brad Wasserman, San Mar Inc.; and Tom Glotfelty, AES Warrior Run (Salem). In the photo below, the group heads eastward in the drizzle. They are due to arrive in Ocean City this weekend.

Facing Drug Charges

Ryan Charles Thorn, 18, Morgantown, W.Va., was charged with possession of marijuana and paraphernalia on September 10 on Route 219, when the vehicle in which he was a passenger was stopped for failing to travel right of center. Police reported that Thorn was found to be in possession of rolling papers, and when asked if he was in possession of marijuana, Thorn displayed a plastic bag containing the suspected marijuana.

Charged With CDS/Traffic Violations

William Foster Younger, 56, Cumberland, was stopped while traveling on I-68 last Saturday for displaying expired West Virginia registration tags on his vehicle, according to a report by Tfc. J. LeMay. Younger was subsequently charged with driving an unregistered and uninsured vehicle, consuming alcohol while driving, and possession of marijuana and paraphernalia.

DWI

The following arrests were made for driving while intoxicated: Russell Curtis Merrbach, 44, Grantsville, September 10; Peter Lionel Grycko, 45, Richmond, Ohio, September 13; Jeramie Scott Foy, 24, Grantsville, September 9; Charles Edward Johnson Jr., 18, Keyser, W.Va., September 7; and Andrew Thomas Hirst, 18, Morgantown, September 10.

Commissioners Create Form For Info Requests

In an attempt to address any flaws in the citizens' right to information about Garrett County public offices, the county commissioners recently approved the creation of a special request form to be offered for use at all county offices. The form simply asks the citizen what information he or she would like to obtain from the county, and notes that the officials have up to 30 days from the request date to provide the information.

The creation of the form follows a statewide audit conducted by the Maryland-Delaware-Washington, D.C. Press Association (MDDC) this summer, during which reporters traveled to each other's districts and attempted to obtain public information. In some areas, the stand-in reporters were met with opposition from county officials. In Garrett County, the incognito reporter apparently did not have a negative experience, only meeting with one or two incidents of either a slow response or a somewhat disagreeable exchange.

"This form replaces a letter, which is what we usually have required from people who are seeking certain information," said Commissioner Wendell Beitzel, chairman. "Now the person can just fill this out. It'll really be easier, and it will clearly state what the person wants. We don't want the staff to be responsible for making decisions about what the individual wants."

He explained that sometimes a person may ask for something very specific, such as a report of the minutes of a meeting on a certain date, which is generally easy to obtain. But if an individual's request is more general, such as asking for all minutes that have anything to do with a certain issue, the staff person will face a much more difficult and time-consuming task.

"We want to make it abundantly clear that we are as open as is legally possible," Beitzel said. Commissioner Fred Holliday echoed that sentiment.

"But sometimes it's difficult to decide if something is actually public record or not," Holliday said, adding that in the Annotated Code of Maryland, there are about 26 pages of denials, or descriptions of items or situations that may not be public record for a variety of reasons. Holliday also noted that the staff members are already busy, and sometimes it's difficult for them to take the time needed for certain requests. The form will be dated, and the county will have the 30-day time period to fulfill the request.

While there is a space on the form for the requesting individual to write his or her name and address, this information is optional, noted Monty Pagenhardt, county administrator.

"Some people might see this form as stone-walling on our part, but it is really a very simple thing to fill out," Holliday said. "And it should make everyone's job easier."

The commissioners met with the county agency heads this week to further discuss the use of the form. It will be available to citizens at every public office.

A HUGE RETURN ON A SMALL INVESTMENT was realized this past week by Nan Winebrenner of Oakland, who purchased an instant winner lotto ticket at C.P. Martin & Son in Mtn. Lake Park for $5 and "instantly won" $25,000. Nan just happens to be the store manager at C.P. Martin. "Nan called me to say we had a $25,000 instant winner," stated Dan Kelley of Webmarkers Inc., owner of C.P. Martin & Son. "I asked her who it was, and she said 'me'. I was really happy for her. She does a great job for us." Winebrenner said that at present she has no specific plans for the money, but "can certainly use it."

Thank You Nancy Railey & Railey Mtn. Lake Vacation Rentals for purchasing my 2000 market hog at the Garrett County Fair.
I would also like to thank the other bidders and all who helped with the sale. Your participation made this year's project possible & very successful.

A CNN Travesty...

Is it just this writer, or should CNN News be renamed "Gore for President"? It's as if members of the Gore campaign staff are the orchestrators of the "news" reporting. The media has almost always been accused of being to the left of center politically, and CNN is well deserving of such a description. The problem with that, of course, is that news coverage is supposed to be fair and unbiased.

Those who doubt that this is happening should just pay a little more attention while watching or listening to CNN's reporting. As most local residents know, WKHJ Radio provides brief CNN news reports almost every half-hour. Nearly every news item about the 2000 presidential campaign includes a sound bite by Vice President Gore, but almost never one from Governor Bush. Note, too, that most of the coverage of Bush is in the negative vein. In fact, a Bush sound bite that certainly did get aired, and reaired, was a derogatory reference to a New York reporter that he uttered when he didn't realize his microphone was turned on.

We want to emphasize that this column today is not — is not — intended to be an anti-Gore or a pro-Bush statement. Indeed, in the opinion of this writer as of right now, there are no outstanding candidates running for president. Our intent here is to chastise a large segment of this nation's media for a blatant violation of the rules of good journalism and thus making a mockery of the profession. Opinions of editors and writers should be strictly confined to the editorial pages, and not interwoven with objective information in a news story.

The quality of ABC's campaign coverage almost mirrors that of CNN's. Since ABC is now a Disney-owned company, perhaps that's not so surprising.

We recommend that all voters tune into public radio/television, where the reporting of campaign activities still seems to be virtually pure of bias. Secondly, we strongly urge all to watch/listen to the debates between Gore and Bush, with which even the media can do little to skew the information. And don't pay much attention to the "analysis" of the debates that will follow, when reporters will tell all of us "who won" the debates. The words, the ideas, the body language, the delivery, and the behavior of the candidates themselves will be one's best source for making a decision.

There is a significant piece of the voting public that is gullible, a piece that can throw an election either way, and CNN certainly knows this. But forsaking the ethics of one's own profession in an attempt to sway those particular voters is a travesty.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Your editorial in the Aug. 31 Republican was right on the money. "Get A Life" was apt and to the point. If "Survivor" and raunchiness is the best that TV and moviedom can do to entertain us, we are becoming culturally and morally degraded.

Of course one can turn off the TV anytime one wants. I chose not to watch any part of "Survivor." Why take time to watch such TV programs and raunchy movies? I do not have a clue. I agree with you — Get a life, America. Get a Life.

Well done.

To the Editor:

Thank you for the coverage you gave The Fresh Air Fund this season by featuring The Fund's local Friendly Town in The Republican. The exposure provides a tremendous help to our ongoing efforts to encourage more volunteer host families in your community to open their homes to disadvantaged youngsters from New York City. We are grateful for your help in sharing the wonderful heartwarming experiences of Fresh Air host families with your readers.

On behalf of The Fresh Air Fund, our local volunteers in your community, and the thousands of city children who benefit from free Fresh Air programs, thank you again for your support.

Sincerely,
Jenny Morgenthau

To the Editor:

It's pretty sad when a child is discriminated against because both parents have jobs and work.

My husband and I wanted our daughter to attend Head Start. When the application was filled out, I was told that we fell in the high income category. A week later my daughter was denied.

The thing about this that upsets us is that, because we choose to work to help provide a better life for our child, my daughter is denied any type of early learning. Who ever thought that our children would be punished because both their parents work?

My daughter could not get in because of our income, but the Head Start center representatives are still calling and scouting more children who fit the income guidelines. If they are still looking for more children whose parents did not take the time to fill out an application, then why can't my child be accepted? We cared enough to make the effort.

I can see why there are not enough low-income children attending. The incoms guidelines are ridiculous. I can't see how anyone could qualify. No one could live based on their guidelines unless neither parent works. For our family of three we are only permitted to earn $14,150. I'm sorry, but that is not enough to live on without the benefit of assistance programs provided by the county or state.

The percentage of high-income and disabled families should be a lot higher than what it is. Disabled families should be accepted before any other families, not the low-income families first, and only 10% for the disabled and high-income families.

If nobody has thought of this before, maybe you should. We should all be concerned, because these programs would not be available if it were not for working, tax-paying people like us.

To the Editor:

Our Crime Watch changed its meeting date and time to the first Tuesday of the month at 6 p.m. To our joyous surprise, our attendance of new members shot sky high. Our meetings are always helpful and interesting, plus you can voice any concern you have directly to Deputy Chris Helbig and Policeman Shawn Fratz. This way, you get an immediate answer.

Our guest speakers at our future meetings will be Commander Lt. William Lucas, MD State Police; and Oakland Police Chief John Sines, Capt. Paul Pratt, and Sheriff Dick Sanders.

Neighborhood Crime Watch really works. Throughout the country, dramatic decreases in burglary and related offenses are reported by law enforcement professionals in communities with active watch programs. Any community resident can join — young and old, single and married, renter and homeowner. Even the busiest of people can belong to a neighborhood watch. They too can keep an eye out for neighbors as they come and go.

Our meetings are fun. One can make new friends, plus there is always something to eat and drink at our meetings. As members, you meet your neighbors, learn how to make your home more secure, and watch out for each other.

Our Mountain Lake Park Crime Watch was selected as a "Maryland Model Crime Prevention Community." Not only does our Crime Watch concern itself with educating citizens, but we also strive to create a sense of community empowerment and cohesiveness. Each year we sponsor "A Day in the Park" picnic for crime Prevention Day. During the event, large signs reading "take a bite out of crime" are placed throughout the community. This event has also created partnerships between residents and business owners, resulting in the more than 100 door prizes that businesses donate to the event. Our last picnic, held Aug. 26, was attended by more than 600 individuals, and we are only looking to grow.

To the Editor:

Most people correctly believe that Social Security has been our most successful social program; however, as the program has matured it faces many obstacles to its viability. The first major crisis it faced was in 1981 when concerns were raised about the Trust Fund running out of money by 1983. The Greenspan Commission was formed, which made recommendations to resolve the short-term financing problems the program faced. A combination of legislation enacting the recommendations, low inflation, and the economic boom has contributed to yearly Trust Fund surpluses until the proclaimed total is now in excess of $700 billion.

Unfortunately, within the Treasury, Social Security taxes are co-mingled with general tax revenues, which allows Congress to spend Trust Fund surpluses to fund other expenses within the budget. For example, the 1999 so-called budget surplus existed only because Congress included the Social Security surplus when the actual budget showed a deficit. To cover up the embezzlement of Trust Fund money by Congress, the Department of Treasury has been forced to issue non-negotiable IOU bonds to the Trust Fund.

Congress has exploited the co-mingling flaw in the Trust Fund to achieve a spending coup without having to increase income taxes, but at a severe cost to low-income workers. Workers have been hit hard when the regressive Social Security tax has also been used to fund other spending programs. This has been particularly devastating to the self-employed business people, such as entrepreneurs, free-lancers, independent contractors, and farmers, who must contribute at double the normal Social Security tax rate.

So much for Democratic and Republican compassion for workers.

Sincerely,
Robert A. Dahlquist

Last year (1999) after the Garrett County Fair, I wrote a letter to The Republican paper about senior citizens paying to get into the fair. I got a good response from many senior citizens who agreed with me. This year we got two free days. Thursday and Friday. Thursday was a fair day, but it rained all day Friday.

Now, the senior citizens, veterans, and handicapped people deserve more. These are the people who were born during the Great Depression, World War II, and other wars; many of them fought bravely and many were wounded in battle. These people made this country and deserve the full six days of the fair. I believe we owe appreciation to these people. Like any other people, they enjoy the sites of the fair, but within the two days a lot of people did not get to go when they wished to.

I would now like to share a true story that happened at the Garrett County Fair. On Thursday two senior citizens with a little child did not know it was a free day, so they paid full price for all three people. A little later, they found out it had been a free day for senior citizens. So they went to the office to see what they could do about it, but the lady would not give them their money back. I think this is a disgrace that should not have happened. These people are living on a modest income.

Therefore, I believe we should have a complete six days that senior citizens and disabled people should have free entry to the Garrett County Fair.

Thank you,
Stanley Friend

GOING BACK TO SCHOOL

The other evening I went to wish my nieces and nephews well on the eve of their returning to school. At the same time I informed them that I, too, after a hiatus of 17 years, would also be going back to school. Tanner, the youngest of my nephews, started counting on his fingers. "My mommy, my daddy," he said, "and now Uncle Jeffrey are all going back to school."

He found this state of affairs very amusing. "School is for kids," he seemed to be saying. So it may once have been, but no more. School is for everybody. The sloganmakers call it "life-long learning."

Two things make going back to school a permanent state of affairs. First of all, the world changes so fast that the kind of change which once took a generation (20 years) now happens in five years or less. The second reason is that the average person is living longer and longer.

When change happened generationally and people were dead by 70, then in one person's work cycle (18-65) he/she experienced one complete generation's worth of change; by the time the second generation of change took place, one was out or on the way out of the work force. Change also took place at a rate of natural or, at least, of reasonable absorption. Today change takes us by jolts or sometimes by greater violence.

Some things do not change, however. One such thing is that I am studying a subject that does not have much dollar value in the new economy. I have gone back to school to study philosophy. I am sure there are people — probably among my family and closest friends — who think that I am too philosophical already.

Ideas are like sculpture. Whether it is a characteristic of our era and culture or a characteristic of human nature I do not know, but it is commonly thought that thinking is something everyone can do. Like sculpting, I suggest, thinking is something we do with varying degrees of skill and effect. I am studying philosophy to increase my skill in thinking and, I hope subsequently, to increase the effect of my thinking.

Entering the classroom for the first time after many years was a refreshment and not in small part due to the spirit of the other students. They are a clean-cut bunch, varying in age from early 20s to mid-40s (where I am). They are friendly. They know why they are there. They are ready to go to work.

The professor is younger than about half of us, which is another interesting experience in itself. It is a humbling thing to submit one's self to a teacher who was in elementary school when I took my bachelor's degree. The fact that he is very knowledgeable as a philosopher and equally able as a teacher makes the submission far easier than it would be if circumstances were otherwise.

Another facet of this experience for me is that after class I am always on the dash to someplace else. During these first few weeks my fingers are brown and torn up from working on the house. In stray moments I am thinking about stripping woodwork or the next coat of paint or polyurethane.

By contrast, on the first day of class I was wearing full clericals because the dash after class was to my parish for a funeral. I am taking only the one class to be fitted into everything else I am doing while all of the other students are immersed in school day and night, week after week for a period of years.

"A little learning is a dangerous thing," goes an old saying. Perhaps the danger lies in thinking that one's learning is more than it is. The danger is diminished when one realizes through the process of learning more how little one knows. Looked at that way, it may be that the goal of learning is not knowledge, but rather humility. If that is so, then going back to school in middle age is an excellent way to achieve learning's goal. And who needs such a lesson more than I do?

Bike Efforts

and Crozier's thought was to add a sidewalk along the road, as well as plantings.

This project would not be a Retrofit Bicycle project, but rather a streetscape project, Rebele noted. Crozier is to determine the cost feasibility of such a plan.

Another location of concern along Rt. 219 is at the Uno's/Arrowhead area at Deep Creek Lake. The SHA developed left-turning lanes at this location to accommodate left-turning vehicles going into the restaurant and grocery store. The shoulders were utilized as through lanes and right-turn lanes.

Bicyclists are to share the road with motorized vehicles, Rebele noted, and it has been suggested that the SHA post "Share the Road" signs that would include pedestrians.

"It really helps to bring attention to the fact that there are bikers and pedestrians along the road, and that drivers should be aware of that," Rebele said. "It also shows that Maryland is biker-friendly."

The officials are going to explore the possibility of reducing the current lanes to provide a minimum width outside the shoulder for bicycles, or perhaps widening the roadway enough to provide a minimum 2-to-4-foot-wide shoulder. Apparently the SHA would have difficulty in obtaining permission to widen the roadway because of the adjacent environmentally sensitive areas.

Rebele said the officials discussed his suggestion of possibly spanning the wetlands with a raised walkway, or cantilevering the road over the wetlands to provide a minimum shoulder. The SHA will investigate the feasibility and cost of spanning the site to accommodate bicycles, he said.

The "Share the Road" signs were further discussed, with the suggestion that they be placed on each state highway. U.S. Rt. 50, east of Rt. 219, and MD 135 were also identified as significant bicycle routes where signs would help.

The SHA group recommended that the county denote any roads that need wider shoulders for biking, and that these areas should be reviewed throughout the county whenever a roadway is resurfaced.

Rebele said he inquired about the SHA's possible help in funding the placement of better shoulders along New Germany Road, as the roadway provides access from U.S. 40 south to several state parks where mountain bicycling is popular. The SHA noted that New Germany Road is a county facility, and that the state administration cannot by law spend state funds on a county or local route. Williams did state, however, that Enhancement Program funds may be eligible for this project if the county is willing to match the cost. The commissioners said they would consider the plan.

Rebele also handed out new bicycle maps published by the Maryland Department of Transportation. The maps are available free of charge at the commissioners' office, he said.

paper service, court room security, accident investigations, and other duties as required. He described the selection process for officers.

His remarks and information about crimes and criminal activities satisfied the grand jury's concerns about the number of police in the community, according to the report.

In line with the recommendations of the state auditors and because of the crowded conditions, Sanders told the jury that he is continuing to seek additional correctional officers for the jail.

The grand jury members said they were pleased that the commissioners approved two additional correctional positions for this fiscal year, as recommended by prior jury panels.

Office of the Treasurer

Having toured the office of the treasurer and having met with Uphold, the members of the grand jury stated that they are satisfied that the records of the treasurer are being properly maintained. "The staff is to be commended for servicing the 26,000 property tax accounts," the report states.

The grand jury members expressed thanks to Judge James L. Sherbin, as well as Lisa Thayer Welch, state's attorney; Bill Graham, court bailiff; David Martin, circuit court clerk; Brian Schlossnagle, deputy clerk; Ruth Warnick, court stenographer; Kim Becker, secretary to Mrs. Welch; Edward R. Wharton, foreperson; Linda L. Thomas, clerk; Angela K. Upole, clerk; Paul A. Schroyer, doorman; and all other officials for their cooperation.

DCL Policy And Review Board Slates Meeting

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Deep Creek Lake Policy and Review Board is set for Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 7 p.m., at the DCL Discovery Center in DCL State Park. The meeting is open to the public, and citizens may share their input and comments during the proceedings.

Two main agenda items will be discussed during Tuesday's meeting. The first item is a review of a draft conservation easement prepared by the Department of Natural Resources that will be applied to lands sold to adjoining lakefront property owners during the upcoming land sale.

The second topic of discussion will deal with a request by McHenry area marina owner Robert Browning to amend the lake regulations to permit larger tour boats to be operated on the lake. Browning has asked for a change in regulations that would permit the operation of a 62-foot tour boat that he recently purchased. The current regulations limit boat lengths to a maximum of 30 feet.

Further information on the meeting may be obtained by contacting DCL Recreation Area manager Paul Durham at 301-387-4111.

SISTER CITIES CELEBRATE - A picnic dinner featuring a pig roast and corn roast was held at Grantsville Community Park last evening to welcome visitors from Estonia. Grantsville and Torva have formed an alliance as sister cities through the National Guard's Partnerships for Peace program.

Commissioners Sign Three Proclamations

Three proclamations were signed by the Garrett County commissioners this week, noting Forget Me Not Month, United Way of Garrett County Day, and Transit Week.

September is Forget Me Not Month, during which the annual distribution of the simulated forget-me-nots will take place by the Disabled American Veterans. The flowers are reminders of the "lasting debt of gratitude to all who have dutifully fought to protect our freedoms," the proclamation states. The distributions will take place throughout the month at various local sites.

Transit Week is Sept. 10-16 in the county, with the proclamation noting the services offered by the Garrett Transit Service, an organization within the Garrett Community Action Committee Inc. See separate story.

September 16 has been proclaimed as Garrett County United Way Day, and marks the launch date of the fall campaign of the newly formed local United Way organization. The group hopes to raise $81,000 in this first fund-raising effort. The Garrett County United Way is supporting a number of county organizations in their efforts to aid and assist local individuals in need.

Rescue Squad To Sponsor Open Houses, Parties

The Northern Garrett County Rescue Squad will be hosting its annual open house and block parties, with the first to be held this Saturday, Sept. 16, at the Grantsville station. The open house with tours and many demonstrations will begin at 2 p.m.

Demonstrations and information will be provided for the following: glucometer testing (blood sugar level) with diabetes brochures; blood pressure screenings; breast cancer self-exam demonstration; tuberculosis information; cardiac monitoring; automated external defibrillator and cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR); thumper (mechanical CPR) demonstration; children's demonstrations; ambulance rides and tours; poster coloring and display; and free handouts.

The event is open to all within the Northern Garrett County service area and is sponsored to thank the community for its ongoing support toward the rescue squad in accomplishing its mission.

A community picnic meal will follow at 4 p.m., with entertainment provided. A flyer about the block parties is being distributed throughout the elementary schools in each respective area. Parents are encouraged to bring their children to learn what the rescue squad is all about, and to become familiar with some of the equipment should that become necessary.

Block parties are also scheduled for the Accident area on Saturday, Sept. 30, and in Friendsville on October 21.

For more information, persons may call Pat Bowser at 301-746-5576.

Today, Thursday, the group will tour business and cultural sites in Grantsville and meet with the fifth grade students at Grantsville Elementary School, where a proclamation will be signed to confirm an ongoing relationship between the sister cities.

Following a boat trip on lake and luncheon at Point View Inn, the visitors will tour Garrett Community College and sign a proclamation of continuing efforts to enhance the recent alliance between the sister cities. They will also travel to Oakland to visit various sites, including the Oakland Train Station, the Garrett County Historical Society Museum, and area businesses.

In the evening a proclamation will be signed at the Oakland Armory by participating mayors to confirm the newly formed bonds of friendship between the towns in Garrett County and Estonia.

TRANSIT WEEK PROCLAIMED — The benefits of public transportation are being celebrated this week by the Garrett Transit Service (GTS), as Transit Week has been proclaimed for Sept. 10-16. GTS offers a wide range of transportation services for all Garrett Countians. Persons with transportation needs are encouraged to call GTS at 301-334-9431. See story. Pictured above, from left, are Tom Rosser, assistant director of the Garrett County Department of Social Services; Hazel Broadwater, GTS secretary; Commissioners Fred Holliday, Wendell Beitzel, and Ernie Gregg; Barbara Collins, operations assistant; Julie Feather, dispatcher; and Tracy Shahan, driver.

Garrett Transit Meeting Needs Of Travelers

In conjunction with the Garrett County commissioners' proclamation of Transit Week, Sept. 10-16, the staff at the Garrett Transit Service (GTS) wished to remind the public of its variety of transportation offerings in and around Garrett County. The transit service is a part of the Garrett County Community Action Committee, and its services are available to all local citizens.

A wide variety of services is offered by GTS, including scheduling pick-ups for persons with appointments at their physicians, dentists, or the hospital; taking groups on outings or visiting with friends; transporting persons to the grocery store or hair salon; or picking up children for before- or after-school day care.

The latest addition to the services offered is the "Job Access Express," which provides transportation to and from work for individuals living far from their employment places. The shuttle schedule is extensive, offering rides to people from the southern end of the county to the northern, and vice versa. This offering of the transit service is being hailed by county officials as a great boost to employment endeavors in the area.

"Transportation to work is a major stumbling block for a lot of our people," said Tom Rosser of the Department of Social Services. "This shuttle service will greatly enhance our efforts."

GTS also works with Social Services, specifically with the organization called GarrettWORKS, to administer the Wheels to Work program. Rosser said the program allows lower-income residents to purchase used cars. As long as they are employed and able to make the specialized car payments, the individuals can own the vehicles and use them for their own transportation.

GTS also offers transportation for Head Start students, home meal delivery through the Area Agency on Aging, Meals on Wheels delivery, and needs-based shuttles, providing rides to specific locations, including those out of town. GTS can also provide transportation to neighboring states, a spokesperson noted.

The GTS shuttle system is open to all citizens, with a minimum fare of $2. The fares range in price, depending on what the riders' needs are. Senior and handicapped discounts are available, and group outing costs can be quoted upon request. Children under 3 ride free when accompanied by an adult. Gift coupons are available.

The drivers of the vehicles are highly trained, the spokesperson said, not only in driving expertise, but also in the areas of CPR and First Aid, wheelchair training, safety, and passenger assistance. This training allows GTS to transport all individuals, regardless of age or any handicap. Some riders may require aides, as requested by GTS.

The system is equipped with a complete radio dispatch system, and the 22-person capacity buses can accommodate wheelchairs. Trips can originate from any point within the county.

Persons with transportation needs of any kind are encouraged to call GTS at 301-334-9431.

In Loving Memory of a very special mom, grandma, and great me-maw, BESSIE J. BOWERS
who will be celebrating her 74th birthday with her twin sister, Dessie, and other family members who have gone to heaven before her.

When God stoops down from heaven
And beckons with his hand
One that we loved so dearly
It's hard to understand.

But with faith's eye look upward,
Look just beyond the gloom,
And see your precious loved one,
In heaven's brighter room.

So lay aside your grieving,
And look to God above,
He'll steal away your sadness
And fill your heart with love.
Nella Walters

Mom, I'm having a hard time laying aside my grieving because it is so deep, but I know with God's help I will be able to do it (someday).

In Loving Memory of Jerry E. Weimer

Dear Jerry,

Though we said, "Good-Bye" a year ago,
We have found in the days since then
That you've really never left us
And that your time here has no end.

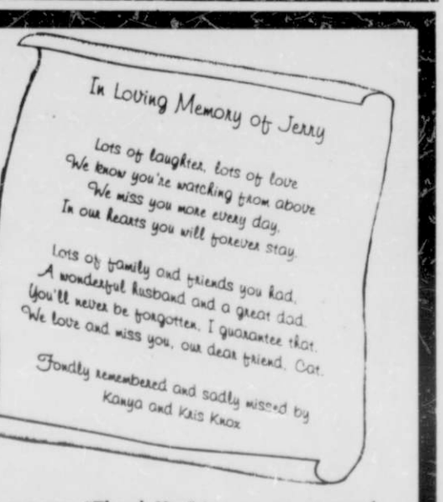
We feel you in our mornings,
Telling us to start our day.
We hear you in the evenings,
We talk to you when we pray.

You brush by us from time to time,
As though your breath has rustled the trees,
Telling us it's OK to miss you.
When we weep on fallen knees.

We see you "still" building a home,
Only now, it's the one you prepare for us.
We see you labor, as you did in the woods,
Only now, it's the work of the God you trust.

We see you dance and live and love,
Only now, through a small child's eyes,
"Your Son," who reminds us daily,
That your legacy will "never" die.

Your smile will never leave us,
And your helping hand "still" reaches out
Each time a friendly face appears,
In our lives, to help us out.



So, we say, "Thank You" to you, young angel,
For all of those, you send
To each of us in our lives,
When our hearts are in need of mend.

And thanks, mostly, for the lesson,
That "Good-Byes" allow us to learn,
That God needs us to be ready,
When it next may be our turn.

We'll remember a brave, young soul,
Who, at a moment that stood still,
Looked into the heavens, and reached out
To say, "Dear Lord, have your will."

And it's "that strength" that you left us,
Among so many precious things.
"Thank you, Jerry," for touching our lives,
"Thank you, Lord," for his wings.

Holding You Close,
Your Loving Family

IN WITH THE NEW — The 125-year history of the Bittinger Lutheran Parish has taken a new turn, as the old church has been razed to make room for the new one. The congregation has been striving for years to realize the dream of a new church, with volunteers working hard to complete the task. Last summer, a traveling crew of volunteers, the Mission Builders organization, set up camp in the Bittinger area for over two months, working alongside local folks to build the new facility. A final farewell to the old church, or a "decommissioning" service, was held on Aug. 27, with Bishop Emeritus Alex Black officiating. Church members ceremoniously removed items from the old church and carried them to the new, and the church bell tolled 125 times to mark each year of the church's existence. On Labor Day, the church members truly labored, removing the heavier items, such as pews and other furniture, from the old and placing them in the new. Finally, last week, a local contractor razed the 125-year-old structure. The new church stands directly behind the old church site, and now will be enhanced with landscaping. A dedication service will be held at the new parish on Sept. 30 at 3 p.m. The public is invited to attend. Following the service, refreshments will be served at the Bittinger fire hall. At least three of the Mission Builders families are to be in attendance. The church's new pastor is Patricia Pitsnogle, whose ordination service is slated for Sept. 24 in Moorefield, W.Va.

Mountain Top Mental Health Associates Inc.

Mental Illness Is A Disease

Mountain Top Mental Health Associates Inc., striving to increase public understanding of mental illness, submitted the following article by Enid and Richard Peschel, originally published in The Hartford Courant, February 20, 1990.

Research over the past 10 to 20 years has documented that severe mental illnesses, including bipolar and depressive disorders, schizophrenia, pervasive development disorder, autism, panic and anxiety disorders, obsessive-compulsive disorder and Tourette's disorder, are biologically based brain diseases.

The fact that severe mental illnesses are not neurotic or emotional problems but are, in fact, physical illnesses ought to do at least two positive things for the 2 million Americans suffering from these diseases today. It should diminish the hideous stigma associated with these brain diseases. It should lead to improved medical and community care for the mentally ill.

Yet the mentally ill continue to be treated with disdain or disgust, neglect and/or cruelty.

Why can't the public understand that people suffering from schizophrenia, bipolar disorder and so on, deserve as much sympathy and respect as people afflicted with other serious chronic physical illnesses, such as multiple sclerosis, cystic fibrosis, cerebral palsy, cancer or lupus?

A poll recently conducted by the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill revealed that 71 percent of the respondents thought that mental illness was the result of emotional weakness; 65 percent assumed it was caused by bad parenting; 35 percent felt it resulted from sinful behavior; and 43 percent believed that the mentally ill had brought on their sickness themselves.

When someone has Alzheimer's disease, rheumatoid arthritis, or cancer, how many people would accuse the patient or the patient's family of having caused the illness? Yet why do so many people continue to blame the mentally ill or their families for these biologically based diseases?

Often, people may not even realize they are abusing the mentally ill. Haven't you heard people callously — or perhaps thoughtlessly — calling someone with mental illness crazy, nuts, mad, insane, or wacko? Why is it permissible to mock people afflicted with the chronic physical illnesses called mental illnesses?

The scientific findings about mental illness have not led to improved medical or community care. There has been some progress in medication. Certain psychoactive drugs have indeed relieved some of the debilitating symptoms that people with severe mental illnesses may experience.

But our county has not yet devoted enough money or manpower to searching for more and better drugs to treat these devastating illnesses. Care for the mentally ill, who were disgorged by the hundreds-of-thousands from state mental hospitals during deinstitutionalization, has been shockingly negligent, hostile and unacceptable. Why, for instance, do insurers and the government continue to penalize people suffering from mental illnesses by denying them adequate — or even decent — medical coverage?

If your heart, lung or liver does not function properly, your medical insurance pays for your hospital expenses up to $1 million. The same holds true if your brain malfunctions and your diagnosis is a brain tumor. However, if your brain malfunctions and your diagnosis is schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, or pervasive developmental disorder, your insurance will only cover a very limited time in the hospital.

It's time for society to treat the mentally ill as medically ill.

For more information about mental illness and mental health services, persons may contact the MTMHA offices at 301-334-8144 or 1-877-286-8642 (877-ATMTMHA) or by mail at Mountain Top Mental Health Associates Inc., 428 Weber Road, Oakland, MD 21550-1943.

ENHANCING SKILLS - Staff members at Goodwill Mennonite Nursing Home spent an afternoon this week reviewing information as well as practicing and perfecting the life-saving skill of CPR. The group of certified nursing assistants (CNAs) pictured above watch as instructor Doug Beitzel from the Frostburg Ambulance Training Center demonstrates how to check for respiration in an unresponsive victim. In the photo below, the class members take turns practicing CPR chest compressions on the plastic dummy, while instructor George Johnson checks for use of proper techniques. The CNA staff at Goodwill review these critical skills every two years to renew certification and ensure proper care for the nursing home residents.

Addictions Service Slates Events For Addiction Recovery Month

In response to National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month, the Addictions Service of the Garrett County Health Department, 221 South Third Street, will host several September activities. According to program director Fred Herath, this year's theme, "Recovering Our Future: One Youth at a Time" is intended to bring national focus to a problem that has risen throughout the country.

"It is essential that young people with substance abuse problems receive treatment that is appropriate and effective. All too often, treatment programs are designed for adults and are ill-equipped to meet the unique needs of adolescents." said Herath. "The scheduled activities are intended to lead us to a more thorough understanding of how to best address that issue."

Terry Ober, state coordinator for the "Reality Program," has been invited to participate in a workshop on adolescent prevention and treatment needs on Tuesday, Sept. 19, from 10 a.m. to noon. The Reality Program has proven to be an effective deterrent in the prevention of adolescent substance abuse and also as early intervention into an existing problem, according to Herath. It is sponsored locally through the Garrett County Sheriff's Office.

Following that function, the Garrett County Addictions Service will host an open house for allied professionals. "We are taking this opportunity to showcase the diversity of services provided through this clinic." said Herath. "The Addictions Service provides consultation, assessment, and specialized substance abuse treatment throughout the county. With offices in Grantsville and Oakland, a few highly dedicated staff members routinely meet the needs of the legal system, the motor vehicle administration, the county jail, the hospital, the schools, local employers, and others. Our colleagues have been invited to participate in this event, scheduled from noon until 3 p.m., and share their views on the delivery of these services.

A similar function will be held September 27. The event preceding the Addictions Service open house, which will again run from noon until 3 p.m., will be the regularly scheduled meeting of the Garrett County Addictions Advisory Council. This is a group of individuals and agency representatives committed to the advocacy and advancement of substance abuse prevention and treatment throughout the county. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m., and anyone interested in participating is invited to attend.

Finally, the public is invited to stop by the Addictions Clinic, 221 South Third Street, on September 29 from 4 to 6:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. For additional information, persons may call 301-334-8115.

Training Offered On Recognizing Abuse Victims

The Family Violence Coalition will offer a professional awareness session to medical personnel on September 29, 8-10 a.m., at the Community Services building, located next to Garrett Memorial Hospital. This training is part of an ongoing series sponsored by the group to heighten sensitivity to situations that may reflect violence, abuse, or neglect within the family environment.

"The trainers for this professional awareness session will offer the medical personnel attending information on screening to identify victims of domestic violence," explained Peggy Nelson, chair of the FVC.

Nelson explained that the coalition trying to increase recognition of the signs of sexual abuse, physical violence, elder abuse, neglect, and other forms of maltreatment that have occurred within the home.

Many professionals may actually deal with victims of violence and abuse but not realize it, according to Nelson. "Some of the people who may deal with these victims are dentists, veterinarians, pastors and clergy, and teachers. We hope to increase not only awareness of the signs of family violence, but provide information on what courses of action may be taken when such violence is suspected," Nelson said.

Other service providers may also confront victims of abuse, neglect, or violence, Nelson pointed out. "These could be home health aids, people who deliver meals to seniors, or transit drivers," she said.

The FVC has scheduled a professional awareness training for Garrett County teachers for October 13. Persons interested in setting up such a training may contact Nelson at 301-533-3033.

Students Receive GCC Scholarships

KELLY SUE FRATZ

ANDREW ROUNDS

GRACE GLOTFELTY

Two recent high school graduates, one from Northern High and the other from Southern High, along with a current NHS senior, have been awarded scholarships by the Garrett Community College Foundation to attend college this fall, according to advancement officer Bretta Reinhard.

Kelley Sue Fratz, 2000 Northern graduate and daughter of the late Wayne and Marjorie Fratz of Accident, has received the Hazel Fratz Wright scholarship to attend GCC. She plans to major in law and to become a lawyer in Garrett County. Fratz said she enjoys playing softball and skiing.

Andrew Rounds, 2000 Southern graduate and son of Debbie Rounds of Oakland, has received the Oakland/Mtn. Lake Park Lions Club Bill Ravenscroft Memorial Scholarship. When he completes his education he plans to pursue a career in natural resources. In high school Rounds was captain of the varsity soccer team and coach for arsenal football, an indoor soccer team. His interests are soccer, hunting, and fishing.

NHS senior Grace Glotfelty, daughter of David and Mary Ann Glotfelty of Friendsville, has received the James H. Nordeck Memorial Scholarship and the McDonald's scholarship. She is enrolled in the Early College Admissions Program at GCC and is planning to major in nursing. She plans to transfer to a four-year college to continue her studies and eventually become a registered nurse. In high school Glotfelty was a member of the marching and concert bands, and she served on the prom committee. Her interests are reading and playing the flute and piccolo.

Law Enforcement Explorers Attend National Forum

Among those attending the National Conference of Law Enforcement Explorers in Atlanta, Ga., this summer were three Garrett County students from Southern High School. Jeremiah Wilt, Cyrille Fontaine, and Vincent Uphole are members of the Law Enforcement Explorers sponsored by the McHenry barrack of Maryland State Police.

Accompanied by Tfc. Bryan Willetts, who facilitates trainings for the Garrett County Explorers, the three participants attended seminars and competed along with several thousand other Law Enforcement Explorers on the campus of Georgia Tech. "A group from Montgomery County invited us to go with them to the conference, with all expenses paid. They had space for three of our 17 Explorers," Willetts explained.

Some of the seminars that the members attended focused on issues that confront law enforcement officers, and other sessions offered training in the skills required of law enforcement officers.

"This training is very serious. It is for those who would like to have a career in law enforcement. There was instruction on how to respond to bomb threats, a seminar on dealing with domestic violence, and another on responding to a traffic accident involving a fatality," Willetts said.

The Explorers at the Georgia conference also challenged each other in pistol shooting matches and in various driving competitions. One such contest involved the emergency vehicle operation course (EVOC). "The EVOC requires high speed driving between cones on a course. The ones who tried it were really surprised at how difficult it is," said Willetts.

A bicycle police patrol course also provided an obstacle challenge for the Explorers.

Fontaine, Uphole, and Wilt were praised by Willetts for the actions and attitudes they displayed while at the Explorer convention. "They were great. These kids behave in a very professional way and are very serious about what they are doing," Willetts concluded.

For information on the Law Enforcement Explorer program at the McHenry barrack persons may contact Willetts or Sgt. David Knepper at 301-895-1101 or 301-387-1101.

EXPLORERS ATTEND NATIONAL CONVENTION - Law Enforcement Explorers from Garrett County joined thousands of Explorers from all over the country in Atlanta, Ga., to take part in the seminars and competitions of the national convention, held this summer. In the photo are the three members of the Maryland State Police McHenry barrack Explorer post who traveled to the conference. From left are Jeremiah Wilt, Cyrille Fontaine, and Vincent Uphole.

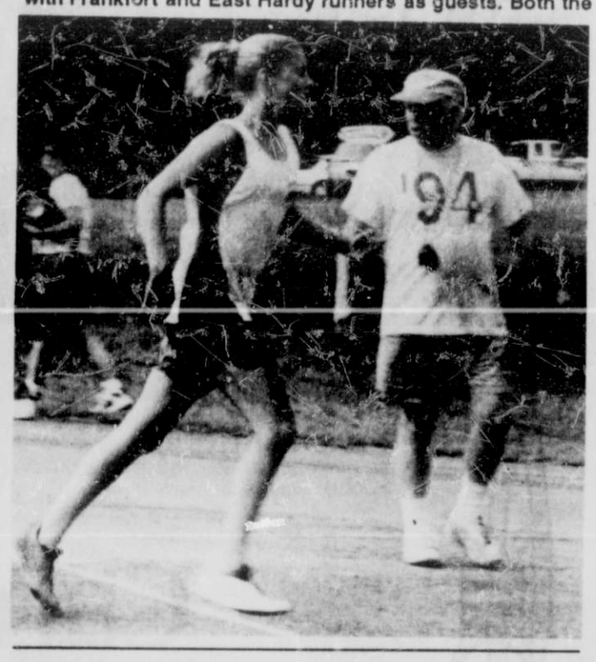
Runnin' Rams Begin Season, Win Tri-Meet

The cross country teams of Southern High School opened their seasons Saturday in a multiple-team Interstate Classic, hosted by Clear Spring High School. The Southern girls' squad, defending state 1A champion, placed sixth among 16 teams of all sizes by recording a team score of 161 points, while the SHS boys finished with 345 points to place 15th among 17 teams.

However, both Ram squads were victorious in a three-team meet Tuesday, held on their own course at Broadford Park. The Southern girls, left by All-State runner Melissa Durst, edged Frankfort, 27-29, while East Hardy finished with an incomplete score.

CROSS COUNTY SEASON has returned, and the Runnin' Rams of Southern High School are back in action for the 2000 season. These photos were taken at a meet hosted by the Rams on Tuesday at the Broadford Park course, with Frankfort and East Hardy runners as guests. Both the Southern girls' and boys' team were victorious. The photo above left was taken as the boys were running atop the dam of Broadford Lake. Center foreground is Sy Farris of Frankfort, who was the individual winner of the race with a time of 18 minutes, 34 seconds. Above right, Southern boys' coach Carl Booth prepares to fire the starting gun for the girls' race. Below, Southern's Melissa Durst, who placed third in the Maryland State 1A Championships last season and led the Rams to their second state title, heads for the finish line to win Tuesday's meet. Behind her is her coach, Louis Newcomb. See story for details.



THE RUNNIN' RAMS, Southern High School's cross country teams, opened their respective seasons this past week by participating in an invitational at Clear Spring on Saturday, and then hosting — and defeating — a pair of teams Tuesday on their Broadford Park course. Pictured above are the members of the boys' team coached by Carl Booth. From left, front row, are: Ed Clemons, manager; Matt Frederick, Jared Fike, Stephen Elswert, Tom Crozier, Tony Cerrito, and Russell Patterson. In the back, same order, are: Chris English-Ramsay, Levi Filsinger, Keenan Shaffer, Jared Reckart, Coy Ware, Jordan Swerbinsky, Nathan Gregg, and Skyler Bolden. Not present for the photo were Kyle Conroy and Shawn Shifflet. Pictured below are the members of the girls' team, which is the defending Maryland 1A champion squad. Seated front, from left, are Amber Stewart and Liz McDonald. In the second row are: Katie Moomau, Anissa Jamison, Erin Lucas, and Maria Hines. In the third row are: Heather Sersland, Lisa Wade, Melissa Flanagan, Kelly Wade, Stephanie DiSimone, and Emily Cosner. In the back row are: Melissa Durst, Fallon Farley, Kara Paugh, Laura Preston, Natalie Domenick, and Amanda Sisler.

The Southern boys finished with 25 points to defeat Frankfort with 36 and East Hardy, incomplete.

Durst, a sophomore and third-place finisher in the state last year, completed the 3.1-mile course in 22 minutes, 17 seconds, while freshman teammate Natalie Domenick was second in 22:29. Amber Stewart was fifth (24:29), followed by Emily Cosner in eighth place (24:59), and Stephanie DiSimone, Anissa Jamison, and Erin Lucas finishing 11th, 12th, and 13th, respectively.

Frankfort's Lyndsay Shaffer and Lauren Hutzell placed third and fourth, respectively, with times of 23:41 and 23:44.

Southern's Cosner edged out Frankfort's Lindsay Shaner by one second to give the Rams the 2-point win.

Matt Frederick was the fastest runner for Southern in the boys' race, as he placed fourth with a time of 18:46. Sy Farris of Frankfort was the winner in 18:34, followed by Lester Davis of East Hardy (18:41) and Woody Snoberger of Frankfort (18:42).

Other top finishers for the Rams were Tom Crozier, Jared Fike, Steve Eiswert, and Tony Cerrito, who placed sixth through ninth, respectively. Kyle Conroy was 11th, with Jared Reckart, Skyler Bolden, Jordan Swerbinsky, and Shawn Shifflet in 13th through 16th places, respectively.

Durst was also Southern's top runner in the Interstate Classic at Clear Spring on Saturday. She placed fifth overall with a time of 21:53, while Domenick was 15th in 23:22. Stewart was 44th, Lucas placed 54th, Cosner was 59th, Melissa Flanagan finished 75th, and Laura Preston rounded out Southern's results with an 88th place finish.

Mercersburg Academy won the girls' team title, followed by Glenelg, Smithsburg, Strasburg, Williamsport, and Southern. Boonsboro was seventh, followed by Walkersville, Beall, St. John's, Oak Mill, Westmar, Allegany, Clarke County, North Hagerstown, and Catoctin.

For the Southern boys, Frederick led the way with a finish of 19:08.2, good for 28th place. Crozier and Fike were 69th and 70th, Eiswert placed 77th, Conroy was 101st, Cerrito finished 107th, and Swerbinsky was 112th.

Glenelg won the boys' meet with a team score of 76, followed by Strasburg, Oak Mill, Westmar, Clarke County, Mercersburg, Boonsboro, Clear Spring, Williamsport, Beall, St. James, Smithsburg, Catoctin, Walkersville, Southern, St. John's, and Allegany.

The Southern girls, who have two state titles to their credit, are coached by Louis Newcomb, and the boys, who have won five state 1A championships, are coached by Carl Booth. Both teams will compete again this Saturday at home against Fort Hill.

Despite losing All-State runners Beth Sauder, Erin Hoalcraft, Angie Sincell, and Faryn Shaffer to graduation this past spring, Coach Newcomb is optimistic about this season.

"We have Melissa back, along with several other experienced runners, plus 10 freshmen with great potential," he said. "We're about 12 deep right now."

Newcomb believes his team will be among the top when the 2000 state championships at Hereford roll around in November, and he expects Glenelg to be the Rams' most difficult 1A opponent.

The SHS boys' squad, which won five straight titles under Coach Booth, are still in a rebuilding mode, but only Caine Chorpenning and Andrew Sisler were among the top runners from last season who were lost to graduation.

"The boys came back in shape and with a great attitude," Booth said. "My biggest concern is a lack of depth. It will be very important for our top runners to stay healthy."

Glenelg, Oakland Mills, and Westmar are expected to pose the most competition for the Rams in the 1A race for the state title.

Northern Girls Record WMIL Wins Over Beall And Westmar

After dropping their season opener to Bishop Walsh, the Northern High School girls' varsity soccer team rebounded this past week with a pair of Western Maryland Interscholastic League victories, a 2-1 defeat of visiting Beall last Thursday and a 3-1 stoppage of Westmar last night, also at the Cove.

Most of the match with Beall was played in the mid-field area, as there was a total of only 13 shots on goal, with the Huskies holding a 9-4 advantage. All three goals were scored in the first half, with Northern's Emily Rawe putting the first point on the board less than a minute and a half into the match.

Rawe's goal off an assist by Kara Kenner was recorded at the 38:33 mark to give the Huskies a 1-0 advantage. Beall's Becky Skidmore tied the contest about 15 minutes later when she scored off a feed by Laura Booth.

The final and deciding goal of the evening was scored by Northern's Kristin Lander off an assist by Rawe with 6:20 remaining in the first half. The second half was all defense.

Beall finished with a 3-2 edge in corner kicks. Recording three saves in goal for the Huskies was Ashley Warnick, while Crystal Martz was credited with four saves for Beall.

The Mountaineers dropped to 1-1 with the defeat.

The Huskies fell behind 1-0 in the first half against Westmar last night when Natalie Sloan scored a goal, but Husky Carrie Friend responded with a goal later in the half (times and assists not reported) to make it 1-1 at halftime.

Emily Rawe put the Huskies ahead for good with an unassisted goal halfway through the second half (19:55), and Brooke Butler tacked on an insurance goal for the Huskies off an assist by Lyndsi Butler with 8:14 left in the match.

Shots on goal, goalkeeper saves, and corner kick totals were not reported.

The Huskies (2-1, 2-0 WMIL) will return to action this Friday in the City/Garrett County Classic, to be hosted by Bishop Walsh in Cumberland. Northern is slated to meet BW at 5 p.m., following a match between Southern and Fort Hill, which is to kick off at 3 p.m.

Southern Girls Edged By BW Before Stopping Allegany, 3-1

The girls' varsity soccer team of Southern High School, which opened its season with a 6-0 victory over Fort Hill last week, saw its record evened at 1-1 Saturday in falling to host Bishop Walsh, 2-0. The Rams rebounded, however, on Tuesday night to earn a 3-1 Western Maryland Interscholastic League win over host Allegany.

Coach Ron Petrella's team will continue to play on the road until October 4 when the Rams will get another shot at Bishop Walsh in Oakland.

The young Southern squad actually out-played Bishop Walsh (3-1) on Saturday, finishing with a 22-14 advantage in shots on goal and a 5-4 edge in corner kicks. But they could not get the ball past Spartan keeper Kelli Amoroso, who was credited with 18 saves. Becky Martin had 10 stops for the Rams.

Karen Knight wasted no time putting the Spartans on top, as she took a feed from Nina Martin and scored three minutes into the match. The score remained 1-0, however, until halfway through the second half, when Knight struck again, this time off an assist by Jen Tola with 19:30 left on the clock.

The Campers put the first point of the match on the board when Heather Proud scored at the 21-minute mark of the first half off an assist by Bethany Heavner. But Gregg tied things up just a minute and a half later with an unassisted goal.

The score remained tied at 1-1 until the final minutes of the match, despite the fact that the Rams dominated play. Southern finally took the lead for good when Gina Reeves scored off a feed from Taylor with just 4:47 left in the contest. Then Taylor added an insurance goal, unassisted, with 2:15 remaining.

The Rams finished with a commanding 28-9 advantage in shots on goal, and also in corner kicks, 10-2. Martin was credited with nine saves for Southern, while Camper keeper Te-Andra Smith stopped 25 Ram shots.

Southern will return to Cumberland yet again this Friday afternoon to play in the Bishop Walsh Tournament. The tourney will continue on Saturday.

A couple of Southern's outstanding freshmen played a key role in the 3-1 victory over Allegany on Tuesday, as Casey Taylor finished with a goal and an assist, and Robbin Gregg also recorded a goal. Freshman Justine Pagenhardt and Sabrina Scheffel each had a goal in the season opener at Fort Hill.

Rams Crushed By Bishop Walsh, Rebound For Win Over Preston

It was not a pretty sight for Southern High soccer fans Saturday morning at Bishop Walsh High School, where the SHS boys varsity took a 9-1 pounding at the feet of the undefeated Spartans. However, The Rams broke into the win column Tuesday evening at home with a 5-0 victory over Preston.

Jason Miller scored a hat trick plus one for the 4-0 BW Spartans on Saturday, while Eric Perlozzo also finished with a hat trick to account for seven of their team's nine goals. It was the second straight loss in as many starts for the Rams.

Miller started BW's scoring with a goal off a feed by Brennan Mullaney at the 32:26 mark of the first half. Just 20 seconds later, Perlozzo scored his first of three off an assist by Matt Tam.

Juan Leguizamon hit an unassisted goal for the Spartans with 23:45 remaining in the half to put the Rams behind 3-0. Mullaney then took a pass from Tam to score a few minutes later (21:08), Perlozzo scored off an assist by Leguizamon at the 17:49 mark, and Miller hit his second goal off a feed by Perlozzo with 15:54 remaining to give the Spartans a commanding 6-0 halftime lead.

Miller wasted little time in adding to the BW total in the second half, as he scored off a pass from Mullaney with less than two minutes gone.

Finally breaking the scoreboard ice for the Rams was Keith Steyer, who scored an unassisted goal with 26:48 left on the clock, far too little too late.

Perlozzo answered about five minutes later with another goal, this one off an assist by Jeff Knight. Then Miller completed his four-goal night with a score less than a minute later (20:49) off a pass from Kevin Orendorf.

The Rams were outgunned by a 25-12 margin in shots on goal, and in corner kicks by a 6-4 advantage. Chris Menker had eight saves in goal for Southern, while Jay Sulek was credited with six saves for the Spartans.

Recording two goals apiece for the Rams Tuesday night in their victory over visiting Preston were Keith Steyer and Chris Remley, while teammate Dustin Slider accounted for the fifth one.

Southern dominated the contest, finishing with a lopsided 23-7 advantage in shots on goal and a 6-3 lead in corner kicks.

Steyer opened the scoring with an unassisted goal at the 27:28 mark of the first half, and doubled his output about 17 minutes later when he scored off an assist by Chad Panther.

Remley's first goal of the evening came at the 30-minute mark of the second half, as he tapped in a crossing pass from Panther. He scored again less than a minute later, this time unassisted, to give the Rams a 4-0 lead.

Menker was credited with six saves in goal for Southern, while Preston's Sung Min Lee had 12 saves.

The Rams will not play again until next Thursday, when they host Allegany.

NHS Uses Strong Defense To Shut Out Clay-Battelle, 15-0

The Northern High School Huskies shut down Clay-Battelle, 15-0, in Friday's season opener, holding the hosts scoreless with the help of an interception, a fumble recovery, and a fine overall defensive effort. "Our defense picked up where it left off last year," NHS skipper Phil Carr commented afterward. "We bent a little, but didn't break. The offense was pretty weak, and we're working hard to fix that, but if you can play ugly and still win you're doing good."

The Huskies' defense managed to hold Cee-Bee running back Matt Starkey, who has had some big games already this year, to 104 yards on 15 carries, while completely shutting down the rest of the hosts' running game by allowing just 77 yards on the ground to the rest of the Clay-Battelle offense. Northern's offense relied on an outstanding 15-carry, 146-yard effort by fullback Mark Wolf, who scored one of the Huskies' two touchdowns.

Northern jumped out of the blocks early when Wolf took off for a 33-yard run on the Huskies' first play from scrimmage. On the very next play Wolf exploded for a 51-yard touchdown run to give NHS the lead, and the team captain capped his own score with a 2-point conversion run to put the Huskies up 8-0 at the 11:22 mark.

Both defenses stiffened after that possession to keep the respective offensive units in check for the lion's share of the remainder. "We had a couple of drives stalled by penalties that cost us some first down runs," observed Carr. "That's kind of normal, a lot of the guys were playing their first varsity game; but now that's behind them. The game film shows that we missed a tremendous amount of blocks, and we've been working hard on all blocking assignments this week. Our defense played great with its back against the goal line for much of the second half, but they kept the Cee-Bees from pushing the ball into the end zone."

A key play came late in the third quarter when senior Jeremy Frazee gathered in an errant Cee-Bee field goal attempt and scampered 33 yards before being brought down at the Clay-Battelle 45-yard line. "Jeremy's return was big," Carr stated, "because if he had gotten tackled deep it would have had our offense's back to the wall and if we stalled it would have given them the ball back in good field position."

Another Husky highlight came midway through the final period at the 7:00 mark when senior Brandon Kamp picked off a pass in the NHS secondary (which gave up only two completions in six Clay-Battelle pass attempts) and returned it nearly 20 yards.

Although Northern failed to capitalize on that turnover, it did use a clutch 27-yard punt return by sophomore Aaron Mitchell to launch a drive that culminated in a 13-yard touchdown run by senior fullback Bill Rodeheaver for the final nail in the coffin late in the fourth quarter. Trey Brenneman connected on the extra-point kick to put the 15th point on the scoreboard.

Northern's running game powered its offense throughout, as the Huskies rolled up 204 of their 207 yards of total offense on the ground. In addition to Wolf's 146 rushing yards, Rodeheaver contributed 53 yards on 10 carries. "Those guys ran well, but the team didn't run well as a whole," according to Carr. "The Cee-Bees used a slanting defense that gave our inexperienced offensive line fits; but that let us know what we have to work on in practice, because we'll be seeing that kind of defense again."

Wolf played a strong two-way game, leading the Husky defense with 14 tackles as he roamed his outside linebacker territory. Senior tackle Toby Gilpin tackled 13 ball carriers and snared a quarterback sack. Linebacker Trey Brenneman pounced on a fumble to make a recovery.

NHS is slated to take on Tucker County tomorrow night in its home opener, and Carr said his troops can expect to see more of the same that they saw from Clay-Battelle — only in a bigger package. "Tucker has the same kind of philosophy as the Cee-Bees do, they'll be wanting to handle us on the line of scrimmage and use their size. They have a couple of guys who weigh over 300 pounds, but they aren't very fast overall; we hope our quickness can counteract their size."

Last week the Mountain Lions dropped a hard-fought 12-6 contest with Lincoln, a much larger AA school. "Tucker put up a tough battle," Carr said. "They ran a variety of sets on offense, although mainly stuck with an I-formation. Senior Jared Milliorn (5-7, 140) is a small but very fast tailback who can get away from you if he gets outside.

"We saw them split out their flankers every once in a while, too, because their quarterback, Jake Bava (5-11, 160), can throw a pretty good pass. He's only a sophomore, and our young guys had better get used to seeing him." Tucker's offensive line features tackle Rodney Rosier (6-1, 319) and center Matt Smith (6-0, 217), both seniors, and big junior tackle Jeff Helmick (6-1, 328).

The quarter-ton combo of Rosier and Helmick will line up at defensive tackle when the Huskies have the ball, and will be backed by Nathan Miller (5-10, 245) an outstanding middle linebacker, according to Carr. "The Mountain Lions will run a 4-4 or a 6-2 on defense, keeping the line at an even number.

"We're anticipating a good, tough game, and are looking forward to getting all our guys healthy again," said Carr. "We lost running back Ethan DeVore early against Clay-Battelle to a knee injury; with Rob Dozier already out, we're down a bit in the backfield."

The Huskies are ready for their home debut at the Cove. "The guys are really excited about playing in front of the home crowd," Carr stated. "The marching band, the cheerleaders, and the fans are what it's all about. We hope to have a big crowd." Kickoff is slated for 7 p.m.

Rams Play Evenly With Keyser, Until Second Half

The varsity football team of Southern High School opened its 2000 campaign at Keyser last Friday night, and performed well against a talented and undefeated Golden Tornado squad; at least throughout the first half, which ended in a scoreless deadlock. But the strength and experience of the home team took charge in the second half, and the Rams returned home with a stinging 33-0 defeat. It was the first game for Coach Fred Gregg in his second stint as head coach of the Rams.

The two halves were like two different ball games, as the Ram defense held the high-powered Keyser offensive unit out of the end zone and bent, but did not break, against Tornado Gerald Mayhew throughout the first half. But before the final buzzer sounded, Mayhew would record one of the greatest yardage/scoring totals ever achieved against a Southern High defense. Mayhew amassed 264 yards, four touchdowns, and a two-point conversion on 23 carries. He had just 68 yards in the first half of action.

A 21-yard scoring run by Mayhew early in the third quarter gave Keyser all the points it would need for the win. The kick for the extra point failed.

On Keyser's next possession, Mayhew broke loose to record a 17-yard scoring run, and then carried successfully for the conversion to give the Tornados a 14-0 lead.

Before the third quarter ended, Keyser quarterback Troy Ravenscroft connected with D.J. Hetrick on a 19-yard scoring pass to make it 20-0. The conversion kick failed.

Mayhew upped his team's total to 26-0 with a 25-yard touchdown run early in the fourth period, and later raced 47 yards for a final six-pointer, after which Jared Riggleman booted the conversion to complete the scoring.

Leading the Keyser defensive effort, which kept the Rams off the scoreboard, forced four fumbles, an interception, and a blocked punt, was Brandon Warnick, who recorded 14 tackles and a fumble recovery.

It was the third win in as many starts for Keyser.

"We were very pleased with our effort in the first half," stated Coach Gregg. "We executed well and stayed right with a very good football team. But in the second half, we did not execute well, and our technique eroded because of both physical and mental fatigue. The fact that this was their third game and our first game was significant."

Gregg said he attributed the second-half letdown to two things. "First of all, we are not where we need to be in terms of game conditioning," he said, "and I take responsibility for that. Secondly, our players don't yet have the mental toughness that is necessary to be successful, and that's something that they are each going to have to address from within."

Gregg said that, other than some "bumps and bruises," the Rams came out of the game with no significant injuries.

The Rams truly step from the frying pan into the fire this week, as they prepare to host an always-tough Musselman team this Friday night. The Applemen are 2-1, having lost to a Virginia team.

"We've seen them play," Gregg said, "and they are a very good team. They are more power-oriented this year than in the past. They don't have quite as much speed as some former Musselman teams, but they are bigger and stronger."

When asked to compare Musselman with Keyser, Gregg said, "I would have to say that Musselman is probably better."

The Applemen are led offensively by their quarterback Weatherholtz, fullback Horn, and halfback Suddueth. "Weatherholtz has a good arm, so they throw the ball more than in the past," Gregg said. "So our secondary has really been put on notice this week."

The Rams' home opener will kick off at 7:30 p.m.

Steelers Take Record To 2-1 After OT Win

The Northern Steelers prevailed Saturday in a hard-fought, 13-7 overtime victory over the Morgan County (W.Va.) Indians in Accident. The win gives Northern a 2-1 record in Cumberland Area Youth Football League action.

Robert Fontaine and the Steelers struck first when the quarterback hit Robert Stark for a 22-yard touchdown strike in the second quarter. Both defenses stiffened until the fourth period when the Indians' Richard Hovermale broke free for a 41-yard scoring run to knot the score.

The Steelers rose to the occasion in overtime by mounting a drive that culminated in a game-winning touchdown plunge from the 1-yard line by Stark.

Jeremiah Wilt, Anthony Lewis, and Tyler Warn were among the stalwarts of Northern's defense, according to the Steelers coaching staff.

Northern is slated to take on the AES Patriots on Sunday, Sept. 24.

SHS Frosh Nipped By Frankfort In Closing Seconds

Southern High School's freshman football squad came out on the short end of a heart-breaking 7-0 defensive struggle last Thursday night in Ridgeley, W.Va. The contest was the season debut for both teams.

Both defensive units held firm throughout contest until the final minutes of the fourth quarter, when the Falcons mounted a long drive that put the ball on the Rams' two-yard line at the two minute warning. Southern forced a Frankfort runner to fumble, and quick-reacting Ram defenders pounced on the ball for the clutch recovery.

SHS's offense, however,

Husky Netters Swept By Alco; Rebound To Down Rams, 3-1

Northern's High School volleyball team downed Southern by a 3-1 margin last night on its home court, a win that took the sting out of a 3-0 loss at the hands of the undefeated Allegany Campers in Cumberland Monday. The Huskies will look to even their record, currently at 1-2 (1-1 in the WMIL), when they host Westmar Monday, and will follow that outing by paying a Wednesday visit to Preston.

NHS started out tough against the Campers, losing a hard-fought 15-13 in the opening contest. Alco kicked into gear over the next two games, however, to vanquish the Huskies by 15-6, 15-5 margins to clinch the sweep.

Malia Collins notched eight points, including two aces and three kills, while Nicole Frazee tallied eight points as well to share high scoring honors for the Huskies. Bridget Frazee added six kills of her own. Allegany was led by 10 points from Shannae Proud, and teammate Kristina Hanft had eight points and seven kills.

The Northern junior varsity swept the Campers' JV unit in a 2-1 match, 15-9, 11-15, and 15-6. Molly Wolf's 12 points and three aces paced NHS, and fellow Husky Jodi Fratz accounted for seven points. Jessica Mellon led Alco with eight points.

Last night the homecourt Huskies capitalized on a strong performance from Collins to down the Rams, 15-10, 11-15, 15-8, and 15-11. The senior led the way with 18 service points, six kills, and six aces. Nicole Sisler added seven service points and three kills for Northern.

Aimee Parrack paced Southern with 14 service points, five aces, and three kills. Kristen Rollman contributed five assists. The Rams' record fell to 1-2 (0-2 in the WMIL).

NHS took the JV contest as well, mounting game scores of 15-6, 11-15, and 15-8. Fratz scored nine points for the winners and Mary Beth Hershberger added seven points. Alexis Storey had seven points for the Rams.

Southern's coming schedule features a pair of home matches, as the Rams host Fort Hill Monday and Bishop Walsh Wednesday.

Aggressive Laker Netters Jump Out To 2-0 Start In McHenry

The Lakers' volleyball squad wasted no time in asserting itself in its 2000 season debut last night at Garrett Community College, trouncing Penn State-Beaver 2-0 and defeating Community College of Beaver County 2-1.

Coach Margaret Quinn's team boasts seven returning sophomores and five incoming freshmen, and the GCC skipper has her sights set on a successful season on the way to the Region XX Tournament, set for early November in Catonsville, and the Division II National Tourney in Michigan that will follow. Next week's sports pages will feature a rundown on the Lakers' prospects for the season, as well as a team photo.

Garrett ran away from Beaver with 15-5, 15-1 victories in the opener last night. Freshman Lauren Stillwagon, a product of Allegany High, went 9-for-9 on service points with two aces and six assists. Sophomore Melissa McKeever of McHenry had three aces and went 8-for-9 from the service line, and Seneca Rocks, W.Va., native Crystal Kimble was 2-for-2 and had four assists.

Sophomore and Southern alumna Jessica Saturday went 3-for-3 with an ace, and 3-for-4 on attacks with three kills. Alison Rose, who graduated from Preston High a year ago, was 5-for-5 on attack with four kills, and 2000 Northern grad Mimi Harvey, a Friendsville resident, was 6-for-6 in serves and 2-for-3 on attacks, with one kill.

GCC took the first game from CC-Beaver by a 15-9 margin, dropped the second by a 15-10 tally, then clinched the match with a 15-9 win. Kimble led the way with a 12-for-12 service performance with two aces and 11 assists. Stillwagon added 10 assists, and sophomore Tameka Graves of St. Mary's County was 14-for-15 on attacks with six kills, an attack tally matched by Saturday, who had 11 kills of her own. Freshman Keri Niner, a former Ram, was 12-of-15 on service with an ace, and 7-for-7 on attack with three kills.

Garrett is set to visit Penn State-Fayette tomorrow, then will play host to Anne Arundel CC and Community College of Baltimore County Saturday at 1 p.m. On Wednesday the Lakers travel east to take on the arch-rival Hagerstown Hawks.

Swanton Resident Places 33rd In National Water Skiing Event

Garrett County resident Sam Ingram recently placed in a 13-way tie for 33rd place (out of a field of 158 skiers) in the National Slalom Water Ski Championship, held last month at Paradise Lakes Estates in Bakersfield, Calif. The Men's 3 division drew qualified skiers ranging from age 35 to 44 from throughout the United States.

To qualify for nationals a skier in the Men's 3 division must score at least 6 @ 35 in two sanctioned tournaments during the year or place among the top five finalists at the regional tournament. By way of explanation, 6 @ 35 refers to the number of compieted turns (6) and the amount of rope taken off a standard 75-foot tow line (35).

A slalom course has an entrance gate, six turn buoys, and an exit gate that a skier must navigate to proceed to a shorter and more difficult rope length. The rope lengths are shortened in specific increments of 15, 22, 28, 32, 35, 38, 39½, 41, and finally 43 feet off the standard 75-foot towrope. The towboat throttle is computer controlled and set at a constant speed of 34 miles per hour.

Ingram was ranked 16th going into the national competition, having earned that position by skiing an average of 3 @ 39½ during sanctioned tournaments throughout the eastern U.S. this summer. The single round competition was held on two side-by-side "groomed" lakes and lasted a total of nine hours, with the top skiers performing at the end of the day.

Ingram, the current Maryland State Champion and record holder with 3 @ 39½, has qualified to ski at nationals each year since 1995 and has competed at the 1995, 1996, and 2000 events. The highlight of Ingram's water skiing accomplishments this year was winning the Eastern U.S. Regional Tournament on Lake Holly in Sparta, Va.

Ingram is the president of the Deep Creek Lake Water Sports Club, which accesses submersible slalom courses on the lake under a special permit from the Maryland Department of Natural Resources. The club works to provide quality slalom water skiing opportunities on DCL, according to Ingram, and also organizes an annual "fun" tournament and water ski clinic hosted by the Broadford Lake Recreational Area in Mtn. Lake Park, which are skiers of all abilities are encouraged to participate.

Persons interested in joining the DCL Water Sports Club may call 301-387-7683 for further information.

Fishing Tourney Slated To Benefit Area United Way

A benefit bass fishing tournament has been set for this Saturday, Sept. 16, by the United Way of Garrett County. The event, the largest of its kind on Deep Creek Lake, is projected to attract contestants from as far away as the eastern shore of Maryland, the tidewater area of Virginia, and upstate New York. Entrees will be accepted until the 7 a.m. "Ooze-off" the day of the tournament. Participants will return to the public boat ramp in Deep Creek Lake State Park for the 3 p.m. weigh-in.

Two hundred fishermen will compete to take home the $2,000 first prize. Over $5,650 in prize money will be available to the top 10 finishers. A lunker pool will pay 75 percent to the winner for the single heaviest largemouth or smallmouth bass caught.

The daylong event will include activities for the entire family, beginning at 11 a.m. with entertainment. Two bands will be performing, face painting and games will take place, and food and refreshments will be available. Mettiki Coal is offering a baby beef as the top prize in a raffle.

Representatives of agencies slated to benefit from the charity event will be on hand to discuss the services they offer. Human services agencies that are partially supported by the United Way of Garrett County include programs offered by the American Red Cross, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boy Scouts of America, the Dove Center, Mountain Glade Adult Day Services, Garrett Cooperative Ministry, Garrett Community Action Committee, and Garrett County Habitat for Humanity.

Other agencies with programs financed by the United Way of Garrett County are Garrett County Lighthouse, Garrett County Literacy Council, Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, Hospice of Garrett County, Maryland Salem Children's Trust, the Salvation Army, and Western Maryland Catholic Charities.

Presented in cooperation with the Department of Natural Resources, Bass 2000 is sponsored by Pepsi, Biederlack of America, CSX Transportation, AES Warrior Run, D&B Welding and Fabrication, Mettiki Coal, and Two-Way Radio Services Inc.

All fish caught will be released back into Deep Creek Lake. Last year's winners were J.T. Kenney and Daron J. Winters of Frostburg, with a catch weighing 19 pounds, 8 ounces.

Tournament information for Bass 2000 is available on the World Wide Web at www.CUWbass.com. Further information may be obtained by calling Linda Tocy 301-359-9697.

Sailboat Racing On Deep Creek Lake

THE LAST HURRAH OF THE SEASON

by Ted Rissell

The Saturday after Labor Day marks the end of competitive sailing at Deep Creek Lake. The last race of the season is known as the "'Round the Lake Magellan Race," named for the famed navigator who was first to sail completely around the earth. The first Magellan race was organized by the late Harry Filemyr some years ago.

The course uses every mark and sails into all the coves south of the Glendale bridge. Since sailboats with their tall masts cannot sail under the Glendale Bridge, that part of the lake is marked terra incognito on our course charts.

All fleets and sailboats start together for the Magellan race, but Saturday morning at 11 a.m. there was no wind. Race commander Ed Peters postponed and ordered lunch served at 11:30 a.m., rather than after the race. A light breeze began blowing about 11:30, and the race was off at noon in light and flukey winds.

Jane and Dave Mahan took an early lead as they hugged the Turkey Neck shore on the way to Penn Point. They were first around the first mark, followed closely by Kevin and Ted Rissell. As the boats approached Blakesley Point, Kevin flew his spinnaker on a close reach by lowering the jib sail. This is a common procedure on larger boats, but is not usually done on Flying Scots; however, America's Cup sailor Peter Isler had told Kevin some 20 years ago to use that technique on a Flying Scot.

The procedure paid off, and although Kevin opened a big lead on the rest of the fleet, the Mahans were too far ahead. For the next 3 hours Mahans were first and the Rissells second. Third place changed between Dave Bertsch and crew Ronn Downey, Lee and Joan Coraor, and Peter Frey in his Laser. Peter sailed very well to keep up with the larger and faster Scots. At the end, the Coraors prevailed to take third place.

DNR Modifies Hunters' Second ID Regulation

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources has dropped its requirement that hunters in the field carry photo identification. The new regulation will still require a second form of ID, in addition to the numbered hunting license, but the secondary ID will not have to bear the hunter's photograph. Failure to carry any identification is punishable by a fine of up to $500.

"Concerns have been raised that the requirement would cause serious problems for hunters whose religious beliefs do not allow them to be photographed, as well as causing potential difficulties for young hunters who may not have a photo ID," said DNR secretary Sarah Taylor-Rogers. The deputy director of the Wildlife and Heritage Division, Robert Beyer, reportedly said that the agency had received complaints from parents of juveniles too young to be photographed for a driver's license, and from Amish hunters who objected to photographs on religious grounds.

Among the types of acceptable secondary forms of ID (or copies thereof) are a driver's license, Social Security card, school identification card, birth certificate, library card, credit card, or employment identification. Even a wallet photo with the subject's name and address written on the back will suffice, Beyer said.

The rule is designed to enable Natural Resources Police to quickly identify hunters so tickets can be written for violations. Otherwise, the officers must take violators before a district court commissioner to file the charge.

Maryland Deer Archery Season To Open Sept. 15

Maryland Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Wildlife and Heritage Division director Mike Slattery reminded hunters that the 2000-2001 Maryland Deer Bow Season will open on Sept. 15.

Bow hunters spend more than 650,000 days pursuing Maryland's native white-tailed deer and the exotic sika deer. Bow hunting provides a rigorous outdoor activity for more than 41,000 Marylanders, Slattery said.

Prior to heading into the woodlands, many bow hunters spend hours target shooting with their bow and going out into the field to study deer behavior. Bow hunters also research deer behavior by reviewing magazines, books, videos, and Internet web sites. The Maryland Sportsmen's Association site has links to other sites of interest to bow hunters, and can be found at www.unitedsportsmen.com/msa.

"Acquired knowledge and skills assist bow hunters in placing themselves into position to take venison home for the family dinner table, or to donate to those less fortunate. While passing long hours waiting for deer, camouflaged bow hunters are rewarded with up close visits by squirrels, song birds, wild turkeys, and hawks," Slattery said.

Bow hunters took 16,214 white-tailed deer and 158 sika deer during the 1999-2000 archery season. The top 10 counties for total 1999-2000 bow harvest were Garrett (1,672), Frederick (1,427), Allegany (1,424), Washington (1,395), Baltimore (1,356), Montgomery (990), Harford (967), Carroll (935), Howard (692), and Kent (680).

With a few exceptions, Maryland's Deer Bow Season is closed during the Firearm and Muzzleloader seasons, but bow hunters are reminded that a bow may be used for hunting deer during these seasons, in accordance with Firearm and Muzzleloader season regulations. Exceptions to this rule include that the Bow Season remains open concurrent with the Youth Only Firearm Season on Nov. 11, and on Oct. 27-28, concurrent with the early Muzzleloader Season in Deer Management Regions C and D only. During these periods when the Deer Bow Season remains open concurrent with other deer seasons, any deer taken with a bow must be checked against the hunters' regional bow bag limit.

Bow hunters who hunt during the Deer Firearm Season (Nov. 11 - Youth Hunt, Nov. 25 to Dec. 9) or during the Deer Muzzleloader Season (Oct. 19 to Oct. 21; and Oct. 27, 28 - Regions C and D only, and Dec. 16 to Dec. 30) must wear and display an outer garment of either:

- a cap of solid daylight fluorescent orange; or
- a vest, jacket, or jacket containing back and front panels of at least 250 square inches of solid daylight orange color; or
- an outer garment of camouflage fluorescent orange worn above the waist which contains at least 50% fluorescent orange color.

Once again last year, no hunting accidents involved archery equipment. In order to have another injury-free bow season, hunters are urged to remember the following safety tips:

- always use a safety belt when hunting from a tree stand;
- use a hoist rope to raise and lower bow hunting equipment from the tree stand;
- inspect all tree stands and repair as needed;
- never stalk deer with a nocked arrow; and
- place arrows in a covered quiver.

DNR encourages hunters to donate a dollar or more to Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry (FHFH) when purchasing hunting licenses and/or bonus deer stamps. Hunters making donations will automatically be entered to win prizes in FHFH's "Grand Giveaway." Last season hunters donated $43,500, which enabled FHFH to process enough venison for more than 248,500 nutritious meals for Maryland's needy population.

Hunters are also encouraged to donate excess deer to the program this season. A new listing of participating meat processors is available where licenses are available by calling 301-739-3300 or from the FHFH web site at www.fhfh.org.

For additional information concerning Maryland deer hunting regulations or for further information about deer hunting opportunities on public lands, persons may consult the DNR publication Hunting and Trapping in Maryland 2000-2001. This publication is issued to hunters when they purchase a 2000-2001 hunting license.

Hunters' Safety Class Completed In Friendsville

Seventeen future hunters, ranging in age from 5 to 35, recently completed a hunters' safety course, sponsored by the Farmers' Wildlife Association of Friendsville, a local hunting club.

The course, which is required for anyone purchasing a hunting license in Maryland, was instructed by Brad Friend and Kelvin Fearer. At the end of the training, students must take written and practical tests in firearm safety while hunting. Course completers earn the Hunter's Safety Card, which is transferable to most other states and parts of Canada.

The Farmers' Wildlife Association of Friendsville will offer additional courses in the future, but no dates have been scheduled at this time. For more information on the club and its other activities, persons may call club president Eugene Durst at 301-895-3219.

Area Speedway Review

by Nancy Dennison

For the first time, fog shortened the night after the second feature on Saturday, but not before Jeff Thomas of Oakland took his second checkered in as many weeks in the Late Model race.

Jim Shaffer of Masontown, Pa., won the first Pure Stock race but it was to be a double night for the Pure Stock, so the race isn't over. We will finish the Pure Stock, and also run the E-Mods and Dwarf races on Friday, Sept. 22. We will run these races before the regular events for that evening.

With a full field of cars in the first Pure Stocks race of the evening, Scott Spade started on the pole and led most of the way after the drivers all settled down and started racing. With 24 cars on the track, the first few laps were in some close-knit racing. A few cars had to sit out since there were too many to start. Then if a car broke or failed to come out in the second feature, the other cars could tag on to that race. With the yellow flag going out before the first lap was completed, a few cars went out and new ones came in. This made for some very exciting racing.

As the race got under way, everyone shifted around, as Shaffer moved up and took over the lead for good in the 14th lap of the 20-lap race. Placing second was Scott Spade, followed by Scott Herring, Greg Hauger, Jim Shaffer, Jeff Kenner, Chuck Capanna, Marshall Coleman, John Redshaw, and Bob Nelson, to round out the top 10.

In the Late Model race, Richard Burrows started on the pole, with L.C. Powers on the outside. This was the running order for the first couple laps, but that was it, as Jeff Thomas, who started 12th after winning the last race, moved his way up to the lead after only six laps. He held onto the lead the rest of the way, but there was a lot of close racing all the way back through the field.

The top 10 finishers, respectively, were: Thomas, Mike Benedum, Scott Mile, Chad McDougal, Richard Burrows, Jeff Ferguson, D.J. Cline, Mel Minnick, Jesse Guseman, and Mark Booth.

Roaring Knob will be off this Saturday, Sept. 16, but there will be racing on Friday, Sept. 22, and Saturday, Sept. 23. For details, check the racing papers on the Roaring Knob web site at www.roaringknob.com, or telephone 724-329-0306.

SHS Golfers Down Beall, BW; Place Second To Keyser

Southern High School's golf team took a triangular match last Thursday, besting Beall and Bishop Walsh on the Maplehurst Country Club golf course in Frostburg, before finishing second between first-place Keyser and third-place Westmar in a Tuesday three-way in Oakland.

Southern carded a total score of 180 to take its first outing of the week, while the host Mountaineers scored 226 and the Spartans rounded out the field with a 254. Two Rams, Travis Friend and Nathan Swartzentruber, shared low medalist honors as each shot a 44. Beall's Tim Barnes shot a 51 to pace his team, and BW's Keith Convery led the Spartans with a 55.

Tuesday's match saw Southern's 176 fall eight strokes off the pace of Keyser, but far ahead of the 190 carded by Westmar. Justin DiSimone's Ramhigh 41 tied for low medalist honors with Keyser's B.J. Shrout and Brad Yutzy. Ryan Bateson and Andy Kolberg had 45s for the Wildcats.

A busy week lies ahead for Southern, as the team hosts Moorefield and Union this afternoon at 4 p.m., in advance of Monday's 1:30 WMIL championship meet which will also take place on the 18 holes of the Oakland Golf Club. The Rams travel to Moorefield Tuesday, then return to host Bishop Walsh, Allegany, and Preston in a 4 p.m. four-way match next Thursday, Sept. 21.

RAM GOLFERS READY TO HOST WMIL — After exploding to a 7-1 start, the golf team of Southern High School is slated to host Monday afternoon's WMIL Tournament at the Oakland Golf Club. This week the Rams notched three victories against their first loss of the season at the hands of Keyser. SHS will get its final tune-up for the WMILs this afternoon in a home match against Moorefield and Union. The Southern golfers are shown above in this team photo. Kneeling from the left are Robbie DeWitt, Travis Friend, Nathan Swartzentruber, Bart Shaffer, Evan Thayer, and Natalie Winter. Standing are Todd Hetrick, Jordan Swerbinsky, Bryan Panther, T.J. Nine, Bryson Meyers, Justin DiSimone, Stephen Teagarden, Jocelyn Wotring, and J.R. Gordon. Not available for photo were Jesse Skipper, Toby Stoner, and Andrew Feather. The Rams are coached by Jeff Friend, who is making his debut at the SHS helm.

Oakland Club Retains Title In Wisp Event

The third annual Garrett Cup matches were held Sunday at the Golf Club at Wisp, McHenry, at which the defending champions, members of the Oakland Golf Club, successfully defended their title and retained the cup with a 10.5-7.5 victory over the Wisp club.

The results of the two-man match play matches were as follows: Wisp team of Scott DeCondia and Mike Sipple defeated Oakland's Wheeler Stewart and Dan Daniels; Oakland's Jeff Orr and Rob Sharps topped Clark Yoder and Chris Otto of Wisp; Jim Hetrick and Max Hill of Oakland finished even with Gene Shoemaker and Joe Mullenax of Wisp; Noel Livengood and Chuck Gaston of Wisp defeated Dean Daniels and Roger Bray of Oakland; Bill Saltysiak and Bill Weissgerber of Oakland stopped Doug Otto and Chuck Thomas of Wisp; and Oakland's Mike Smith and Rick Welch defeated Denny Glotfelty and Harland Tichnell of Wisp.

The Wisp hosted a dinner following the event.

Husky Duffers Take Five Of Eight On Road

The golf team of Northern High School holds an overall 12-5 record after a week of action that saw the Huskies win five and lose three matches, all on the road.

The difference between area golf courses was evident this week in Northern's first two matches as the Huskies shot a 161 last Wednesday (Sept. 6) on Keyser's Polish Pines course, which placed them five strokes behind the winning Golden Tornado; then Tuesday the Huskies shot a 185 to claim a quadrangular by a large margin on the Rocky Gap course, designed by the legendary Jack Nicklaus. Yesterday Northern's 178 placed third in a quadrangular at the Preston County Country Club, behind West Fairmont's 151 and Preston's 166, and ahead of Union's 223.

Keyser's 156 led the field on its home course in the first match last Wednesday, while NHS took the runner-up slot. Allegany finished far off the mark with a 190. Adam Pritts carded a 37 for the Golden Tornado to claim low medalist honors. Greg Speicher, Northern's captain, shot a 38 to pace the Huskies, and co-captain A.J. Thomas carded a 41. Kenny Wampler contributed a 41, and Mark Bergstrom finished with a 42. Allegany's Kelie Kaylor shot a 44 for the Campers.

Tuesday's match saw the Huskies run away from the competition by carding a 185. Fort Hill was second with a 195, followed by Beall's 223 and Alco's 231. Low medalist kudos went to NHS's Thomas for his 43, while Speicher added a 46 and Denny Thorp and Jason Rice carded 48s. Steve Shaffer's 45 paced the Sentinels.

"We're playing real well this year," Northern coach Harv Speicher commented after Tuesday's win. "We've shot better as a team on the courses we've played on both last year and this season. All the golfers are doing well, especially A.J. Thomas and Greg Speicher."

Playing in perfect weather conditions yesterday in Kingwood, the Huskies got a 41 from Thomas, but West Fairmont's John Burnside shot an outstanding round to come in at 1-under-par with a 35. The winners mounted a strong team effort, as Burnside had one teammate who carded a 38 and two others who shot 39s. Luke Luzier paced the Knights with a 38, and Andy Martinez shot a 53 for Union.

The Huskies travel to Oakland for the 18-hole WMIL Tournament Monday, which gets under way at 1:30 p.m. "The Rams have a great team this year, and we've got to play good golf if we're going to get by them," observed the NHS coach. Northern will follow the WMIL with a Wednesday quadrangular at the Wisp against Keyser, Union, and Allegany.

was stymied on three straight plays from scrimmage and was forced to punt the ball from its own end zone. Starting with good field position, the Falcons ran the ball twice to get to the Southern 13-yard line. With 19 seconds left Frankfort quarterback Chris Kenney hit a slanting Johnny Markley for the game-winning touchdown.

Southern (0-1) is scheduled to host the freshman squad of Keyser High this evening at 7 p.m.

Women Play Blind Partners

"Blind Partners" was the Oakland Women's Golf Association's game for September 7, with the best-ball score given after handicap. Winning first place by a wide margin was the team of Karon Schnably and Debbie Weissgerber, carding 54.

Two teams tied for second place, scoring 63: Bobbie Seward and Betsy Polce, and Jessie Stowell and Jane Frawley. Two teams also tied for third place, carding 64: Carolyn DeVerse and Kazuko Hamill, and Cheryl Wotherspoon and Fran Bell.

Computer Studies Program Proposed

A proposed Program of Studies for computer studies was introduced for students in grades Pre-K through 12. Computer resource teacher Chuck Trautwein explained that the program suggests that computer technology not be seen as a separate course. "The idea is to integrate computer skills with language arts skills," Trautwein said.

The program outlines, for each grade level, the appropriate skills to be targeted, including an early introduction to good keyboarding habits. "This program recommends the Diana King keyboard method," Trautwein, acknowledging the need to train teachers in this method.

Health Program K-5 Introduced

Dr. Donald Forrester, director of elementary education, presented the suggested health program for students in kindergarten through fifth grade. The goal of the program is to support students in maintaining healthy lifestyles, Forrester explained.

The focus areas include nutrition, safety, disease prevention, relationships, injury prevention, and community health. The program conforms with the state board of education's health education requirements.

Action Taken On Social Studies Program

The board of education was asked to take action on the recommendation to accept the revised social studies Program of Studies for grades K-12, which were introduced during last months general meeting.

Having been on public display for review and comment during the last month, along with recommended text books, the materials were resubmitted to the board for approval. The board voted to accept the revised programs and the recommended texts to be used in conjunction with them.

Given Six Years

gery and uttering were given by the judge to the jury for consideration, with the jury acquitting Beitzel of forgery, but convicting him of uttering.

The checks had been stolen from an Oakland area resident and passed at two local businesses in late October through early November of last year. Officers of the Garrett Bureau of Investigation (GBI) charged the defendant a short time later.

The six-year term is to run consecutively to a one-year sentence Beitzel is serving for a misdemeanor charge that involved the theft of a gun.

William Thomas Sachs, 39, Deer Park, was sentenced to five years in jail for a charge of distribution of a controlled dangerous substance. Sachs had entered a guilty plea to the charge in a July hearing and this week's sentencing followed a pre-sentence investigation. Sherbin suspended three years, six months of the sentence, and the defendant will serve the remaining 18 months in the local jail.

Officers of the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force arrested Sachs in December 1998 following a November '98 sting operation, during which he apparently distributed prescription medications to a police informant.

In the third case, Sherbin sentenced Roy Norman Cheshire, 20, Oakland, to one year in the local jail for violation of probation. Cheshire was originally charged with distribution of marijuana and was sentenced to two years, with one year suspended and two years of supervised probation. The defendant apparently violated the probation by using and/or possessing a controlled dangerous substance.

THE CREW

Rated PG-13 - Running Time: 1:27 - Released 8/25/00

If there ever was a film designed to keep an actor's face and name in the public consciousness at the minimum expense, it would be Michael Dinner's The Crew. We all know Oscar-winner Richard Dreyfuss has done some impressive work over the years, but this film is not to be confused with one of those; it is a throwaway from the word go. Alongside Dreyfuss is Burt Reynolds, Dan Hedaya, and Seymour Cassel, phoning in their performances as four former wiseguys who get back into the business in their golden years. This film's been compared to the recent Clint Eastwood vehicle Space Cowboys, but that film had much more heart and soul than this.

Written by Barry Fanaro, The Crew centers around a gang of four former Mafiosi: there's Bobby Bartellemeo (Dreyfuss), who regrets losing touch with his ex-wife and daughter; Joey "Bats" Pistella (Reynolds), a hothead whose short temper costs him every legit job he's tried; Mike "The Brick" Donatelli (Hedaya), the dumb guy who has taken up embalming dead homeless people as a hobby (he makes them look "happy"); and Tony "Mouth" Donato (Cassel), a pyromaniac who seldom speaks. When their rundown Miami Beach hotel, the Raj Mahal, threatens to raise the rent, the guys decide to make some money by staging a fake hit with one of Mike's recently laid-out bodies. They blow the grinning corpse's head off and leave a note, only to discover that the body is the late father of Latino drug lord Raul Ventana (Miguel Sandoval), so their plan to score some easy cash backfires in two ways, attracting attention from both the national media and the infuriated Ventana, who swears to bring these wiseguys down. In a side plot, this attention causes an uneasy reunion between Bobby and his long lost daughter, Detective Olivia Neal (Carrie-Anne Moss).

Director Dinner and writer Fanaro both tried some cute references in this film, borrowing scenes and lines from such classics as Goodfellas, Casino, The Godfather, and even Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid. But for the most part, the actors looked as bored as I was. Reynolds clearly knows that he's appearing in a late summer filler piece; he seems to be saying "let's get this over with" during every take. Cassel looks pleased, and rightly so, that he got cast as the silent partner (fewer lines = less work). Hedaya, to his credit, tries to give The Brick a little personality, but Fanaro's script subjects him to all the textbook dumb guy gimmicks. Meanwhile, Dreyfuss, who not only appears as front man but narrates the entire film with consistently annoying voiceovers, is about as unconvincing as an Italian Jew as he could be. Listening to him saying "fugeddaboutit" over and over was almost as irritating as listening to Hugh Grant say it in Mickey Blue Eyes. The difference is, Grant was doing it badly on purpose. Ultimately, The Crew makes fun of Jews, Italians, Latinos, and people who live in Miami. Oh, yeah, and anyone who pays to get in. ★½

THE WATCHER

Rated R - Running Time: 1:33 - Released 9/8/00

I first saw Keanu Reeves in 1989, when he was very believable in Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventure and Parenthood, the two films he did that year. This could be because he was playing a valley-talking teenager in both movies. Later, he achieved widespread critical acclaim as a cool-headed cop in Speed. Lately, however, Keanu has been suffering a slump, turning in unconvincing performances in a plethora of roles, including a devil-plagued attorney in The Devil's Advocate (1997), a computer geek turned action hero in The Matrix (1998), and a substitute football player in The Replacements (currently in theatres). Joe Charbanic's directorial debut The Watcher, however, which stars Reeves as a serial killer who enjoys eluding the cops even more than he loves applying piano wire to the necks of his female victims, plumbs the depths of Keanu's inability to convince.

Reeves plays traveling psychopath David Allen Griffin, who, according to the screenplay by David Elliot and Clay Ayers (based on the story by Elliot and Darcy Meyers), is originally from L.A. but he loves the cat-and mouse game he has established with FBI agent Joel Campbell (James Spader) so much that he follows him to Chicago when Campbell moves there. Campbell has retired from the force and begun therapy with a psychiatrist (Marisa Tomei) who is helping him through some issues including but not limited to his involvement with Griffin. However, when the killer shows up again, Campbell knows he is the only one who can deal with the situation. He must join up with the local agents (Chris Ellis, Robert Cicchini) and use his knowledge of Griffin's methods to avoid another killing spree.

Like the killer in The Bone Collector, Griffin is an expert at forensics and knows how to commit his crimes without leaving a shred of evidence, but intentionally gives Campbell clues as to the identity of his next victim. However, Griffin's method is more simple than that of the Bone Collector killer: rather than leaving a bunch of stuff at the scene for Campbell to figure out, he simply sends him a picture of his current target. The fact that he is able to get photos of his victims, while they're still alive and smiling, shows that he is a "watcher," one who learns every minute detail about the life of his prey before he snuffs it out. He learns her schedules, the places she goes, the people she knows, etc. The challenge is for Campbell and his associates to find the girl before Griffin does the deed. But when "the watcher" targets the beautiful Dr. Tomei, the pressure is really on.

The inadequacies of Keanu Reeves hamstring this film for the most part, although more credible performances by Spader, Tomei, and the rest of the cast help a great deal. It's hard to know whether to laugh or groan at Reeves's reading of his creepy character, but neither of those reactions are the desired result. I don't know if Spader is acting tired or whether he really is tired, but his performances has a subtle tension to it despite the dead look in his eyes. Tomei, who has precious little screen time, uses it well. This is not a bad debut for director Charbanic, who keeps the tension going well in what amounts to three separate acts, with flashbacks of Campbell's L.A. days and several chase scenes with and without wheels. There are numerous minor continuity errors, like people not being wet after emerging from a canal, but generally all the points of the emotional scale are reached. But then there's Keanu.

Sorry about that. ★★★½

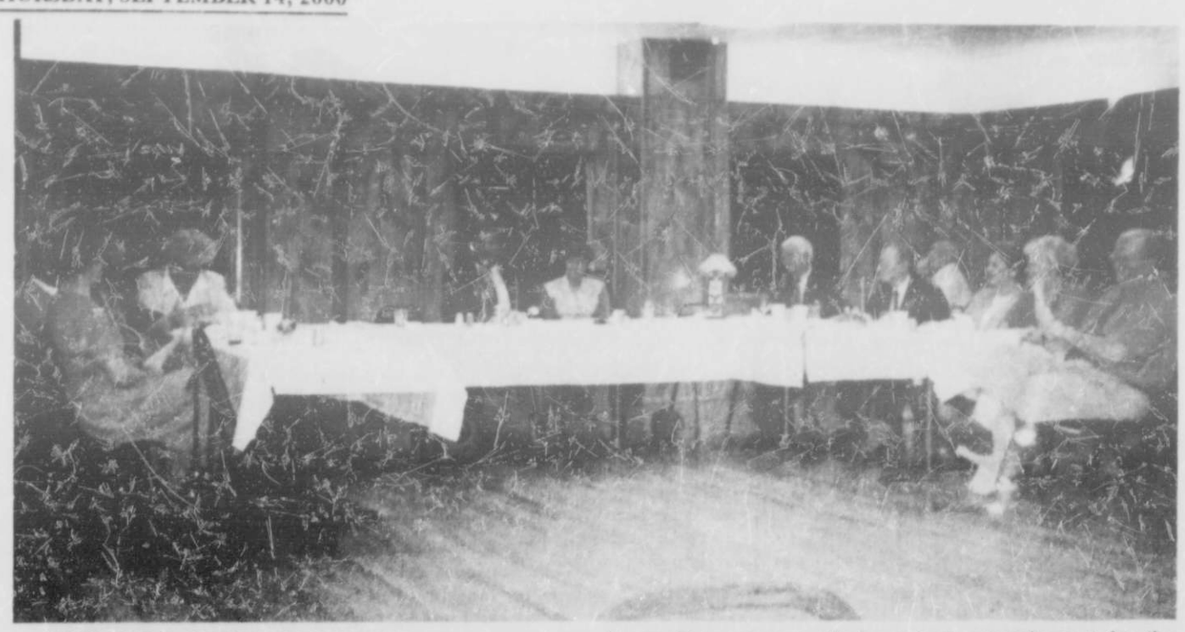
GED Exam Fee Rises; Practice Test Required

The Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) has announced that the fee for the state's GED exam has been increased to $45. As a result of this change, persons planning to take the GED exam must pass a practice test (as mandated by MSDE) before a GED exam application will be processed.

Garrett Community College will offer the practice test each Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Oakland Center, beginning tomorrow, Sept. 15. A $10 fee will be charged for the practice test, and if the practice test is passed, that amount will be applied to the GED exam fee. If the practice test is failed, individuals will be referred to an Adult Basic Education/GED class for assistance in studying for the exam. The $10 practice test fee will be applied toward the GED exam fee when the practice test is passed.

For more information on the GED exam, the practice test, and Adult Basic Education GED classes, persons may call Patricia Baer at the Oakland Center at 301-334-8304.



DEMOCRATS, VETS SHARE DINNER — A dinner honoring Thomas E. Bratten Jr., Maryland secretary of Veterans Affairs, and all other Garrett County veterans was held at the Oakland American Legion, Post #71, on Saturday, Sept. 9. Brigadier General Dale Schroyer, a Friendsville native now retired from military service, gave a talk about changes in armed forces command strategies, and also commented on citizens' treatment of active and past members of the military during and after the Vietnam War. Gary Yoder served as master of ceremonies, and Richard Friend, a highly decorated Vietnam veteran and also a county native, spoke briefly and then read a letter to Bratten penned by General H. Norman Schwarzkopf. Tom and Susan Peterson provided musical entertainment for the guests, and Carl Rebele, a veteran of the Korean War, also spoke briefly. While Bratten was touched by the affair, a spokesperson noted, he also reminded the guests that the event was a salute to all veterans of all wars, and asked that they be remembered for the sacrifices made that ensured the freedoms now enjoyed in the United States. Floyd Baker, president of the sponsoring Garrett County Democratic Club and a Korean era veteran, led the Pledge of Allegiance and also drew a raffle ticket for the book It Doesn't Take a Hero, written by Schwarzkopf. Mark Simmons of Grantsville was the winner of the book, which was also autographed by the writer.

Gun Theft

na, while additional suspected marijuana and smoking paraphernalia was located during a vehicle search.

Shawn D. Bishoff, 23, Bruceton Mills, W.Va., received a PBJ after pleading guilty to marijuana possession, He was handed a 30-day sentence, all but two days of which were suspended, a $100 fine, six months of supervised probation, and an order to complete 40 hours of community service. An additional charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was not prosecuted.

Bishoff was arrested in April after state troopers stopped the vehicle in which he was a passenger along Friendsville Road. He voluntarily produced two bags of suspected marijuana and a pair of smoking pipes.

Robert Ray Bucklew, 43, Morgantown, W.Va., was handed a stet ruling for a handgun violation, with an order that he forfeit the gun. State troopers arrested Bucklew after a June traffic stop along Garrett Highway in the McHenry area. He voluntarily produced a loaded .22-caliber handgun from his vehicle's glove compartment.

Robert Wayne Yonts, 29, Nitro, W.Va., received a stet ruling with an order that he forfeit a handgun he was carrying at the time of a July traffic stop along I-68. Yonts voluntarily produced a loaded 9-mm Glock handgun for the arresting state trooper.

A trio of local women — Cynthia Marie Upole, 21, Deer Park; Marni Jo Sweitzer, 20, Oakland; and Kristen Diane Michaels, 19, Kitzmiller — were each handed stet rulings on drug charges, with a requirement to complete 20 hours of community service.

The three women were arrested after a GBI detective noted the odor of burnt marijuana coming from within a Deer Park residence as he was conducting an unrelated investigation. A bag of suspected marijuana and several smoking pipes were recovered from within the residence and from a vehicle parked outside.

Joseph Michael Dehus, 19, Mtn. Lake Park, was handed a stet ruling on a marijuana possession charge, along with an order to complete 20 hours of community service. A charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was not prosecuted. Dehus had been arrested by sheriff's deputies in June after his car was stopped along Garrett Highway. When a passenger was found to be carrying suspected marijuana and a smoking pipe, Dehus claimed the materials belonged to him.

Steven Gene Weaver, 36, Oakland, was not prosecuted on one charge of second degree assault and four counts of violating an ex parte order. He had been arrested by sheriff's deputies in May and again in June after separate domestic incidents.

Christopher Charles Trice, 19, Richmond, Va., was not prosecuted on charges of possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia. He had been arrested after voluntarily producing a bag of suspected marijuana and a smoking pipe for a sheriff's deputy who had stopped his car along Hutton Road.

Kevin Anthony Downey, 42, Corry, Pa., and Francesco Giovanni Pisano, 21, McHenry, were each deemed not guilty of second degree assault and reckless endangerment.

Adam Howard Manning, 20, Glen Rock, Pa., and William Dexter Levi, 23, Alexandria, Va., were both deemed not guilty of second degree assault and destruction of property.

Owen Gerard McGrath, 34, and Susan Melissa McGrath, 38, both of Accident, were each deemed not guilty of second degree assault.

USDA Expands Loan Program For Rural Businesses

Rural businesses should soon have an easier time getting credit to expand or start operations because of a cooperative agreement announced recently by Agriculture Under Secretary Jill Long Thompson and the National Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders (NAGGL).

"This is an exciting new step in USDA Rural Development's efforts to help rural America grow through better credit opportunities," said Long Thompson. "This agreement will bring lenders and USDA employees face to face, to learn from each other how better to serve rural business needs."

The agreement will provide a forum for NAGGL members to provide feedback and suggestions for improving the delivery of Rural Development's Business and Industry (B&I) Guaranteed Loan program. The B&I program guarantees repayment of up to 90 percent of loans made through private lenders, allowing them to offer more loans at more favorable terms to qualifying rural business borrowers. Guarantees are available for up to $25 million.

Under the agreement, Rural Development and NAGGL will hold training sessions to better acquaint NAGGL members with USDA guarantee programs and help build working relationships between lenders and USDA personnel. NAGGL will hold credit training sessions for Rural Development employees. Rural Development and NAGGL will also be working together on ways to make it easier for lenders to participate in the guarantee program and streamline guarantee application procedures.

Further information on the B&I Guaranteed Loan program is available on USDA Rural Development's web site at www.rurdev.usda.gov/rbs/busp/b&i_gar.htm.

New Sitcom Has Connections To Frostburg State

When the new CBS sitcom "Yes, Dear" premieres this fall, the show will have both on- and off-screen ties to Frostburg State University. One of the main characters, Jimmy, portrayed by comedian Mike O'Malley, will be an FSU graduate.

"Yes, Dear" is about a pair of "odd couple" brothers-in-law and their different approaches to life and family. Jimmy, who is described as a "loud, but lovable guy," moves to Southern California with his family to be closer to his generous in-laws, Greg and Kim, played by Anthony Clark and Jean Louisa Kelly.

The idea of creating a character that is a graduate of FSU is the brainchild of Frostburg State's real-life alum Gregory Garcia, who is co-creator and co-executive producer of the series. Jimmy will be dressed in appropriate FSU T-shirts, caps and sweatpants every week, Garcia says.

Garcia graduated in 1992 from FSU, where he studied television writing. As a result, he was selected to participate in a writer development workshop hosted by Warner Bros. Television. His previous television experience involved behind-the-scenes work on such sitcoms as "Step by Step," "Family Matters," and "Getting Personal." He was co-creator of the short-lived ABC series "Built to Last" in 1997, starring comedian Royale Watkins.

"Yes, Dear" will premiere Monday, Oct. 2, at 8:30 p.m. on CBS.

Women Voters League To Hold Public Meeting

The League of Women Voters of Garrett County will hold a public meeting at the Garrett County Lighthouse, 20 E. Oak St., Oakland, on Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 7 p.m. to discuss methods of increasing voter participation. Election day voter registration at polling places, provisional ballots, all-mail voting, early voting, permanent absentee lists, and Internet voting are all possible alternative voting systems. The public is invited to attend the meeting to discuss these issues and other methods of increasing voter access.

A fact sheet about these proposed changes to the voting system is available at the Oakland, Grantsville, and Accident libraries. A study committee of the League of Women Voters of Maryland will use public input from the meeting to focus its research on the state's current policies and practices covering voter registration and balloting. The state league will present testimony to the General Assembly and to state government committees and commissions based on this research.

The League of Women Voters of Garrett County, a nonpartisan political organization, encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in government and influences public policy through education and advocacy. League members believe that the first test of a healthy democracy is voter turnout, as the system is founded on the principle of "consent of the governed." "This principle is weakened when fewer than half of all eligible voters are making decisions that affect everyone," stated a league spokesperson, adding that only 46.6% of Maryland's voting age population voted in 1996.

"From the womb of each morning, the beauty of worship is born anew."

--Marie Chapman

When God created mankind, He must have known that most of us would want to sleep late; so our Father adorned the morning with vibrant colors of the sunrise and the trill of the birds. He gave us every reason to arise with a smile, for as we open our eyes, we open the gift of a new day...a fresh start...another chance to begin anew.

In Psalm 30:5 we read, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Yes, most of our concerns seem to take on a more positive note in the freshness of the morning.

This Sabbath, arise and visit God's house. Worship Him and study His Word. Sing God's praises and fellowship with His children who worship with you. Thank the Creator for each day...and thank Him for the gift of morning.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

THE PERIL OF POWER

September 17, 2000

Background Scripture:
Judges 13 through 16.
Devotional Reading:
Psalms 145:14-20.

Some Bible stories are only instructive for us negatively. Like many of the parables of Jesus, they show us how NOT to, rather than how to. Such a story is the tragic tale of Samson, a man gifted by God, but unwilling to use his gift for the God who gave it to him. The story of Samson, thus, is very relevant for us and our time because it tells us how NOT to use the gifts God still bestows upon each of us.

The story begins well enough, once you get past the fact that "...the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord; and the Lord gave them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years" (13:1). God causes Manoah's barren wife to conceive a son, providing the couple will raise their son as a Nazirite, a child dedicated to the Lord with special vows. The story tells us that "the boy grew, and the Lord blessed him" (13:3:24) with the stirrings of God's Spirit. Samson soon gained a reputation for legendary physical strength.

Power Over Self

From this point, however, Samson's story takes on an increasingly negative tone. Despite his great physical power, Samson seems to have little power over his own emotions. Seeing a young Philistine woman, he returns home and tells his father and mother: "I saw one of the daughters of the Philistines at Timnah; now get her for me as my wife.' But his father and mother said to him, 'Is there not a woman among the daughters of your kinsmen, or among all our people that you must take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" (14:1-3). It was not right for a man dedicated to God that he should take a pagan wife from among Israel's greatest enemies. But Samson would have this Philistine woman whether or not his parents agreed.

Sound familiar?

Some people have said that Samson

Melanie Cook Receives Honor At Western Md.

Melanie G. Cook, a senior at Western Maryland College, Westminster, is among 13 young women on the campus to be designated as the college's Phenomenal Women 2000. She received word of her award, along with a citation from the Office of Multicultural Services, in recognition of her contribution to leadership at Western Maryland. Along with 19 members of the faculty and staff, the award recipients were honored at a banquet held at the college, where they were commended for their "commitment, dedication, and inspiration."

Cook, a 1997 honor graduate of Southern High School, is the daughter of Donna and John Cook, Oakland. She is a consistent dean's list student at Western Maryland, where she has been designing her own major to fulfill requirements for a psychology/dance therapy curriculum.

Her selection as one of WMC's Phenomenal Women was a result of her recently conceived independent study class in which she directed and choreographed the first-ever dance production at the college. She conducted auditions and practices, and staged the show, which was held for the largest audience ever at the college theatre. She also handled all advertisements, publicity, and set design, being given "free reign" from Professor Ira Domser of the theatre department to direct all aspects of the production.

As a result of the founding of the first dance company at Western Maryland College, Cook has been asked to repeat this independent study and to direct another show, which will be performed in February of next year.

HOW TO KNOW FOR SURE THAT YOU ARE GOING TO HEAVEN!

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life .. ." (1 John 5:13)

FIRST, YOU MUST REALIZE THAT GOD'S WORD SAYS WE ARE ALL SINNERS AND OUR SIN HAS SEPARATED US FROM A HOLY GOD.
(Romans 3:23) "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:10), "As it is written, there is none righteous, no, not one."
No one is perfect. No one has lived up to God's perfect standard. (James 2:10)
(Isaiah 59:2), "But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you..."

SECOND, YOU MUST REALIZE THAT AS A SINNER YOU OWE A PENALTY!
(Romans 6:23a), "For the wages (payment) of sin is death..."
This death is described in the Bible as the second death or the lake of fire - eternal separation from God.
(Revelation 20:14,15), "And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."
If we pay what we owe as sinners, we must spend an eternity in the lake of fire.
(Revelation 21:8), "But the fearful, and unbelieveing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."
Yes, the Bible teaches that there is an eternal lake of fire where religious, as well as ungodly, sinners go who find no way of paying the penalty of their sin. No imperfect sinner can pay his own sin debt because God demands a perfect sacrifice for sin.

THIRD, YOUR MUST REALIZED THAT JESUS CHRIST, GOD'S PERFECT SACRIFICE, HAS ALREADY PAID YOUR SIN DEBT!
(Romans 5:8), "But God commendeth (proved) his love toward as, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (2 Corinthians 5:21), "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." (John 3:16), "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (Peter 3:18a), "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God..."
When Jesus died on the cross, He paid for all of our sins and bridged the gap that separated us from God. You must realize that Jesus Christ was not a sinner and that God took all of our sins and placed them on Jesus at the cross. While Jesus was bearing all of our sins in His own body, God punished Him in our place to pay the sin debt that we owe. Jesus became our substitute. Praise the Lord!

FOURTH, YOU MUST RECEIVE BY FAITH THE LORD JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOUR AND WHAT HE DID FOR YOU AT CALVARY ON THE CROSS!
(John 1:12a), "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God..." (Romans 6:23b), "...but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 10:9,10), "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:13), "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."
The word 'believe" means to trust - to depend on. To believe on the Lord Jesus Christ means that you accept the following facts: that you are a sinner; that as a sinner you owe a sin debt; that Jesus Christ died on the cross and shed His precious blood to pay the debt you owe; and that after three days and three nights, He arose bodily and victoriously, conquering sin and death and hell. To believe means going beyond mere intellectual assent. It means to place your faith totally in Him - plus nothing and minus nothing - forever to save you from hell, forgive you of your sins, and give you the gift of eternal life. Most importantly, when you completely trust Him to get you to Heaven, it will be forever settled, once and for all!

OUR FRIEND, WHY NOT TRUST JESUS NOW!
You could pray this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, "Dear Lord Jesus, I realize that I am a sinner and that I deserve to pay my own sin debt. I believe You became my substitute on the cross, paying the sin debt I owe, and that Your shed blood, death, burial, and bodily resurrection from the grave were for me! I do now believe on you alone with all my heart and put my faith 100% in you as my personal Saviour. Thank you Lord Jesus for hearing me and saving me now. Amen." If you sincerely prayed that prayer to the Lord, won't you let us know by phone or mail, or better yet, pay us a visit this Sunday!

The Match Ends, But This "Big" And "Little" Are Friends For Life

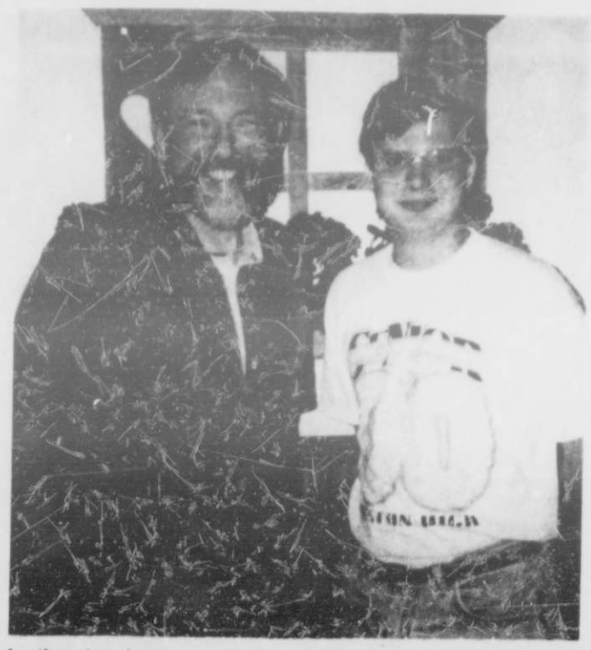
by JoAnn Fletcher

What began as an introduction of two strangers — one looking for a male role model to help "toughen him up" and build self-confidence, and the other, someone wanting to share his life experiences, to be a listener — became a friendship that both believe will go on throughout their lives. Sometimes, two people just click. And click they did. Doug Riley became a Big Brother to Charles Smith on March 21, 1995, starting a match that lasted over five years, officially ending on August 9, 2000.

The match ended "officially" because once a "Little" reaches his/her 18th birthday or graduates from high school, he or she has also graduated from the Big Brothers Big Sisters program.

Charles completed his education at Preston High School, "with principal's honors," as Doug is proud to point out, and has enlisted in the U.S. Army. Charles will be eligible for the G.I. Bill for his college education. Two of the goals Charles's mother, Mary, hoped for were for her son's grades to improve, and for him to attend college. These goals have been met, or are in the process of being met, because of Doug's influence.

The going was not always easy. Less than two months after their match date, Doug was diagnosed with sinus cancer. Showing what a truly remarkable human being Doug is, his concern was how to break the news to Charles. Charles's father had passed away and Doug wanted to reassure the boy. Linda Stephens, the Big Brothers Big Sisters caseworker, helped Charles through this time by coming up with ideas of what he could do for Doug. Charles sent Doug a card and a cross, a copy of their match meeting picture, and a book with a scripture verse, and he wrote him a letter. Charles felt important in Doug's recovery, a part of the healing process. Even during Doug's treatment (surgery and radiation), he continued to see Charles as much as possible. Charles felt honored that Doug would spend time with him at this critical moment in his life, a time when he could be wallowing in self-pity, but instead was reaching out to a young man he barely knew.



THE STORY OF A BIG AND LITTLE — These photos are of Doug Riley and Charles Smith, with the one above taken at the time of their match with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Garrett County. The picture at right was taken at their "match closure meeting" this summer, which officially ended their BBBS relationship. However, both will adamantly deny any change in their friendship, as they have bonded for life. The physical change in Charles is evident in these two photos, but what is not visible, said JoAnne Fletcher (BBBS county coordinator), is the greater change in the development of the young man, whose future is bright, partly as a result of Doug's diligent attention and care through the BBBS program. See story.

Doug did what all Bigs are supposed to do — include their Littles in their lives. Charles became involved in community activities, helping Doug by selling french fries at the Rotary fair booth, sorting donations for the Rotary Christmas project, setting up for the Relay for Life (which Doug and his wife Terry co-chaired), mowing grass, putting a roof on Doug's garage, laying tile, and learning home repair. They did homework together, too.

But they also spent time just having fun — fishing, going to movies, making apple butter, playing cards, sled riding, and swimming. And when Charles earned his white belt in karate, Doug was there, standing tall, applauding Charles as he beamed from ear to ear. Because of Doug, Charles took karate lessons, learned to shoot a bow, and became a caring person, wanting to help others as Doug was doing. Doug went far and beyond his commitment as a Big, being there for Charles, visiting the funeral home in Kingwood when Charles's grandfather passed away. For Doug, Charles was not a commitment, but a friend with whom he wanted to share time.

Even when Charles's family moved to Rowlesburg, W.Va., they still made the effort to keep their relationship going, traveling the miles to be together. Doug saw Charles changing before his eyes, becoming a more confident, more relaxed young man, with improving grades at school. Charles learned new skills, and became a well-rounded person — a young man looking forward to a brighter future, setting career and life goals.

Well, their match is officially closed, but is it the end of the road for their friendship? Both would respond with a hearty "No!" At their Match Closure meeting at Towne Restaurant, Charles's words of admiration for Doug spoke volumes.

"Our relationship will not be any different. We'll always get together, keep in contact, and write. He's always been there if I need to talk to him," Charles said. Doug agreed.

"He won't be my Little Brother formally, but he'll always be my little brother, a part of my family," Doug said.

Doug, who is the owner of the small business Copiers Plus, also wanted to clarify for others what the commitment to be a Big Brother or Big Sister truly is.

"A lot of people overestimate the commitment," Doug said. It's an emotional commitment, not a time one. You are responsible to someone else to be there when they want to talk, and to be objective because you don't have a vested interest. Anyone can carve out a few hours a week."

Charles also wanted to express his gratitude to Doug and Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and to encourage others to volunteer.

"Big Brothers Big Sisters is a terrific program. All of you who stand up to the challenge of becoming a Big, you should be deeply proud of your decision," Charles said. "You help to shape someone's future. You aid in setting goals and achieving these goals — even ones that were undetermined are achieved. You help to set direction. However, at not one given time can you actually see the progress, but overall, what you helped to achieve is of immeasurable proportion. You may not believe this, but the smallest things you do have the biggest impact. All a kid needs is someone with an open ear, someone to spend time with fishing, teaching him something new, going to the movies, or helping with homework — just letting him know you care. By allowing a young person to become involved in your life, you are shaping the future of his life."

That's what being a Big Brother, Big Sister or Big Couple is all about — being there for a young person who needs someone, sharing your life with them, listening and caring.

"Thank you, Doug Riley, for being such a faithful, wonderful man, one for whom I have great admiration. We hope there are more out there like you willing to step up to the plate and take the challenge, as over 25 children, mostly boys, are currently waiting for a Big Brother, Big Sister, or Big Couple in Garrett County. So many more are in need of a mentor to make a difference in their lives," stated JoAnn Fletcher, BBBS county coordinator.

Who makes Tony Soprano's shirts?

By Taylor Michaels
©TVData Features Syndicate

Q: Who makes those cool tropical shirts Anthony "Tony" Soprano Sr. (James Gandolfini) wears on The Sopranos? –Caitlin Spears via e-mail.

A: "The costumes Jim wears come from a variety of sources," an HBO spokesman replies. "Some of the favorite short-sleeve print shirts are manufactured by two companies, Axis and Burma Bibas."

Check at your favorite upscale department stores to see whether they carry these lines.

Q: Will American High return anywhere now that Fox has canceled it? Where can I complain? People were watching it! –Madison H., Phillipsburg, N.J.

A: Not nearly enough people were watching, but High executive producer R.J. Cutler says he hopes this terrific show will resurface somewhere. Write to Viewer Services, Fox Broadcasting Co., P.O. Box 900, Beverly Hills, CA 90213-0900, to complain.

Q: What has become of Hal Sparks? I never saw any explanation for why he left Talk Soup. –David Zucca, Ann Arbor, Mich.

A: Sparks abandoned Soup after less than a year to accept some interesting movie offers. Right now, he's in Canada filming Queer as Folk, a new Showtime series in which he plays a gay man named Michael (essentially the "Vince" character from the original British version of QAF). He also has roles in two upcoming films, Dude, Where's My Car? and Stages.

Q: In the closing credits to Fargo, the actor playing Victim in the Field is identified with a symbol like the one the musician Prince used to use. Yet the guy from the back looks nothing like Prince. What gives? –Clint Hadden, Owensboro, Ky.

A: That was just a joke by the filmmakers, Clint. That was actually Fargo storyboard artist J. Todd Anderson playing that role.

Q: Stockard Channing had her own short-lived TV sitcom some years ago. What was the name of the show, when did it air and what was she doing in the hiatus years that followed? –L.M., Front Royal, Va.

A: In 1979, she starred in Stockard Channing in Just Friends as Susan Hughes, a recently separated woman starting life afresh in Los Angeles. Mimi Kennedy played her sister.

The show lasted five months in 1979, but Channing was back a year later in The Stockard Channing Show, in which she played TV consumer advocate Susan Goodenow. That show barely lasted two months. Channing continued to appear on TV after that, but she also spent a lot of time in the 1980s on Broadway in such plays as A Day in the Death of Joe Egg and Six Degrees of Separation.

Northern Band Boosters Plan Tractor Raffle

The Northern Band Boosters Club are raffling off a 13 hp Husqvarna lawn and garden tractor, with a 42-inch mulching mower deck. The tractor is a Hydrostatic with a Kohler engine. The proceeds of the ticket sales will help defray the cost of the fall show season for the Northern High School Marching Band.

"The Band Boosters are feverishly raising money to replace uniforms for the band; however, we are short of funds at this time, so we needed to purchase costumes for the band members," said Bobbi Sisler, treasurer for the NHS Band Boosters.

Raffle tickets are $5 each and may be purchased from any band or color guard member, or by contacting Sisler at 301-746-8529. Drawing for the raffle will occur on the evening of the Home Band Show on September 23. "The Band Boosters are encouraging family, friends, and alumni of the band to show their support by buying a ticket and attending the show," Sisler concluded.

The cost to attend the band show, slated for Saturday evening Sept. 23, is $5 per person.

The finalists in the apple-peeling contest are shown below. From the left are Helen Glotfelty Booth of McHenry and Howe, Ind., who unleashed a winning 71-inch peel to take the $15 first prize; Jack Baer, Corriganville, whose 59½-inch peel was good for second place and a $10 prize; and third-place peeler Dave Tasker, Deer Park, who uncorked a 58½-inch peel. Also pictured, in the foreground, is contest coordinator Zella Bittinger.

Some of Maryland's best and brightest high school seniors have been offered $3,000 annual scholarships as an incentive to go to college in Maryland next year, according to the Maryland Higher Education Commission.

A number of Garrett County students, nine from Northern High School and six from Southern High School, received either finalist or honorable mention in either the achievement or talent categories.

Brandon J. Hoover of Northern and Haley V. Gillespie of Southern were each named finalists in the achievement category. Receiving honorable mention honors in achievement were: Marcia L. Brenneman, Kristin R. Lander, Kathryn B. O'Donnell, and Pranav H. Patel, all from Northern, and Stephanie L. Cowgill, Justin B. DiSimone, Bryan T. Panther, and Keith P. Steyer, all from Southern.

Earning honorable mention for talent in visual art from Northern were Jeremy R. Carr, Collen B. DuBose, and Emily T. Haydel, while Leigh A. Schefft received honorable mention for talent in dance. From Southern, Cassandra L. Kave earned honorable mention for talent in vocal music.

Over 3,600 Maryland students applied as juniors for the Distinguished Scholars grant, which is offered to students with a grade point average of 3.7 or higher or who are nominated by their school on the basis of their accomplishments in the performing or visual arts. National Merit and National Achievement finalists are offered Distinguished Scholar scholarships automatically.

Fewer than one in 10 of those students will receive the highly competitive scholarship. Each year, 350 new, four-year scholarships are awarded to high school seniors who attend colleges and universities in the state.

"Maryland's success in building a strong economy depends on our ability to attract excellent students to our colleges and then convince them to start their careers here," said Karen R. Johnson, secretary of higher education. "This scholarship, with its emphasis on excellence, is an important part of that effort."

Both grade point average and SAT scores are taken into account when selecting finalists for the scholarship. Johnson said that this year's finalists, who will start college in fall 2001, had an unweighted grade point average of 4.0 with a combined SAT score of 1390 or higher — or a 3.7 GPA with an SAT score of 1480 or higher.

Students who qualify for the Distinguished Scholars scholarship are recruited heavily by out-of-state colleges, but Johnson said the number of finalists accepting the award and going to college in Maryland has been increasing, with more than 200 finalists expected to accept the award next year, up from the 175 finalists in the class of 2000 who decided to attend Maryland institutions.

Johnson attributed this to the increasing cost of higher education, which makes the $3,000 a year scholarship more attractive, and the widespread increase in quality among Maryland institutions.

This year's finalists and semi-finalists — who will be offered the scholarship for the 2001-2002 academic year — will be honored this Saturday, Sept. 16, at Morgan State University in Baltimore. The daylong program, which is sponsored by the Maryland Higher Education Commission, features performances and exhibits by some of the state's most talented high school students, workshops on financial aid, and opportunities for students to learn about Maryland colleges and universities.

In addition, there will be recognition ceremony at 3 p.m. in the Murphy Building for the students and their families. This year, the keynote speaker will be Denise Koch, co-anchor at WJZ-TV in Baltimore. Secretary Johnson will be mistress of ceremonies.

Scholarships were offered to 366 achievement finalists and 81 talent finalists. Scholarships are awarded because, historically, some finalists decide to go to college outside Maryland. Scholarships not accepted by finalists are offered to semi-finalists.

The Maryland Higher Education Commission received 3,633 achievement applications, and 657 students were nominated for the talent competition. The average GPA for achievement finalists was 3.95. The average SAT score for achievement finalists was 1485.

FRIENDSVILLE GIVES A "CHEERING" WELCOME - Sen. Paul Sarbanes was an honored guest in Friendsville last month when he rode in the Friendsville Days parade and visited with town residents. Sarbanes is pictured with some of the cheering squad who also marched in the parade. In the photo at right, Mayor Spencer R. Schlosnagle, left, welcomes Sen. Sarbanes to Friendsville and presents him with a "key to the city."

Dr. Zolten To Give Program In Springs, Pa.

"We Were What We Laughed At," a program presented by Dr. J. Jerome Zolten, commonwealth speaker and assistant professor of speech at Penn State University, Altoona campus, will be held Monday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. at the Folk Meeting House in Springs, Pa.

"Over the decades, stand-up comedians have had a hand in both shaping and shattering negative images about race, gender, and nationality. Dr. Zolten uses rare audio and visual stand-up comedy snippets drawn from the early 1900s to the present to examine the classic routines of comedians like Abbot and Costello, Andy Griffith, Bob Newhart, and Bill Cosby," stated a spokesperson for the Springs Historical Society.

The presentation is illustrated with live performance clips and recorded examples of stand-up routines from the 1920s to the 1960s. Dr. Zolten worked two years as a stand-up comedian.

The presentation is a program of the Pennsylvania Humanities Council and is sponsored by the Springs Historical Society. Admission is free and is open to the public. The Folk Meeting House is located along Springs Road. For further information, persons may telephone 814-445-6945 or 814-662-4366.

Antiques by Ralph and Terry Kovel

There are several reasons why old phonographs are selling for high prices.

Collectors are showing a growing interest in technology antiques and early mechanical devices. There is also a need for working phonographs that can be used to play the old records that are collected by music historians.

The first talking machine was made in 1877, but some of the ideas behind it were borrowed from earlier experiments by other researchers. Nineteenth-century record players had records that were either cylinders or extra-thick "platters," but they were discontinued in 1929. The standard LP record was used after 1929.

One strange type of machine that played a disc record was made in the United States. It used two horns to carry the sound. The large horns took up space, and soon a smaller horn that could not be seen was built into the machine.

Q: Can you tell me anything about my Rand McNally globe? I've had it for about 30 years; the map appears to be much older. Iran is even labeled "Persia." The globe is 18 inches in diameter and sits in a tall, four-footed, wooden floor stand. Do people collect old globes? How old is mine and what is it worth?

A: Rand McNally was founded in Chicago in 1856. They made their first globe in 1887. In 1935, the government of Iran asked that the country be referred to as Iran rather than Persia. So we know that your globe dates from sometime between 1887 and 1935. You can get a better idea of the date by looking more closely at the names of other countries. It would be helpful to compare it to maps of Europe before and after World War I. Globes like yours sell for hundreds of dollars. Some are worth much more, depending on the age, condition and beauty of the stand.

Pet Care
by Peter Edwards

She asks if people remove tails from cats the way some people "trim" the ears of certain types of dogs in order to make them show-worthy. If so, she thinks it's a terrible practice that should be stopped.

I agree that if this were a fact, it should be stopped. I feel the same way about clipping ears and subjecting animals to pain just to suit our concepts of beauty. These are abhorrent practices, and we need to raise the consciousness of show officials to forbid such mutilation.

But to get back to Karen's letter: Actually, what Karen saw was a type of Manx cat called a Cymric (pronounced "kimrick"). These are long-haired Manxes and are completely tailless, not by human design but by nature. Some Cymrics do have a stub of a tail, some may even have a full tail. But the Cymric standard is no tail at all.

According to cat breeders, Cymrics are active, affectionate and blessed with the kind of lightning-fast reflexes that have made it a favorite mouser both on the Isle of Man (hence the name, Manx) and in Wales where the breed is said to have originated. As a matter of fact, the name Cymric is the Welsh name for Wales.

Indeed, there are some reports that Welsh coalminers used to take the Cymrik down into the mines to help control the rodent population.

SQUEAKS AND CREAKS: STAIRS

Q. A couple of steps on my wooden staircase squeak constantly, and one step actually sinks a bit when my weight is on it. How do I repair them? — Joyce M., Emporia, Kansas

A. Repairing squeaky steps follows the same guidelines as the floor repairs we covered last week. There are a few new terms to bring into the vocabulary, however, so let's talk about the anatomy of a staircase.

On the topside of the staircase, you see only the treads and risers. The treads are the horizontal steps, and the risers are the vertical boards that brace each step.

The underside of the average staircase is braced on either side with stringers — two long, sturdy boards that run diagonally from the first floor to the second, cut precisely along the top so that the treads and risers are seated securely in them.

If you have access to the underside of the stairs, stand underneath them as someone walks up and down the treads. Pinpoint the squeaky areas.

Coat 2-3 wood shims (thin wedges of wood, available at hardware stores) with wood glue and hammer them between the squeaking tread and its supporting riser. Tap another shim between the tread and the stringer on each side, to ensure stability. If possible, use a small nail to secure each wedge.

If the wedges just won't go in, use a wooden block to stabilize the step. Cut a one-by-two-inch piece of wood that is at least 2/3 as long as the tread. Glue and then nail the block firmly into the corner formed by the front of the tread and the supporting riser.

Now, if you can't get under the stairway, you can stabilize the treads from the top, using finishing nails. Drill 2-3 pilot holes in the top front of the tread, then drive finishing nails at an angle so that they go through the supporting riser as well. Next, drill pilot holes and drive finishing nails straight down to the stringers on either side of the tread. On bare wood stairs, countersink the nails and cover them with hardwood putty.

A sagging step should be inspected by a qualified contractor. A brace underneath the tread may temporarily stop the sagging, but eventually the wood will have to be replaced.

FSU Offering Tuition Discount To Residents Of Contiguous Counties

Residents of the out-of-state counties contiguous to Frostburg State University's campuses may be eligible for a tuition reduction of $2,054 per year, thanks to a new policy approved by the University System of Maryland Board of Regents.

The policy will begin in the fall of 2001 for both new and returning undergraduate students who reside in the selected nearby counties. Those eligible for the reduction are residents of the West Virginia counties of Berkeley, Grant, Hampshire, Jefferson, Mineral, and Morgan; the Pennsylvania counties of Bedford, Fulton, Franklin, and Somerset; and Loudoun County in Virginia.

The USM regents granted FSU's request to offer the reduction based on the university's unique proximity to the three surrounding states.

"Frostburg, more than any other university in the USM, is a true regional institution that shares its borders with West Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Virginia. An increasing number of students from those areas have wanted to study at FSU," said Dr. Catherine R. Gira, FSU president. "By offering this tuition reduction, we are making it attractive and affordable to students who reside in our region to attend a Maryland, four-year baccalaureate institution."

As in the past, FSU will continue to offer a discounted tuition rate for all of its out-of-state graduate students. Non-Maryland residents will continue to pay a rate of 116% of what in-state residents pay, which is less than the 250% rate suggested by the USM.

For more information, persons may call the Frostburg State University Office of Admissions at 301-687-4201.

Plans Continue For Hospital's Golden Gala

Plans for the Garrett County Memorial Hospital Golden Anniversary Gala include a full sit-down dinner, a live auction and silent auction, dancing, and entertainment provided by Tim Bassett's 16-piece orchestra. A black tie optional event, the Gala will be held at the McHenry House at the Wisp Resort on Saturday, Nov. 4.

The Gala evening is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. with a preview of auction items. At 7 p.m. guests will be seated and served a full, six-course dinner prepared especially for the occasion. A silent and live auction will occur following dinner. "The evening will be topped off with ballroom dancing," said Wayne Johnson, chairman for the event. Tickets for the event are available through the Garrett County Hospital Foundation office at Garrett Memorial or by calling 301-533-4180.

The event has three corporate sponsors, with Rob and Sharon Markwood, local business owners, being the major corporate sponsor at the gold level. The Markwoods' business interests include Markwood's Citgo, Short Stop, and Bayberry Castle, all in Oakland, and Markwood Chevron and the Markwood Family of Dealerships, including Ford, Mercury, Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Buick, GMC, Dodge, Chrysler, Plymouth, and Jeep in neighboring West Virginia.

The Deep Creek Mountain Resort and the First United Bank & Trust are also corporate sponsors at the silver and bronze levels, respectively.

Proceeds from the gala will assist with funding the hospital's new state-of-the-art, dual-slice CT scanner.

Additional information is available by contacting the Foundation office at 301-533-4180.

A COMMEMORATIVE CHAMPAGNE FLUTE inscribed with Garrett County Memorial Hospital's logo, Golden Gala, and November 4, 2000, in gold will be provided at the hospital's Golden Gala event on Novermber 4 to allow each Gala guest an opportunity to toast the hospital's 50 years of success. Displaying the keepsake champagne flutes in the above photo are Wayne and Jackie Johnson, co-chairs for the event.

Western Maryland Health Ed. Center Receives $450,000

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Quentia N. Burdick Rural Health Interdisciplinary Program has awarded the Western Maryland Area Health Education Center a $450,000 grant. These federal funds will be used to fund the center's Rural Interdisciplinary Health Promotion project for three years. Collaborating partners in this project include the University of Maryland, Baltimore, Towson State University, Frostburg State University, University of Pittsburgh, and Allegany College of Maryland.

"Access to health care is an overriding concern, particularly in rural areas, and poor personal choices kill thousands of Marylanders each year," a spokesperson said. The Rural Interdisciplinary Health Promotion project will address these concerns in western Maryland. Through the use of interdisciplinary service learning projects, high-risk adolescent, adult, and elderly populations will be provided access to services with an emphasis on prevention of behaviors causing disease. The health services learning projects will be held in after-school programs, senior centers, and other locations within the community.

Nursing, occupational therapy, physical therapy, social work, public health, and medical technology students will be involved in the service learning projects as part of their education in interdisciplinary prevention in rural communities.

"Part of our agency mission is to address area access to health care," said Kery Hummel, executive director of the Western Maryland Area Health Education Center. "Working with our community partners to facilitate this innovative and interdisciplinary project, which addresses at-risk behaviors, will contribute toward building a better future for everyone in western Maryland."

Bartlett Bill To Halt Funding Of Conventions

Congressman Roscoe G. Bartlett (R-MD) has introduced a bill that would end the taxpayer funding of the Republican and Democratic party presidential political conventions. This year, taxpayers paid approximately $13 million each, or $26 million total, toward the Republican convention in Philadelphia and the Democratic convention in Los Angeles.

"The conventions no longer decide anything," said Bartlett. "It's been a long time since there was any suspense or even pretense about the nominee from either the Republican or Democratic national political conventions. They're just big parties for the party elite. I see no justification for the taxpayers to pay for the parties to party."

To those who might argue taxpayers' money would be replaced with special interest money, Bartlett said, "Taxpayers' money is already dwarfed several times over by special interest money at both political conventions. The media underreported the taxpayers' coerced contributions, but there were lots of reports identifying special interest money. With the help of a vigilant media, I think Americans are smart enough to decide if special interest support of the conventions will win or lose their vote."

SOME MAJOR SUPPORT was provided recently to the Oakland Volunteer Fire Department, as hundreds of pounds of beef and pork, all purchased "on the hoof" at the Garrett County Fair, were donated to the organization by an individual and two local businesses. Giving an entire beef was Andrew Fike, while Keystone Financial Services donated a hog. Pictured from left above are: Don Sincell, vice president of the Oakland VFD; Sandy Winters, representing Keystone Financial; Andrew Fike; and Fred Callis, OVFD president. Also donating ½ beef was Glotfelty Enterprises of Oakland. "We really appreciate the people who are responsible for making these generous donations," Callis said, noting that some of the meat will be raffled off, while the majority will be prepared and served during the department's 23rd annual Oktoberfest, scheduled for October 12.

Maryland Kids' Page Offers Info About State

Between learning their multiplication tables and memorizing spelling lists, Maryland students are discovering a web site resource called Maryland Kids' Page. With facts about Maryland's history, geography, government, and famous people, the Maryland Kids' Page web site presents educational information in an entertaining format, a spokesperson said. Colorful graphics and pictures accentuate the site, which was awarded the "Best of the Net" award in December 1998 by the Mining Company, a recognized guide site for Internet topics.

Established in 1997 by the Office of the Secretary of State as part of Governor Parris N. Glendening's education and children initiative, Maryland Kids' Page serves as a research tool for upper elementary age children studying the state of Maryland, The site can be accessed through the Office of the Secretary of State's homepage, http://www.sos.state.md.us.

"Providing Maryland's children with the tools they need to succeed and flourish is essential in a rapidly changing, technological world," said Maryland Secretary of State John T. Willis. "Our office is using technology to create an innovative format that educates students about the historical and cultural significance of our great state, as well as contemporary issues and activities."

Using Maryland Kids' Page, students can explore the lives of famous Marylanders, learn which industries drive Maryland's economy, embark on a digital journey through Maryland's counties, and discover which symbols represent the state. A new feature of Maryland Kids' Page highlights Maryland authors and illustrators, including Bianca Lavies, Priscilla Cummings, and Phyllis Reynolds Naylor.

The interactive nature of Maryland Kids' Page allows students, parents, and teachers to post comments and suggestions on the Kids' Chalkboard. These ideas are often incorporated into the web site, the spokesperson said. In addition, someone from Willis's office is available to visit schools to present a hands-on lesson that teaches students about the Maryland Kids' Page and the Internet as a learning tool. Maryland Kids' Page speakers come equipped with a computer and projector.

To schedule a speaker, persons may contact the Office of the Secretary of State by phone at 410-974-5539, ext. 463, or 1-888-874-0013, ext. 463, or e-mail at bvaicovi@sos.state.md.us.

Mt. Grove Volunteer Fire Department Hosts 19th Annual Potato Festival

A cloudy, rainy, "dreary" beginning to Saturday's Mt. Grove Potato Festival was replaced by warm, partly cloudy skies in time for many of the afternoon's activities of the 19th annual event.

Sponsored each year by the Mt. Grove Volunteer Fire Department, Saturday's activities also included country, bluegrass, and gospel music by local groups, a cake auction, cake walks, firemen's activities, and the Mtn. Top Cruisers car club's antique, classic, and custom car show that featured approximately 48 cars and trucks from Maryland, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania.

A decorated cake contest, featuring cakes baked with either fire department or potato festival themes, was again one of the highlights of the Saturday's festivities. Seven cakes were entered into the competition, with the first three places awarded to the following: Reba Williams, $100; Jennifer Conrad, second place, $50; and Linda Lantz, third place, $25. As in the past, the prize money was donated by the Stewart Funeral Home in Oakland, Brad Stewart, owner.

Following the contest, a lively cake auction, led by auctioneers Carl Blizzard and Rodger Ware, brought more than $2,000 to help with the VFD's annual fund raiser. The prize-winning cakes were auctioned, along with several others, to add to the afternoon's excitement. The first place cake was sold three times and donated back two times. First purchased by Miners and Merchants Bank in Thomas, it brought a total of $575. The second place cake, initially bought by The Terra Alta Bank, brought a total of $560; and the third place cake, first bought by Fairfax Sand & Crushed Stone Co., Inc., brought a total of $340. The sale of the remaining cakes brought an additional $705.

Following the cake auction, two coconut cream pies and a "crutch" cane were also auctioned, and brought an additional $135 to add to the day's totals.

Other purchasers/donators at this year's event included JB Trucking, Eglon Farm Service, Armstrong Paving in Thomas; House of Ice in Rawlings, Nelson Excavating in Thomas, J&J Ford in Terra Alta, The Republican newspaper, and numerous individuals, including Ronald Brown, candidate for Preston County's prosecuting attorney; Ronald Crites, Preston County sheriff candidate; Nimrod Riley, candidate for Preston County commissioner; Sam and Helen Roth, the Vernon Ball family, Virginia Roth, John Calcamp, Delores Kelly, and others.

Following the auction, Ware presented Blizzard with a plaque, given in recognition for his "many years of service to the citizens of Preston County," and especially his contribution to many potato festival cake auctions. "I believe I have more fun than anybody at the potato festival each year," Blizzard said as he accepted the award.

It was also announced during the afternoon's events that Judy Stemple, a 12-year member of the MGVFD, was named this year's "Firefighter of the Year." Stemple currently serves the VFD as a safety officer.

Trophies for the third annual car show were awarded in various classes, with "Best of Show" going to Bruceton Mills resident Art Forman for his 1967 Chevelle Super Sport.

Mt. Grove's two-day festival is the VFD's largest fund raiser of the year. The organization also sponsors a ramp dinner each spring, and proceeds from these events are used to fund the fire department's operating expenses during the year.

HIGH BIDDER -- A decorated cake auction, held each year during the Mt. Grove Volunteer Fire Department's annual Potato Festival, realized more than $2,000 during this year's event. The top three prize-winning cakes were the first to be auctioned and, in the photo above, Don Roth of Miners & Merchants Bank in Thomas, right, high bidder for the first-place cake, is shown as he accepts his purchase from Vernon Ball, left, and the cake's creator and first-place winner, Reba Williams. THIS 1967 Chevrolet Chevelle SS, owned by Bruceton Mills resident Art Forman, pictured above, was named "Best of Show" during Saturday's car show featuring 48 antique, classic, and custom vehicles on display during the Mtn. Top Cruisers Car Club's third annual car show, held in conjunction with the 19th annual Mt. Grove Potato Festival.

The Potomac Highlands District United Methodist Women will hold their fall meeting at Trinity United Methodist Church in Fort Ashby on Saturday, Oct. 7. Registration and coffee will be at 9:30 a.m., and the meeting will begin at 10 a.m.

The theme is "Mission: Hands On." Guest speakers are district superintendent Keith Simmons and wife Ruth Simmons.

A training session will be held in the morning for all officers and other members. This is especially designed for the incoming officers, as well as present ones.

A nursery will be provided. Members should bring a sack lunch, Campbell labels, and items for the local food pantry.

Program books and other useful literature will be available in the resource room.

The annual conference will be held at Parkersburg on October 20-21. Registration forms plus other important information for the local unit were enclosed in the district newsletter.

Any unit looking for a speaker or someone to present a program on mission projects may contact Jacki Englehardt, new executive director of Scotts Run Settlement House (SRSH). She may be reached at 304-599-5020.

Events Set At McGrew House

Plans are being finalized for the annual celebration in Fellowsville that recognizes the birth of James Clark McGrew (Sept. 14, 1813). "Flags Over the McGrew House" will be the theme for the event this year, which is slated for this Saturday, Sept. 16. Among the flags to be displayed will be a 1841 U.S. flag and the Virginia flag, an 1863 U.S. flag and the West Virginia flag, and the current U.S. flag.

Joe Bernatowicz will cook a buffet-style breakfast at the house from 9 to 11 a.m., for which tickets are $5 each (reservations not required). Entertainment will be provided by J.C. and The Boys, and Josh Bolyard, who will play the piano during the morning. Melissa Wotring will portray Mrs. Grimes of the Red Horse Tavern and Inn.

Historical societies from Tunnelton, Rowlesburg, Arthurdale, and other areas will have displays set up on the grounds. Inside the house will be a display by Lawson and Marlene Schooley of over 150 old photos of Fellowsville, some dating back to 1880.

A boarding house dinner will be served at the Kingwood Community Building beginning at 6:30 p.m. The McGrew house, built in 1869, was often a stopping place for circuit riding preachers, who were served meals by Mrs. McGrew. Providing entertainment at the dinner will be the Men of Accord, a Garrett/Allegany county barbershop quartet.

Persons may telephone 304-329-0884, 304-379-7621, or 304-329-0221 for reservations and more information.

TA LIBRARY SUMMER READERS NOTED — Celebration 2000, the Terra Alta Public Library Summer Reading Program, concluded recently with four of the participants having completed the entire project of reading 2,000 pages over the course of the summer. The project required participants to write book reports at home and one reference report at the library. The most prolific reader was ninth grader Ashley Miller, shown above, who read 46 books and reported 8,572 pages. Miller received a flower arrangement and a small bookcase containing five new paperbacks in recognition of her accomplishment. A trio of fourth graders rounded out the top readers: Alecia Hart, 26 books and 3,489 pages; Michelle Kelly, 24 books and 3,086 pages; and Christopher Kelly, 16 books with 2,206 pages. Other participants were Laureen Wilson, Chad Feather, Kris Elliott, Brody Barger, Joshua Dodge, and John Sisler. The TA Library has eight new computers connected to the Internet for the use of card-bearing patrons, and students can print out their information at no charge if it is strictly homework-related material.

Beth is an August graduate of West Virginia University with a bachelor's degree in social work. She is the daughter of Bill and Sandra Hauser of Stemple Ridge. Games were played, gifts displayed, and refreshments were served to the many guests present.

Cambridge Univ. Actors To Present Hamlet at FSU

The student actors from England's Cambridge University will return to Frostburg State University this month to present their new production of William Shakespeare's Hamlet next Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 7 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre in FSU's Performing Arts Center.

Sponsored by the FSU Department of English, the play is presented as part of the Cambridge University American Stage Tour (CAST).

Student troupes from Cambridge have been performing since 1855, and former members include such famed actors as Emma Thompson, John Cleese, and David Frost. FSU has hosted the CAST troupe for several years. They have stopped here regularly on their annual U.S. tour since 1995 with other Shakespearean masterpieces like Twelfth Night, The Tempest, and As You Like It.

"Inspired by the 18th-century gothic movement and the imagery of the early circus, this new production of Hamlet brings to life a classic tale of dark desire, madness, and revenge," stated a spokesperson for CAST. Against the shadowed backdrop of Elsinore, where whispers of intrigue echo down the halls, the romantic rebel prince Hamlet battles against a truth he cannot accept, cavorting with the macabre traveling players and questioning the validity of natural and unnatural relations."

Tickets are $7 for the general public and $3 for students. To purchase tickets, persons may call the FSU Box Office at 301-687-4145.

Pittsburgh Ballet To Offer Dance Class, Lecture

Frostburg State University's Cultural Events Series will present two community activities in connection with the upcoming visit of the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre this Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 16 and 17.

The first event is a free ballet masterclass for local adults and teens Saturday, Sept. 16, in FSU's Cordts Physical Education Center Dance Studio. The class will be taught by PBT artistic director Terrence S. Orr. The class, designed for dancers at the early-intermediate level in ballet, will be from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Previous ballet experience is necessary. While there is no charge for the class, space is limited and early reservation is suggested. To reserve a space in the class, persons should contact Susan Manger at 301-687-3163.

Community members are also encouraged to attend a pre-performance discussion with Orr on Saturday from 7 to 7:30 p.m. The lecture will be in the FSU Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre. Although the event is for ticket-holders for the 8 p.m. show, those who wish to attend the discussion but are unable to attend the evening performance will be accommodated.

The PBT has donated tickets to its regular season performances in Pittsburgh, Pa., some of which will be raffled off during the pre-performance discussion. For more information, persons may call Manger at 301-687-3163.

Widely regarded as one the country's top-rated dance companies, PBT will perform for local audiences Saturday and Sunday in the Performing Arts Center Drama Theatre. Performance times are Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. Ticket prices are $18 for the general public, $15 for FSU faculty/staff, $12 for ages 17 and younger, and $2 for FSU students. For tickets, persons may call 301-687-4411, Mondays through Fridays, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Cultural Events Series is supported in part by a grant from the Maryland State Arts Council, an agency funded by the state of Maryland and the National Endowment for the Arts. The performance of Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre is supported by a grant from Pittsburgh Arts on Tour, a program funded by the Vira I. Heinz Endowment and administered by the Mid-Atlantic Arts Foundation.

Persons with disabilities may request accommodations through the ADA Compliance Office by calling 301-687-4102, TDD 301-687-7955.

Accident School Community Enjoying "Fruits Of Labor"

Accident Elementary School students and staff have a number of reasons to celebrate. These include the acquisition of new playground equipment and reading lab furnishings, more books and materials for the resource center, and safety improvements for the playground.

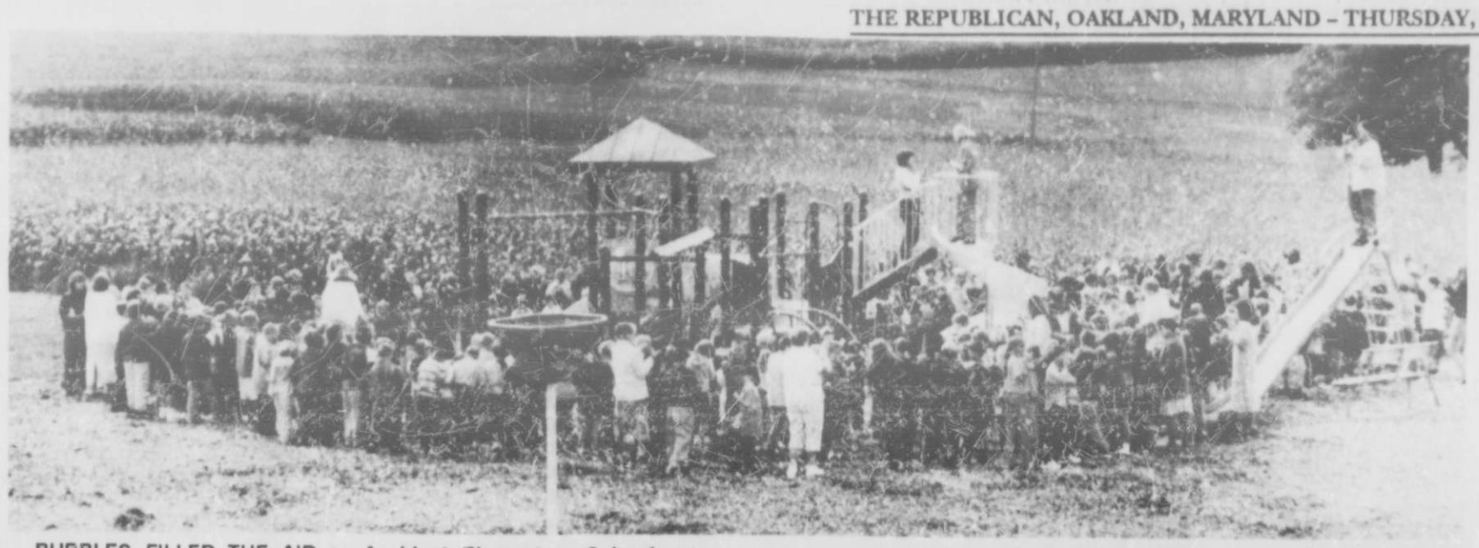
All of these special additions to the school were earned by the students and the staff for continued and consistent improvement on the Maryland School Performance Assessment Program testing. The school was awarded a $22,000 Incentive Grant for its ongoing success. The funds, to be funneled through the Garrett County Board of Education, could be used at the discretion of Accident Elementary School.

"Decisions for expenditures were discussed through the School Improvement Team process with input from all staff. The team's goal was to enhance the school environment by increasing safety for students through improved communication, improved instructional facilities, and offering more advanced technological delivery of instruction," said principal Sandra Nesline.

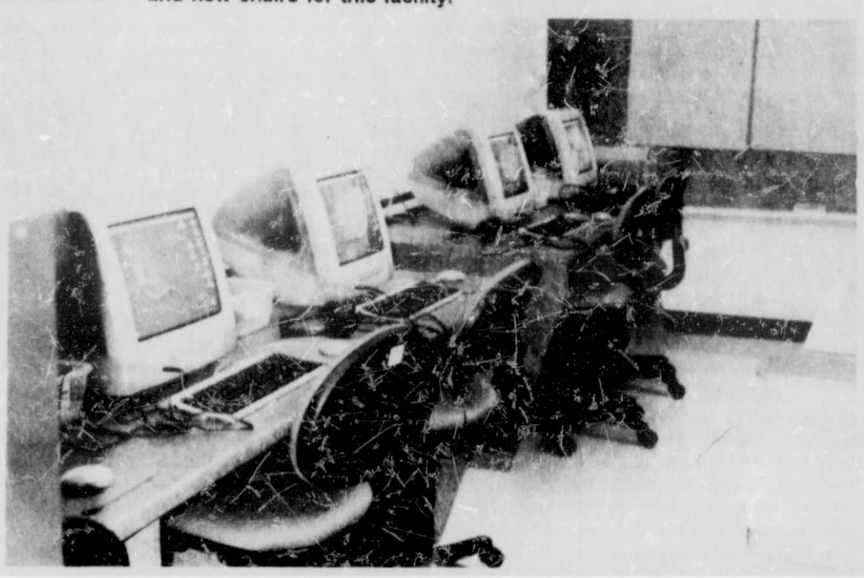
Deliberations of the use of funds led off in several directions and ended with the decision to allocate portions of the money to several different projects. Money was earmarked for the purchase of counter tops and chairs for the school's Reading Academy Lab, which is out-fitted with computers and software purchased through the board of education.

"The lab accommodates 10 students at a time, 5 days a week, for 30 minutes. The program remediates and extends student skill development in reading. Schedules are set up so the lab is in use throughout the day," Nesline explained, adding that while students are in the reading lab, those remaining in the classroom are able to work with the teacher in smaller groups for enrichment activities.

The team also chose to purchase walkie-talkies to be used on the playground and in case of a school emergency. The use of walkie-talkies supports the school's required Emergency Management Plan, written last year, Nesline said. The number of walkie-talkies purchased has since been supplemented through the Safe School funds.



BUBBLES FILLED THE AIR as Accident Elementary Schools students and staff celebrated the new playground equipment, which can accommodate up to 40 students at one time. The equipment was among the items purchased with money awarded for continuous improvement on the state assessment tests. "We wanted to give back something tangible to the students for their improved achievement and add to community facilities," said principal Sandra Nesline. In the photo above, Nesline can be seen standing at the top of the spiral slide poised to initiate the new slide amid the cloud of bubbles. In the photo below is the Reading Academy Lab at Accident Elementary. Some of the money received was used to purchase a new counter top and new chairs for this facility.



Another $3,500 of the grant was used to buy media books and materials. "Funds were matched through a grant coordinated by Dusty Stanton, and the PTA contributed an additional $1,500 raised in a school book fair," she noted.

Computer carts were also bought to be used for each classroom teacher's IMAC computer. A total of 43 computers had been purchased with grant funds, and the school's Internet access was made available through the volunteer efforts of the Bell Atlantic Pioneers, who wired the classrooms.

A final acquisition was a major piece of playground equipment that accommodates up to 40 children at one time. Such an improvement had been initiated several years ago but was hampered by improper drainage on the playground. However, with donated funds the drainage problem was rectified.

Kurt Meyr, the owner of Nordic Homes and parent of three Accident Elementary School students, "donated" the skilled workforce to assemble the newly purchased playground equipment. Other businesses to volunteer skill, time, and materials to complete the installation of the new equipment included KC Construction, Sisler Lumber, and McKenzie Lumber.

The dedication and celebration of the new additions to the school facility took place last Tuesday. The event had been coordinated by the STAR (Students Taking Active Responsibility) Planning/ Character Education team. "The students gathered in the gym first to discuss responsible behavior and respect for others as well as safety on the playground," Nesline said.

Following this assembly, the students went to the playground and encircled the new equipment. The children were given small bottles of bubbles. "They all enjoyed making a cloud of bubbles," noted Nesline, who initiated the new spiral slide as the bubbles filled the air.

Nesline emphasized that a key factor in the success of the Accident School students is the combined efforts of staff, parents, and community. Deciding how to use the Incentive Grant money, involved a wide array of personnel and county resources, she pointed out.

"Though school improvement is measured to some degree by tests scores, the opportunity to see children grow into responsible citizens, who are self-motivated and appreciative of what the world has offer is the real payoff. Our goal at Accident School is to create lifelong learners," Nesline stated.

Deer Park Gas House Rebuilt In Daily Park

As part of an ongoing project of the Garrett County Historical Society, another vestige of the former Deer Park Hotel is being reconstructed in Oakland's Daily Park. Last year, the society restored the hotel's gazebo, placing it in the park, which is located at the corner of Second and Liberty streets. This summer, the members began the reconstruction of the hotel's gas house, originally built in 1873.

"It was almost completely buried," said Bob Shaffer, historical society member, describing the condition of the gas house at its original location. "We had to remove about six feet of dirt to find it all."

The structure was used in the late 1800s to provide gas for the hotel. Carbide and water were mixed in the stone house to create a gas, which was then piped into the hotel and used in the lighting system. Because the mixture was so volatile, the gas house was somewhat removed from the hotel.

The gas house for the Oakland hotel is also still standing, and can be found along the walking trail that begins at the footbridge near the Mountain Fresh Producers pavilion.

Shaffer and Bob Boal, who is president of the historical society, said a number of individuals have given volunteer time and/or materials to help with the relocation of the gas house. The structure was initially donated by the landowners, Janet and Jerry Browning. After seeing the gazebo reconstruction, the Brownings contacted the historical society to offer the gas house, which was located on their property.

A KEYSTONE OF THE PAST has been put in its rightful place, atop the reconstructed gas house that once stood next to the Deer Park Hotel. The gas house, in which carbide was mixed with water to create a gas for lighting at the historic hotel, has been reconstructed at Daily Park in Oakland. The stones from the dilapidated structure were carefully numbered before being moved to the new site, where they were placed back together in their original order. The Garrett County Historical Society spearheaded the project, and was assisted by a number of people and organizations. See story. Pictured above as they fit in the keystone are, from the left, Bob Shaffer, Paul Shogren, Jay Moyer, Gail Hixon, and Rudy Cvetnick.

The ravages of time were evident at the gas house, which was nearly filled to its roof with packed dirt. The digging-out process began, with the assistance of Mark Uphole, who operated a back hoe borrowed from Mason Madigan. Shaffer and other volunteers used shovels to dig close to the structure, and after days of work, were able to unearth it.

Shaffer then set to the task of numbering the stones to help with an accurate rebuild. A few of the main front rocks were missing, but were eventually found in the ground surrounding the building. The keystone, on which the word "gas" is imprinted, was located when Shaffer actually tripped backward over its corner. It was almost completely buried, upside-down, in the ground.

Jim Ashby of the Mettiki Coal Corporation arranged for the use of a flatbed truck to carry the stones to the Oakland site. Buffalo Coal provided a large steel tank used as the basic structure of the gas house, with field stone being placed on the outside. The stone was donated by Phil Ferguson.

Rev. Gail Hixon, a stone mason, rebuilt the front of the house according to Shaffer's numbered blueprint, and continues to work on the outside. George Scheffel sandblasted the original steel door frame, and is currently rebuilding the hinges to match the original ones, which, along with the original wooden door, have long since rotted or rusted away. David Moon is slated to rebuild the doors, Shaffer said.

"So many people are lending their hands to the project," Boal said. "It's wonderful to see so many come out to help and offer their assistance."

To help defray the costs of the Daily Park project, the historical society is hosting its annual fall fund-

THE GAS HOUSE IN EARLIER DAYS — This photo of the gas house was taken many decades ago, perhaps after the demise of the hotel, but long before the gas house's deterioration. This and other photos owned by the Garrett County Historical Society were very useful in the reconstruction of the building, as volunteers studied the pictures to help restore the structure accurately.

Notes from Bittinger

by Joan Sussman

The turn of summer to autumn is so sad to me. Of course, it is always sad to watch the change from lush living green into a landscape tinged with splashes of blood. I am astonished how fast it has come on around here, even though the first part of September really passed without a really heavy frost. You can't ignore that autumn is here in spite of the fact that today it is hot and muggy. The blue sky has never really broken through the heavy clouds and haze. A few fragments of blue and now and then a feeble sunshine beam both fight through. But the heavy atmosphere dulls the splash of color in overall very dense and heavy green.

The sad thing about this time of year is the regrets of what you did not do this summer, or the loss of other things. For example, I never got to ride in the woods. I never got back to the beaver dam, which to me is the most special place in the world. I did not make it to pick those elderberries or blackberries from the canoe, and now it is too late. I did not even see any elderberries. I love elderberry and apple pie. My tomatoes are still green as grass.

The last year I had my horse Joey and when I was trying to rehabilitate him, we would take long walks. On those walks I could possibly find at least 25 four-leaf clovers. I just happened to come on to that collection recently. But all those clovers did not mean good luck for Joey and me, because in a few months he died. Since I was 11 years old he was always there for me. He shared my pain when my brother Scott died. The first thing I did when the news arrived was to saddle up Joey and ride around our farm. On that ride I sensed that Scott was there. But this summer I did not find a single four-leaf clover. I took a minute today in a last ditch effort to find one, but there was not a single one. You either are a good finder of them or you aren't. My dad was good at it, and I was always pretty good at it. My Aunt Helen says that she can't find one and never has. Once I even pointed out a small plot on the lawn and gave her more detailed direction, as a little more to her left and one foot in front of her right toe. She did not have much luck.

I hope I get some news from someone in Bittinger. Soccer season is going on right now. Brent Housley made the varsity soccer team at Northern. Mere is on her soccer team and scored her first goal in a recent game. Her dad told her to keep on the ball all the way to the goal and even after you take a shot. She kicked the ball and then fell down, but she jumped up and kicked her own rebound into the goal.

Claire and Robbie are busy trying to find their place in the Northern High Marching Band. They have to attend a lot of practices. Claire said one senior yelled at the freshmen rookies and said, "You don't even try." They all try their best and hardest. It was a tough choice for Claire between playing soccer or being in the band. She is excited about the band, but I think she is a little jealous of Caitlin and Mere playing soccer. It is a shame she can't do both, as she has developed in all the games and she was starting to be a good soccer player with lots more potential.

DEVELOPMENT CONTINUES AT JENNINGS RANDOLPH LAKE

As interest continues to grow and develop for choice lots and land near Jennings Randolph Lake, the third custom built cabin located within one mile of the Public Boat Launch and across from the Robert W. Craig Campgrounds entrance on WV Rt. #46 was recently completed by Mike Haywood, General Contractor and Owner of Mike Haywood Group in Keyser, WV.

The cabin sets back off the state highway on 15 acres deeded from Haywood to Charles and Ella Sochin of Stephens City, Virginia. Haywood said that Mr. and Mrs. Sochin originally purchased 10 acres, however, shortly before their cabin was finished they decided to purchase an additional 5 acres to expand their site for weekend retreats and family outings. Jennings Randolph Lake has developed several Recreation Areas in both Maryland and West Virginia. The facilities in WV include a Scenic Overlook, Fishing Pier, Picnic Area with Pavilions, Large Public Boat Launch, Campgrounds, all accessible from Rt. #46. Aside from the amenities at Jennings Randolph Lake, the neighboring North Branch of the Potomac River is becoming one of the best Trophy Trout Fishing — Whitewater Rafting Rivers in West Virginia.

AN ARDUOUS TASK — Tons of dirt had to be removed from the Deer Park Hotel gas house this summer, as it stood long-abandoned on private property. The property owners, Jerry and Janet Browning, thought the structure ought to be saved, so they contacted the Garrett County Historical Society and offered to donate it to the organization. Society members leapt at the chance to obtain the historic building, and volunteers came to help. Mark Uphole is pictured above as he operates a back hoe, borrowed from Mason Madigan, to help unearth the gas house. As the workers surveyed the inside of the house, the task before them became evident. The building was nearly full of dirt, packed down over the years. Bob Shaffer is pictured below as he digs out the front. The level of the ground can be seen behind Shaffer's head.

Fruit Tips for the Home Gardener

Avoid the temptation to buy bargain fruit trees this fall. Planting fruit trees requires planning and site preparation. The soil needs to be tested and amended prior to planting. Bargain trees may be stressed and of poor quality. And fruit trees tend to grow better when planted in the spring. So if you're hankering for fruit begin now to select a site and prepare the soil for spring planting.

Remove and dispose of all rotted or fallen fruits from trees, vines and bushes. This will help reduce the amount of disease inoculum and number of insect pests that over-winter and attack your orchard next spring.

Prune out the dead raspberry and blackberry canes that fruited this past summer. Fall fruiting raspberries like "Heritage" can be mowed to the ground in late winter. If you experienced poor growth in blueberries this season have your soil tested and amend your soil accordingly.

Many fruit plants have shallow root systems that are easily damaged by cultivation. Do not cultivate or dig into the soil around small fruits or tree fruits. Use organic mulches to control weeds.

Harvesting fruit before peak ripeness will help you to minimize problems with yellow jackets and sap beetles. Yellow jacket bottle traps are commercially available. Apples can be fully ripened by placing them in a paper bag at room temperature. Pears should be picked when a change in background color is observed. Store pears in a refrigerator or other cool, dark location. Bring them to room temperature to ripen. Asian pears should be allowed to ripen on the tree.

You may notice small red spots that have a light colored or black center on your apples. This is San Jose scale, a sucking insect that attacks the leaves, branches and fruits of fruit trees. If you pry open the scale cover you can observe, with a hand lens or magnifying glass, the settled crawlers. This pest can be controlled with a dormant oil/spray and by pruning out infested branches.

Ripening apples showing signs of various summer rots should be picked and discarded. Apples with small, dry, brown spots under the skin may be suffering from bitter pit, caused by a lack of calcium in the fruit. To prevent this problem from recurring, don't over-fertilize your trees, and have your soil tested and add calcium this fall if calcium levels are low.

Be on the lookout for peach tree borer damage. The borers typically enter the lower trunk around the soil line and feed on the cambium. They kick out a mixture of grass and sap which can be scraped away to expose the feeding tunnels. For control details please call me.

Brown rot on stone fruits causes fruits to mummify. Healthy looking fruits may begin to break down after harvest due to early season infection. Continue a regular spray program and remove infected fruits immediately. Chestnut weevil adults are active laying eggs in chestnut burrs. Monitor this small grayish weevil by tapping branches while holding a white sheet of paper underneath.

Lawn Tips

Now through mid-October is the best time to start new lawns and renovate or overseed existing lawns. Use a turf-type tall fescue cultivar at a rate of 4 lbs. of seed per 1,000 sq. ft. of area for overseeding, or 8 lbs. per 1,000 sq. ft. for new lawns. If your lawn area contains more than 50% weeds, consider a total lawn renovation. Newly seeded turf must be watered regularly. Request our turf renovation fact sheet #37 for more specific information.

Broadleaf weeds are growing vigorously due to wet weather and can be effectively controlled with spot applications of labeled herbicides. This is the ideal time to control plantain, nimblewill and other narrow leaf, perennial weeds. Don't apply herbicides to areas that you will be re-seeding.

Lawn herbicides can damage or kill non-target plants and animals if used incorrectly. Also, herbicides work best on actively growing weeds; they don't work as well during hot, dry weather. Do not spray herbicides around ponds or on breezy days. Always read and closely follow all label instructions. Request our fact sheets on controlling weeds in the lawn.

Leaf spot diseases of turf are very common now. Turf-type tall fescues are more resistant to turf diseases; however, they are susceptible to brown patch. Brown patch is a common fungal disease of fescue lawns that appears as thin, brown areas. Grasses will green up and recover in the fall. No chemical controls are recommended. This disease is typically worse on over-fertilized lawns.

Summer patch and dollar spot may be seen now on bluegrass. No fungicide sprays are recommended.

Moss and algae growth has proliferated in lawns due to wet conditions. Moss and algae are usually associated with low sunlight, compacted soils and low soil pH. To return the area to turf, rake or dig out the moss, incorporate fertilizer and lime according to soil test recommendations, and re-seed with tall fescue seed. If turf will not grow, consider replanting the area with an appropriate groundcover.

Cicada killer wasps are active now. They are 2 inches long and resemble yellow jackets in coloration. These harmless wasps prey on cicadas and dig nests in soil. They are solitary insects but may congregate in large numbers. No controls are recommended.

Mow 'em high and let 'em lie. Cut your cool-season turf (fescues and bluegrass) to a height of 2½ to 3 inches and leave the clippings on the lawn where they will decompose naturally. Grasscycling does not lead to thatch build-up problems. Keep your lawn mower blade sharp. Dull blades tear turfgrass and can lead to disease problems.

Now is the time to fertilize most lawn grasses with one pound of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn. This is equivalent to 10 lbs. of a 10-6-4 fertilizer. This is a good time to have your soil tested by the University's Soil Testing Lab. If lime and fertilizer are recommended they can be applied at the same time. The first application of fertilizer should be made in September followed by a second application in October.

Lamb Meat Adjustment Assistance Package Finalized

In July 1999, President Clinton announced $100 million in assistance for the U.S. sheep industry as a result of the industry's successful Section 201 trade action. A portion of this assistance, $30 million, will be in direct payments to producers over a three-year period ($10 million per year). The assistance package is broken down into two categories: Year 1, which runs from July 21, 1999, through September 30, 2000, and Years 2 & 3, which run from August 1, 2000, through July 31, 2002. The program will be administered through the Farm Service Agency (FSA). Proper applications and forms may be obtained through local FSA offices. The sign-up period for Year 1 ends October 13, 2000. Form FSA-0383 must be submitted with feeder and slaughter lambs at the time they are marketed to be eligible for payment.

GROSES RECOGNIZED FOR CONSERVATION EFFORTS -- Edward C. and Bill Grose, owners/operators of Montcroft Farms, were recently recognized by the Monongahela Soil Conservation District (MSCD) for their conservation practices on their 480-acre farm near Cranesville, W.Va. The Groses learned earlier this summer that a panel of judges named them Preston County conservation farmers of the year. They were later selected winners at the district level (the MSCD is composed of Preston, Marion, and Monongalia counties), and more recently were named regional winners. They are now in competition with the other farms that have also been named regional winners, and will travel to Charleston in early October to learn who will take the honors as this year's West Virginia conservation farmers. Pictured above are Bill, left, and his parents, Jean and Edward Grose, with the MSCD sign they received at an awards banquet last Friday in Fairmont. (Photo by Patti Grose)

Maryland Crop Harvest Continues

Crop harvesting continued throughout the state. With warmer, drier weather the past week, growers were allowed 5.4 days suitable for field work. Most of this time was used for crop harvest.

Corn and soybean conditions remained mostly good to excellent, with some concern about the potential of late beans in western Maryland. Maturity is about normal, but corn silage harvest is progressing relatively slow. Cantaloupe and peach harvesting came to a close this past week, with a few others being close to finished. Sweet corn is 93 percent harvested, 2 points below last year, but 1 point above the five-year average.

Watermelons are 95 percent harvested, 1 point below last year, but 3 points above the five-year average. Cucumbers are 90 percent harvested, 5 points above last year, but 2 points below the five-year average.

Weight Loss Puzzles Doctors

ATLANTA, GA -- Doctors were surprised when two separate studies found that a natural dietary supplement could help cause significant weight loss.

Although not conclusive, both studies found that patients receiving the formula called Bio-Rex 3000®, lost more than twice as much weight as those in a control group on the same fat reduced diet. Neither group was instructed to decrease the amount of food they ate or to increase their exercise levels. An article published in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition says that you don't have to decrease the amount of food you eat to lose weight, provided that you limit the fat.

According to a spokesperson for Phillips Gulf Corporation, the exclusive North American distributor of Bio-Rex 3000, the company is considering additional studies in order to get federal approval to make pharmaceutical claims. Currently, weight loss claims for the Bio-Rex 3000 supplement are limited. However, with the requisite approval, the company could say that Bio-Rex 3000 decreases sugar cravings, increases metabolism and interferes with the body's ability to produce excess fat.

Bio-Rex 3000 is currently available as a dietary supplement and plan in pharmacies and nutrition stores or by calling 1-800-729-8446. www.phillipsgulf.com.

Rose Foley Lee

100th birthday celebrated

on August 7, 2000 at the Dennett Road Manor Nursing Home, Oakland, MD. where she is a resident.

She was born in Keyser, WV, but has lived most of her life in Garrett County, where she raised her eight children.

Rose studied midwifery and home health care through the Public Health Dept., was certified, and served the community in that capacity through the early 1930s and 1940s.

She is a member of the Faith Evangelical Church in Mtn. Lake Park, MD.

The family feels that the following poem found in Mother's Bible describes her life.

A HUMBLE LITTLE WOMAN

There's been a lot of mighty men,
Upon this earth have trod:
Some seeking fame and world acclaim,
A few have walked with God.
Yet I would like to tell you friend,
Of someone I think great:
A little woman no one knows,
With mighty men I rate.

She's just a little humble saint,
With heaven in her eyes:
And tho' she hasn't got the looks,
To win a beauty prize:
I'll tell you something that she's got,
That puts most men to shame:
A love for those who've never heard,
A dying saviour's name.

I've watched her go to work each day,
And raise a family too:
She doesn't have a bank account,
Her clothes are seldom new:
She only has one thought in mind,
To work and give and pray:
That missionaries of the cross,
Help sinners find the way.

One day there'll be some great rewards,
For those who've done their best:
To mention names I wouldn't dare,
I don't know all the rest:
But when God's payday rolls around,
Now don't you be surprised:
A little woman heads the list,
With heaven in her eyes.

Walt Huntley

The family wishes to thank all those who remembered her on her very special day.

Crellin Woman Is Arrested On Charge Of Arson

A Crellin woman whose place of residence was gutted by fire on August 22 has been charged with first degree arson by deputy state fire marshals of the Maryland State Fire Marshal's office.

Dinah Hebb, 39, was taken into custody Friday evening and is being held in the Garrett County Detention Center in lieu of $10,000 bond. She is accused of setting fire to a two-story, wood-frame house in the 100 block of Preston Lane where she was residing.

Investigators determined that the fire had been deliberately set in the living room of the house. Hebb was reportedly the only one home at the time of the 1:19 p.m. fire, and investigators said she made several incriminating statements at the fire scene. A motive has not been established.

If convicted, Hebb could be sentenced to 30 years in prison and fined as much as $50,000.

Law Enforcement Focusing On Drug Abuse In County

The Garrett County Narcotics Task Force in the first eight months of 2000 has handled 92 drug offense cases that resulted in charges against 58 adults and 11 juveniles, according to a report released this week by State's Attorney Lisa Thayer Welch. A number of other investigations are currently under way as well, she said.

Sheriff Dick Sanders said the number of arrests for drug offenses is on the increase.

"The deputies and state troopers do an excellent job of conducting roadside interviews and making observations to determine if there is reason to suspect that a vehicle contains weapons or illegal substances," the sheriff said.

In order to equip every officer with as many tools as possible to do this, Sanders said, the Task Force advisory board will host a training opportunity in early October for county law enforcers. This workshop will teach the officers about methods of identifying some of the newer "designer" drugs, as well as the signs and symptoms of persons using them.

Welch, who is chairperson of the advisory board, said she is concerned about the increasing variety of drugs being found in Garrett County.

"Marijuana remains the drug we deal with the most," she said. "However, recent cases have involved cocaine, crack cocaine, mushrooms, LSD, liquid LSD, heroin, and MDMA ('ecstasy'). There is no doubt that virtually any dangerous and illegal substance is available in our community."

Because of this, Welch said she and the sheriff, along with members of the Maryland State Police Drug Enforcement Command, will be hosting informational meetings for concerned citizens to learn more about these drugs, such as what they look like, how people taking them act, and why they are so dangerous. Welch said the dates and times of these events will be announced soon.

She also stressed that citizens can make reports about suspected drug activities in their neighborhoods by calling 301-387-9566.

Friendsville Man Charged With Homicide In Yough Lake Death

Officers with the Garrett Bureau of Investigation arrested Mark Johnston, Friendsville, on Wednesday for the April death of Gary Lee Swift on the Youghiogheny River Lake. The 49-year-old Swift, a Friendsville resident, was reported by friends as missing on April 29. With his pickup and boat located at the Yough Lake, near Friendsville, divers from the Natural Resources Police and at area search units, as well as other rescue personnel from the Friendsville Volunteer Fire Department, launched a search for Swift in the lake, and the body was recovered on May 6. Investigation revealed that Johnston was the last person seen with Swift. Johnston has been charged with second degree homicide, manslaughter, and reckless endangerment.

"From the outset, Johnston was suspected to have played a role in Swift's death," arresting officer TFC Steve Bennett explained. "His response to the news that his 'friend' was missing and presumed drowned in the lake was not what one would expect from a friend, and his version of the events of the evening before changed as he was confronted with facts uncovered by Natural Resources Police and GBI investigators. During recent interviews Johnston's story continued to change, and he eventually admitted to shaking the boat while Swift was walking around inside, causing him to fall into the icy cold water." Both Johnston and Swift had been drinking and were reportedly intoxicated at the time, Bennett added.

After his appearance before a district court commissioner, Johnston remains lodged in the Garrett County Jail on a $50,000 bond.

CDS Arrests Prompted By Traffic Stops

A traffic stop on Route 219 south of Spear Road last Friday evening resulted in several arrests on drug charges. Maryland State Police at the McHenry barrack reported that Sean Demetreus Mellerson, 29, Largo, and Amy Michelle Benjamin, 29, Gaithersburg, were charged for possession of marijuana and paraphernalia after the vehicle had been stopped for an equipment violation.

Tfc. J. Broadwater said that after he stopped the 1998 Mitsubishi Gallant, he checked the driver's license and discovered that it was suspended. A search incident to the arrest revealed marijuana and paraphernalia.

A third arrest occurred when Desmond Enrico Smith, 27, Glenarden, who

More Arrested On Grand Jury Indictments

Two Oakland men were arrested this week on criminal indictments returned by the September Grand Jury. James Eugene Reed, 19, and William Thomas Harless, 18, both face charges involving marijuana.

Harless was arrested on Sept. 14 and charged with distribution of marijuana, two counts of conspiracy to distribute marijuana, and possession of marijuana. The charges stem from an incident in January of this year, according to a report from Lisa Thayer Welch, state's attorney.

Reed was arrested on Sept. 15, charged with marijuana distribution, conspiracy to distribute, and possession of the drug. The events leading to the arrest also occurred in January.

Officers with the Garrett County Narcotics Task Force brought evidence for these cases and others to the grand jury last week. Charges are pending and more are to be filed against additional persons involved in the same incidents, Welch reported.

Annual Tour Of Roads By MDT Slated Friday

Officials of the Maryland Department of Transportation will visit Garrett County tomorrow, Sept. 22, and perform their annual tour of state roadways and transportation projects within the county. John D. Porcari, MDT secretary, is expected to be present, along with a number of other department officials.

The local meeting will begin at 9 a.m. in the commissioners' office at the courthouse. The public is invited to attend.

The meeting, along with others throughout western Maryland, marks the beginning of the MDT's annual state tour. Each fall, the MDT presents its draft of a six-year capital program for each county to review. It then prepares a final report to present to the Maryland General Assembly in January.

Frederick Woman Arrested By GBI For Kidnapping

Lisa Renee Sweitzer, 33, of Frederick, was arrested Tuesday by the Garrett County Bureau of Investigation. She has been charged with one count of kidnapping, stemming from a incident that occurred on Monday at a local day care facility.

According to the GBI report, Sweitzer is accused of taking her 16-month-old granddaughter from the Mtn. Lake Park day care. Also missing is the baby's 16-year-old mother. Both the baby and her mother were reportedly in foster care in Garrett County.

GBI officers and officials of the Department of Social Services traveled to Frederick Tuesday to make the arrest. The defendant was taken before a court commissioner in that city and was detained on a $100,000 bond. She was brought back to Garrett County yesterday, according to the report, and remains in the local jail.

The children have not yet been located, the report noted.

GCC INAUGURATES NEW JUVENILE JUSTICE PROGRAM — Garrett Community College inaugurated a newly developed curriculum in Juvenile Justice this week, an undertaking unique in the state of Maryland. Seventeen students are already participating in the associate degree or the 30-hour creditation certificate programs as they prepare for employment with the Maryland's DJJ or similar agencies across the nation. Any Maryland resident can enroll in the program at the same tuition rate as Garrett County residents. "Garrett Community College is extremely pleased to be the first college in Maryland to offer a degree designed to educate professionals who can guide incarcerated youth effectively, who can manage them with care and compassion, and who can help them succeed in life," explained college president Dr. Steve Herman. "Given the number of Juvenile Justice facilities in our county and western Maryland, I am confident that our curriculum will contribute to local people getting state jobs." Shown above at the program's unveiling Tuesday are, from left, GCC instructor Mike Lewis, who also serves as principal of the DJJ's Youth Centers, Herman, Dale Schroyer, DJJ's superintendent of Youth Centers, and Lillian Mitchell, GCC's dean of academic affairs.

Driver Seriously Injured In Single-Vehicle Accident

George Bernard Zamberlan 61, Shirmanston, Pa., remains in "serious" condition today, Thursday, following a single-vehicle accident Tuesday, according to a spokesperson at Memorial Hospital in Cumberland.

Police reported that Zamberlan was traveling west on Interstate 68 near New Germany Road Tuesday at 1:30 p.m., when he apparently fell asleep. His 1988 Chevrolet van subsequently struck the guardrail and went over an embankment. Zamberlan was wearing a seatbelt at the time of accident, police said.

Northern Rescue squad and Grantsville VFD responded to the scene and transported Zamberlan to Memorial Hospital in Cumberland.

Wind Gust A Factor In Accident On I-68

A 1978 Ford truck traveling on I-68 Saturday was struck by a gust of wind that reportedly caused the driver to lose control of the vehicle, which drove off the road and overturned. Police said the driver of the truck was William Conrad Pilsinger, 61, Cumberland.

Northern Rescue Squad and Grantsville VFD responded to the scene and transported a passenger, Joseph Harris, to Memorial Hospital in Cumberland for treatment of minor injuries, police said.

Eleventh Rabies Case Confirmed; Clinics Slated

The Environmental Health Services office of the Garrett County Health Department has reported the 11th rabies case of 2000. A raccoon which was confirmed positive for rabies by the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene was killed during a fight with an unvaccinated dog on Wednesday, Sept. 13, in the Swanton area. There was no human exposure.

All of the county's 11 positive rabies cases this year have been in raccoons and have been spread over a large geographical area, officials said. Because of the wide distribution of documented rabies cases, pet owners are urged to have dogs, cats, and ferrets vaccinated against the disease.

A series of low-cost rabies clinics has been scheduled by the health department at various locations throughout Garrett County. The cost of the vaccinations is $5 per animal, and county dog licenses will also be available at each clinic. Dogs should be leashed and cats and ferrets should be contained in a wire cage or a tightly secured box.

The rabies clinics will take place 5-6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 25, through Friday, Sept. 29, and 10 a.m.-noon Saturday, Sept. 30, at the following sites:

- Monday at Grantsville Elementary School;
- Tuesday at the Swanton Community Center;
- Wednesday at Crellin Elementary School;
- Thursday at the Kitzmiller Community Center;
- Friday at Friendsville Elementary School; and
- Saturday at Broad Ford Elementary School.

The rabies virus is spread through the saliva of the infected animal and may be viable up to two hours on a fur coat of another animal after a confrontation. Protective gloves should be worn by anyone handling a domesticated animal following such an encounter, and the animal should be confined for the crucial two-hour period after exposure to a suspected rabid animal.

In the wake of last Wednesday's incident, the owner decided to have his dog euthanized after being given the choice of euthanasia for the animal or a strict six-month confinement in a double-walled cage, a decision made necessary because the dog did not have current vaccination.

Man, Juvenile Face Drug Charges By Oakland Police

Oakland police reported stopping Jacob Eugene Lynch for exceeding the posted speed limit on High Street on September 12 at 7:27 p.m. Pfc. S. Fratz said he obtained permission from Lynch to search the vehicle and found a pill bottle containing suspected marijuana.

At that time, Lynch and a juvenile who was a passenger were placed under arrest. A search of the juvenile reportedly revealed a plastic bag of suspected marijuana and a marijuana pipe.

The juvenile was released into parental custody. Lynch was later released on a $2,500 bond.

Laser Printer Cartridges Can Be Recycled

The staff of the Garrett County Office of Solid Waste and Recycling recently announced that an Envirosmart Cartridge Collection Program had been established. Initially, only inkjet printer cartridges were being accepted for recycling, but the staff announced last week that now the office can accept laser printer cartridges as well.

Persons who use inkjet or laser cartridges in their homes or offices and who would like to participate in the new program are encouraged to contact Nikki Brown at the recycling office, 301-387-0322, or e-mail: gcsw@gcnet.net. The postage-paid mailers will be promptly sent to those who request them, Brown said.

For more information about the program, persons may contact Brown.

OPEN HOUSE HELD AT ADDICTIONS SERVICE — In observance of National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month, the Addictions Service of the Garrett County Health Department hosted an open house at its Oakland facility on Tuesday. The year's theme at Addictions Service is "Recovering Our Future: One Youth at a Time." Fred Herath, director of the program, said it is essential that young people with substance abuse problems receive treatment that is appropriate and effective. "All too often, treatment programs are designed for adults and are ill-equipped to meet the unique needs of adolescents," Herath said. The activites at Tuesday's open house were focused on that issue, with guests such as Terry Ober, state coordinator for the Reality Program, which is sponsored locally through the Garrett County Sheriff's Office. It teaches young people at risk the grave consequences of delinquent behavior. Also present was Deb Rienhimer, field representative for the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Administration. Herath said his office provides a wide range of addictions services, working with the legal system, the Motor Vehicle Administration, the local jail, hospital, and schools, among others. Representatives of these entities also attended the open house event, along with the Garrett County commissioners. Pictured at the event, left to right, are Herath, Rienhimer, and Ober.

The public is invited to attend.

SHS, NHS Bands Open Marching Season In W.Va.

Both the Northern and Southern Garrett marching bands opened their marching seasons last weekend, competing in the Martinsburg (W.Va.) High School Band Spectacular. The show was a Tournament of Bands (TOB) competition, and both county bands competed in the Group I division.

Northern won second place with a score of 73.90, and Southern came in third with 70.05 points. Southern won the specialty award for Best Percussion. Brunswick High School beat out the local groups with a first place score of 75.55. Of all 12 bands in the show, Allegany High School was the winner of the first place overall trophy, garnering a score of 83.

Richard Clever, director of Southern's band, said he was pleased with his group's performance.

"It was our first competition, and some parts of our show were not completed at the time," Clever said. "The band is playing very well. Although we are small, we are getting out a good sound."

This weekend, Northern Garrett will host its annual band competition at the school's athletic field. Southern will be competing in the show, while the host band will perform in exhibition. The show will begin at 6 p.m.

OPEN HOUSE SET AT ST. MARK'S CENTER — An open house at St. Mark's Lutheran Church's new Early Learning Center will be held on Sunday, Sept. 24, from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. The center is housed in the former Loch Lynn Elementary School. Pictured above as she helps her young charges is teacher Becky Moyer. The nonprofit center offers a Christian-based, early education curriculum, and is open to 3- and 4-year-olds. Some openings for students remain, and persons wishing for more information are encouraged to attend the open house, and/or may contact the church office at 301-334-2668.

Proclamations Signed By County Commissioners

The Garrett County commissioners signed two proclamations this week citing Lawsuit Abuse Awareness Week (LAAW), Sept. 18-22, and Maryland State Parks Week, Sept. 23 through Oct. 1.

The first proclamation was brought to the local officials by members of the Western Maryland Citizens Against Lawsuit Abuse (WMCALA), with the citation falling in conjunction with statewide recognition of the week, which has been proclaimed by Speaker of the House Casper Taylor.

LAAW is an annual event with the purpose of calling attention to the costs and consequences of legal abuse, and is used by the WMCALA and related organizations to garner support for their cause and spread their message to fight lawsuit abuse throughout Maryland.

State Parks Week was proclaimed to celebrate the offerings provided by the many state parks in Garrett County and the rest of the state. In conjunction with the celebration, Deep Creek Lake State Park volunteers will present "Art in the Park" on Saturday, Sept. 23, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the day-use area of the state park. Artisans will display and sell their work, and a variety of activities for all ages will take place throughout the day. Features planned include hayrides, Appalachian music, children's crafts, art demonstrations, and refreshments.

For more information about the event, persons may call the Discovery Center at 301-387-7067.

Maryland Made With Pride

ALL CREATURES GREAT AND SMALL are among the subjects explored by Kitzmiller students in Richard Stevens's kindergarten class. One of last year's projects involved raising trout in the classroom. The goal was to later release them into the mill race in the botanical gardens adjacent to the school. Butterflies, tree bark, samples of leaves may be found throughout Stevens's classroom. This Saturday, Sept. 23, Stevens will share the fun of learning about some of the natural resources of Garrett County. These activities will be open to all children as part of Kitzmiller's Potomac Watershed Weekend Event, which will begin at 1 p.m. at the Kitzmiller School and the adjacent community park and arboretum. Educator, author, and renowned natural scientist Dr. Melvin Brown will speak to the adults, present a slide show, and offer a tour of the botanical gardens. This free event is co-sponsored by the mayor and town council of Kitzmiller and Maryland Mountain Trust as part of the Potomac Conservancy's regionwide Potomac Watershed Weekend. In the photo from left in the first row are Shane Ramey, Devin DeWitt, Austin Shaffer, and Timothy Tichnel. In the second row are Clarissa Bender, Justin Nesselrodt, Sarah Lambka, and Ronnie Warnick. In the third row are Brennon Crosby, Devin Stillwagon, Richard Harvey and Andrea Davis. Behind the children are student teacher Ardra Sharpless and Stevens. Assistant teacher Peggy Tasker was absent for the picture.

"A SECOND EVENING AT THE DEER PARK HOTEL" will be hosted by the Garrett County Historical Society as its annual fall fund-raiser on Tuesday, Sept. 26, at Will O' the Wisp, Deep Creek Lake. JoAnn Fletcher, pictured above right (along with some "friends"), will be featured as a soloist at the event, presenting music of the late 19th century era. She will be accompanied by Joyce Hedrick, who will also play during the social hour. This year the funds will be used to help defray the costs of the Daily Park project in Oakland. Beginning with the social hour from 6 to 7 p.m., the evening will include dinner at 7 p.m., the musical entertainment, and short talks about the Deer Park Hotel by John Grant and Bob Boal. Tickets remain for the event, although seating is limited. Half of each $35-per-person ticket will go toward the park project. The tickets are available at the Garrett County Historical Society Museum, located in Oakland along Second Street, or at Gonder Insurance or Gregg's Pharmacy. Society board members are also selling tickets.

LIVE ACTION AT OTT — The sparks were flying at Our Town Theatre this week, as a new steel grid was being put in place in the ceiling area. The grid will hold a variety of lighting instruments, according to Ben Sincell, technical director at the Oakland theatre, and will allow for more diverse lighting techniques. The work is being done by George Scheffel, Sincell, and, in the photo, Richard "Nut" Craver, among others. The project has set back the theatre's fall schedule somewhat, but the play Seascape is slated to take place at the end of this month, Sept. 29 and 30, as well as Oct. 1, with all shows beginning at 8 p.m. For ticket reservations, persons may call the theatre at 301-334-5640.

Interview With Ailing Area Man In Nat'l Letter

The Diabetes Wellness Letter, a national publication, recently featured a story about Oakland resident Bill DeWitt. DeWitt, who has been almost completely blinded by diabetes, was interviewed by Gloria Loring, an author, actress, and entertainer, who asked DeWitt how he was coping with the debilitating effects of the disease.

Loring wrote about DeWitt's positive outlook on life despite his affliction, and also echoed his strong advice to all those with diabetes to check their blood sugar level every day, and to stay on their prescribed diets. While blindness is a danger for diabetics, it is not a certainty. With proper attention to one's illness, blindness can be avoided. DeWitt was adamant to convey that message, Loring wrote.

DeWitt stressed the importance of other people in his life since his diagnosis in 1985. He especially credited his wife Patty for helping him adjust to his blindness and for taking care of the many responsibilities now left to her.

The interview was published in the August newsletter, which is put out by the Diabetes Wellness Network. The organization can be found on the Web at www.diabeteswellness.net.

Massive Protest Needed...

Our insurance agent called yesterday. It was one of those "brace yourself" calls for what is looming on the near horizon. The renewal date for our company's health insurance policy is March, and our agent just wanted to give us a "head's up" that we may be facing a premium increase of at least 40%. At this point, we really aren't sure what we are going to do, because such an increase is simply unaffordable.

We faced a similar hike this past March, but by cutting out some benefits we ended up with a "modest" 20% or so increase.

What is infuriating is that there is absolutely no consideration by the insurers of any given group's health track record. We at Sincell Publishing are a pretty healthy bunch, using nowhere near the amount of premiums we pay in a year. But there is no reward for that. There is no incentive given to our employees to try to take good care of themselves, and not run to the doctor every time they sneeze.

We realize that, at any given moment, a catastrophic injury or illness could occur, even to the healthiest of us, but for those years that such does not occur, how about some kind of reward?

Health care is among the top concerns/issues in this presidential campaign, and at this point we're not sure which of the candidates has the best plan. But unless there is a massive, organized, grassroots ground swell of protest from masses of people (voters), we predict little change in the health care situation, regardless of who wins the White House in November.

As we have said before, it is unbelievable to us that government has no control whatsoever over what health insurance companies charge their customers. Utility companies, which provide heat and electricity, certainly cannot arbitrarily charge whatever they wish, as they must have rate hikes approved by the Public Service Commission. The government limits other costs as well, such as how much property assessments are allowed to rise per year. Health insurance is surely as much of a necessity as electricity is, yet Congress refuses to provide any regulation.

For some reason, the word "money" just keeps popping into our heads.

To the Editor:

We only hope that the person who hit the 3-month-old beagle at 28 Paradise Acres Road realizes how many hearts have been broken, especially that of our friend Ruby, who considered "Socks" as her child in a fur coat. (Would you do the same to a child?) Socks was loved by everybody and had no right to be just hit and laid beside the road to suffer.

If you have any heart at all, you will at least come forward and make an apology.

Socks' very good friends,
Gayle Miller and family

To the Editor:

I agree with your editorial of 9/14/00 in regard to CNN and the other major news networks slanting their presidential candidate coverage. My general observation has also been that the news networks generally favor or present in a positive light the Democratic candidate, while remaining neutral or slant toward negative coverage of the Republican, or other non-democratic, candidate.

It is important for people to consider and watch and listen to other news sources (i.e., C-Span, Point of View, voter guides, Internet) in order to review the candidates' position on critical issues, which are not editorialized by the network news anchor or reporter.

With elections less than two months away, I encourage all voters to obtain as much information as they can about the candidates, preferably from unbiased sources, in order to vote their conscious, and not what the major news media (and their polls) suggest.

Sincerely,
Mark Domenick, M.D.

To the Editor:

So much negative news all the time in our county makes for oppressive living.

I would like for you to take a minute and report on the wonderful youth we have here. The ladies of Grace Lutheran Church in Friendsville had their annual Street Fair Saturday. There were four young boys, Jason Thomas, Chris Thomas, Remington Friend, and Cody Wilt, who volunteered their services.

They worked extremely hard to help set up the tables outside and stack the items for sale, and the biggest help of all was in the church where wonderful homemade soups and sandwiches were served along with homemade breads and desserts.

These young men served the entire day, setting the tables and helping customers to their seats with their meals. They washed dishes and swept floors, among the many other tasks. They smiled and conversed with the elderly patrons, making their day so enjoyable.

Youth are alive and well in Garrett County, and we are very proud of these young men.

To the Editor:

"Ultimately, this (the November presidential election) is a choice between government and freedom; and Al Gore is choosing government." —Senator Phil Gramm (R. Texas), critiquing Al Gore's spending proposals, Wednesday, June 6, 2000. I would simply add one word in front of "government" in the above quote: "big."

Gore's spending proposals have exploded exponentially since early June, to a point where they would consume the entire projected surplus, and considerably more, with his new, permanent entitlements. Ask yourself, what is a government surplus if not over taxation? The terrible little secret that the liberal media is keeping from you is that Gore's proposed new spending not only wipes out the supposed surplus, it submerges the nation into new depths of governmental deficit spending.

I, as a 69-year-old senior citizen, would probably reap the largesse of such irresponsible, wasteful, governmental spending. But bureaucrats do not just waste money on ineffectual government programs; hundreds of billions of dollars simply disappear under their administration. I, for one, say no more big government in any sense! Please cease doing me any more vacuous favors at the expense of my children and my grandchildren. They must pay the bills of profligate government spending...to the detriment of an expanding economy: the true source of people power!

Yes, Phil Gramm is a conservative, and probably one of the most honorable men in the Senate of the United States of America. Like me, he is a former Democrat. We can, and have both said publicly, as our hero, Ronald Reagan, said before us: "I (we) didn't leave the Democrat Party, it left me (us)."

The National Democrat Party is no longer liberal in the sense that I was a liberal. They are socialists, and by definition, they are leftists; and that's where they are taking our country as they destroy our Constitution and the republic it produced. The root word of liberal is liber, Latin for free. Where is the liberälis, freedom, in the Democrat Party?

Big government is not about people; it is about power. George Washington, our pater patriae, once said: "Government is not reason; it is not eloquence. It is power. Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearsome master."

He and the other founding fathers did everything they could to limit the power of government. That unambiguous, simple principle is the foundation of our Constitution. But it is anathema to the present day Democrat Party; and the reason it has been trying to destroy it, at least since January 20, 1933, when our first socialist president began violating his oath of office. Would I have voted for him had I been able? Probably — my family did four times. But that does not alter the fact that he, and his party have all but shredded our Constitution over the past 67 years. The size of government is the proof.

Cordially,

OIL TODAY — FOOD TOMORROW

Europe is experiencing the worst supply shortages and the highest prices of oil in 25 years. We think we have it bad paying $1.50 to $1.75 for a gallon of gas. Try $5 a gallon, and then think about not being able to buy it when you please.

That is the circumstance of the British and the continental Europeans. As a result, last week many vital services there were put on a status of emergency alert.

OPEC, the cartel of oil-producing nations, has said that if their increase in production, scheduled to take place next month, does not ease oil prices, then they will consider taking additional steps. By the time they assess whether the increased supply has helped, and then by the time they consider and, presumably, take further action, we will be well into the winter heating season.

During the last oil crisis into the early '70s nearly three-fourths of oil used in the U.S.A. was produced at home. Today only half our oil comes from our own country. If the oil producers want to hurt us, they have positioned themselves well to do so. Should we have an especially severe winter, combined with high oil prices, the era of prosperity we have enjoyed for a decade will come rapidly to an end.

My concern is not the oil supply, however. I am worried about our food supply. Imagine an international food cartel, not consisting of nations, rather of trans-national corporations, who have the ability to set the price and the supply of food. That scenario stands in advanced stages of implementation.

Four companies control 90% of grain products processing and distribution. A dozen companies control about the same percentage of meat products. Children go to zoos today to see what a barnyard looks like, the barnyard that in 1910, 30 percent of Americans had in their backyards. Today fewer than five percent of Americans live on farms, and most of them do not have a diverse barnyard anymore.

By acreage most farms today are not farms, they are agricultural industries. Except in the Amish-Mennonite communities, most farmers could not provide a diverse menu of food raised on the farm itself. With a year's notice perhaps they could, but crises rarely offer advance notice of a year.

There are a fair number of people who viewed the failure of a Y2K catastrophe to take place as a sign that such a catastrophe can never take place. What is obvious to me is that there was not a disaster around the Y2K computer issues precisely because there was a widespread, multilevel, and nearly nationally comprehensive approach to preventing a problem.

We can still avert the international food cartel scenario. Individuals, families, and communities can and should, first of all, take steps to ensure that they are producing or, at least, maintaining adequate supplies of food for emergencies.

As a second step, citizens should demand of elected officials that they set forth and implement policies of local, regional, and national food security. The current oil crisis can be cited as an example of what can happen when we allow market forces to be the sole mover of societal action. An unfettered free market betrays the unprepared into the hands of the prepared.

Someone pointed out that his suit had been made in Hong Kong, and then asked why he should be concerned that his supper had come from Brazil and New Zealand. "Because," I replied, "You can wear your suit for a year of tomorrows, and when it is threadbare you can mend it almost forever, but the supper you eat tonight can never be eaten again."

(SHE'S WRITING ABOUT KIDS AGAIN. YAWN)
by Mary Sincell McEwen

I love little kids. And while I love them, I do not wish to portray myself as some kind of saint, sweetly kissing the heads of every small human I see, handing out candy to them, and saying "Bless you, child." No. Actually, they drive me nuts. They're noisy, they tend to have bad manners, and are frequently odorous. They interrupt me when I'm trying to talk, they are violent with each other, and they throw trash on the ground. They won't get out of bed on school mornings without a fight, but on Saturdays, they're up at 6:45 to watch cartoons and beg for breakfast. They tell other adults that their mom says bad words sometimes, and that the cat throws up on the dining room rug. They power burp in restaurants, throw temper tantrums in the cereal aisle, pick their noses in church, and defiantly lie down on the bleachers during the playing of the national anthem. In a phrase, they drive me nuts.

BUT. And that's a big BUT. (My kids would laugh at that.) They also slay me with their insights. They see things I don't see, they know things I don't know. Their miniature hands — one with fingers shaped like his father's, another like my brother's — are used so gracefully as they describe their new ideas, their new discoveries. As a child chatters away, you can see the brain at work, processing information, forging sensations and reactions about whatever he or she is discussing at the moment. While I don't believe their minds are blank slates to begin with, I do think there is a sponge-like quality to them — the children look to the adults, of course, and we have an enormous responsibility to provide good information and solid reassurance. While our boys talk, the expressions on their faces are my husband's or mine, appearing without us realizing we have taught them to do that. And other people's kids — You can see their parents in their faces, too. If they smile a lot, their kids do, too. If they are angry a lot, their kids are, too. I see it in my own kids. If we're crabby, the crabbiness spreads. If we're being silly, the silliness spreads with all speed. I suppose this isn't rocket science, but sometimes maybe we forget how we affect our offspring.

Soccer is under way, of course, with over 500 kids playing in the Mountaintop Soccer Association alone. That means over 1,000 parents have children sprinting around on the field, wearing those bright striped shirts and crayon socks. I love heading out to the fields on a Saturday, where all those kids are flying around, dressed in every color. It's like a big May pole with fluttery ribbons of blue, yellow, red, orange, and green. And I am struck, often, with the idea that kids are miracles. They are us, just in smaller form. They are loud, hilarious, irritating, darling, illogical, loving, exasperating, precious messy miracles.

On the fields are children of graduated sizes, from 4-year-olds to 14. The wee little ones follow the ball around like it's a goose and they're its goslings. They run and run, booting the ball out of bounds every whip stitch, trying so hard to get it down the field and through those elusive orange pylons. They don't have much concept of teamwork, eagerly stealing the ball from each other whenever they can, keeping it to themselves as they run toward the goal. Sometimes they are so little that their soccer shirts hang below their knees. And being little, their knees are only a few more inches up from the ground, and their legs are covered completely by the huge socks that, when pulled up, reach their behinds. It's comical, but you don't let them know that. They're fairly serious about the game, although they do know their limits. They will play with enthusiasm and energy for a while, and then they're finished. "I'm tired and I want to go home," my 4-year-old will say suddenly, even though there are 20 minutes left to play. However, the key to rallying the small guys is fairly simple. It's called "snack." Just crack open some juice boxes and popcorn, and they're good to go.

Two of our sons run with the Under-6 crowd while our oldest, Robert, is in with the Under-10 crew. Now, that's much more serious. Unlike the younger ones, the U-10s check for proper equipment, have goalies and refs, play positions, and definitely keep score. The parents are more sedate, too. John and I are used to cheering for all the kids, rallying the team, embarrassing our sons. But the crowd is quieter with the older ones, and we aren't so likely to be giddy cheerleaders, maybe to Rob's relief. I guess we're growing up. Yikes.

During soccer practice, lots of other practices are going on, too. There are football players over here, cheerleaders over there, and the band way down there. The cross country team might run by, keeping pace with the rhythms of the practicing percussion line. They are everywhere, these smaller humans, these little adults who will eventually have cars and checking accounts and jobs; sit at board tables, drink coffee, and make decisions. And if you have one or more of them, and they are involved in something, I highly recommend that you go watch. It won't be long until they are grown. And if we're working or going to meetings or functions all the time, thinking we're doing what's best for them, we should remember that being with them as much as possible is actually the best thing we can do.

It is ephemeral, the phenomenon of childhood. And in the midst of belabored knock-knock jokes, vats of spilled juice, endless piles of laundry, and unreasonable arguments against bathing, we older children are lucky enough to be witnesses to miracles every day.

Meals For Achievement Brings Free Breakfast To Classrooms

The Maryland Meals for Achievement (MMFA), a pilot nutrition program, has been implemented in Garrett County at Friendsville and Kitzmiller elementary schools for the 2000-2001 school year.

The new program covers the cost of providing breakfast in the classroom every morning to every student, regardless of family income. According to the manager of the Garrett County Board of Education food and nutrition services program, Kitzmiller Elementary School served an average of 82 breakfasts on the first four days of school, compared to 47 at this time last year. Friendsville Elementary averaged 169 breakfasts served compared to 41 last year.

Sheila Miller, principal at Kitzmiller, explained how the breakfast in the classroom program works. All the children have placemats that they have made, and fifth graders deliver and help serve the breakfasts to each class. "This helps to give the fifth graders a little extra responsibility," she said.

"It's almost like family sitting down to breakfast," noted Doug Gaither, principal at Friendsville Elementary, adding that he has heard nothing but positive feedback from both students and parents, who are "pleasantly surprised" that the meal is free.

Miller and Gaither both noted positive elements of the breakfast program. They said teachers have noticed that students seem to be more willing to work right up to lunch time and that the "calm" behavior seen at breakfast carries over to the previously "chaotic" lunch period.

Other benefits noted by the MMFA program developers are improvements in test scores and individual academic performance, as well as in attendance. "Attention seems to improve and behavior problems seem to decrease," an MMFA spokesperson reported, adding that surveys also show that with more students eating, more of them seem to feel better throughout the day.

Principals Gaither and Miller agreed that the indications so far are that the program is "quite successful" and the everyone involved is "enjoying" the benefits.

BREAKFAST IS SERVED - Children at Kitzmiller and Friendsville elementary schools are taking part in a new state program, Maryland Meals For Achievement, which provides free breakfasts daily. Children eat in their classroom and fifth graders in both schools help serve the meals. In the photo above, a fifth grader at Friendsville reads to the younger students while they finish their meals. Below, children at Kitzmiller enjoy breakfast served on their personally designed placemats.

Huskies Follow Wolf's Leadership, Rebound For Victory Over Tucker

Northern High School fullback Mark Wolf showed why head coach Phil Carr named him team co-captain as he led the Huskies to a come-from-behind 20-14 victory over visiting Tucker County Friday night. NHS was down by two touchdowns midway through the third quarter before Wolf reeled off three touchdown runs as part of his outstanding 26-carry, 210-yard effort. "Mark got a lot of those yards on his own," Carr commented later.

The senior also played a big part in yet another fine defensive unit effort, as he and fellow linebacker Trey Brenneman tallied five tackles each, just behind teammate Toby Gilpin's game-high seven tackles on the defensive line.

"We've got a winning attitude now," Carr said. "The players from last year are showing a lot of leadership, and helped our younger guys keep their composure and not get down on themselves when we were behind. We're young and we still have a ways to go, but we're getting better all the time."

Tucker scored first in the second quarter when Mountain Lion tight end Adam Wilfong gathered in a one-yard touchdown pass with less than a minute to go in the half. Although the score and ensuing extra point kick put the Huskies down by 7, Northern's defense showed a lot of mettle immediately preceding the TD. Tucker began that scoring series at first and goal from the 4 yard line, and on its first play pushed the ball down inside the 1 yard line. The Huskies' line tossed the Mountain Lions' rushing attempts back on the next two plays, but on fourth down from the 2 yard line quarterback Jake Bava found a wide-open Wilfong in the end zone.

NHS senior Jeremy Frazee, who has make a number of big plays so far this short season, reeled off a 63-yard return on the ensuing kickoff to put the Huskies on the Tucker 28 yard line with 38 seconds to go, but an interception snuffed out Northern's scoring hopes just before the half ended.

"We had a good session in the halftime locker room," Carr said. "We made our adjustments and the guys picked up on what the coaches were trying to tell them right away—that's the advantage of having smart players. Our seniors spoke up too, and that was a big help. This is a really close bunch of young men that know they will win or lose as a team. Even though we were down by a touchdown, we came out for the second half ready to play."

A quick setback could have deflated the Huskies' balloon almost immediately as the third quarter opened. Some Tucker trickery put another score on the board when running back Jared Milliron scampered 55 yards on a reverse on the period's first play from scrimmage, and a successful extra point kick put Northern down 14-0.

The never-say-die 'Dawgs responded as soon as they got the ball back in their hands when Wolf rumbled 45 yards on NHS's first possession to put Northern on the Tucker 20. The Huskies cashed in a few plays later when Wolf plunged into the end zone from one yard out. A missed extra point left the score at 14-6.

Pounding away, the young Husky offensive line ground down the Tucker defense, until midway through the fourth quarter when Wolf found the end zone for the second time from 21 yards out. A botched two-point conversion run attempt still left the Huskies down by 2, but what had been a relatively sedate home crowd began smelling blood in the air and the crescendo from the stands was under way.

With 4:30 left in the contest, NHS lined up for a 37-yard field goal attempt that could put them on top by one point; however, Northern was flagged for a motion penalty, taking them out of range. Frazee then came up with what Carr called "the biggest play of the night" when he ran a 12-yard down-and-in pattern on fourth and 11 to make the crucial catch for the first down.

"That was a great play by both Jeremy and Trey Brenneman, our quarterback. Trey threw the ball with a defender hanging on his leg, and Jeremy had the field sense to put himself just beyond the first down marker on his pass route," said Carr. "He then made a great diving catch, just a fantastic effort."

The catch put the Huskies in the red zone on the 15-yard line. Three plays later Wolf scored his third touchdown on a 9-yard carry with less than four minutes to play, which he followed with a two-point conversion run to bag the 20-14 win.

The Husky defense, which gave up only 152 yards and six first downs on the night, drew Carr's praise as the coach observed that "Tucker's scores were attributable to just a couple of big plays and some pretty gutsy play-calling by their coaches; if it wasn't for those big plays, our defense could have easily had another shutout."

The high-flying Huskies are poised to take on a 1-3 Berkeley Springs squad tonight at home. "The Indians will give us a battle," Carr said. "They match up almost identically with us as far as size and speed, and they have 13 returning seniors who remember our victory over them last year. Coach Angelo Luvara is in his first year there, he's the former head coach at Potomac State College, so you know he has a lot of knowledge he can impart to his players."

The Indians like to throw the ball, as southpaw senior quarterback Mark Rockwell (5-11, 150) often rolls out to his right to throw on the run. Tailback David Brisco (5-8, 165) is a fleet-footed runner who can be sprung for big yardage by offense tackles Daniel Oaks (6-2, 302) and Richard Clingerman (6-0, 250). Oaks and Clingerman help Brian McClintock (5-8, 180), an outstanding middle linebacker, anchor Berkeley Springs' 5-3 defense.

"It will be a tough game, but we like our chances," Carr said. "We're going to have Rob Dozier in the backfield for the first time since his preseason shoulder injury; he and Mark Wolf make a great running combo. Rob's enthusiasm is a great asset too, as he's helped provide a lot of leadership so far this year during practices and from the game sideline with his encouragement. He's definitely a morale booster." Running back Ethan DeVore, who suffered a knee injury in the season opener two weeks ago, will be out for another week as his recovery progresses.

Kickoff time is slated for 7:30 p.m.

DEFENSE, WOLF LEAD HUSKIES — The Northern High School football team got some valuable experience under its belt Friday night when the Huskies rebounded from a 14-point third quarter deficit to take a 20-14 win over visiting Tucker County. Giving up just two scores, the NHS grave-digger defense buried the Mountain Lions by holding their offense to just 69 rushing yards (55 of which came on one TD run) and 83 yards through the air. The swarming blue and gold defenders seemed to be everywhere, as exemplified in the above photo, which shows Northern linebacker Trey Brenneman (#7) making a crushing tackle while Husky defensive ends Josh Swandol (#64) and Malcolm Simmons (#5), free safety Cheston Bachtel (#22), and linebacker Mark Wolf (#32) zoom in for a piece of the action. Wolf led the way on offense for the second straight week as he rolled up 210 yards on just 26 carries for an outstanding 8-yard average. The gritty senior fullback, pictured below rounding the corner for yet another NHS gain with sophomore halfback Aaron Mitchell (#11) following in background, scored all three Husky touchdowns as he helped lead the way back to victory. Head coach Phil Carr's 2-0 squad is slated to host Berkeley Springs (1-3) tomorrow night in a 7:30 p.m. match-up at "Half-Mile High" stadium near Accident.

Both Northern Maddawg Units Win In W.Va.

In a battle of the canines, the Northern Maddawgs swept the Warm Springs Wolves during a pair of youth football league road contests Saturday in West Virginia. The Maddawgs' A&B squad downed the Wolves in a 12-7 dogfight, while the C team took an 18-7 victory.

The A&B Maddawgs hit the ground running early on when running back Josh Duckworth carried the ball in from three yards out in the first quarter to make the score 6-0. Both defenses tightened the screws and the score remained unchanged until the third quarter, when Kyle Meyr took a handoff and plunged two yards to double the Maddawgs' lead. Warm Springs scored its only touchdown of the contest later in the quarter, and also scored on the subsequent conversion run to account for the final 12-7 margin.

The C team's 18-7 victory was paced by quarterback Aaron Lapp, who rushed for two touchdowns. Kameron Kamp, a running back, had a TD carry as well.

The Maddawgs' next outing will take place Saturday at Northern High School when the Cumberland Reds pay a visit. Kickoff time for the C team is slated for 9 a.m., and the A&B meeting will follow that contest.

Rams Stun Applemen, 35-6, In Near Flawless Effort

"Be prepared," the two-word motto of the Boy Scouts of America, seemed to fit perfectly when describing how the Southern High School varsity football team focused on its second opponent of the 2000 campaign, Musselman. The Rams had endured a 33-0 hammering at the hands of Keyser the week prior, and by all accounts, Musselman would pose an even bigger challenge for Coach Fred Gregg and his squad.

However, in front of a stunned crowd of both Ram and Appleman fans last Friday night in Oakland, the Rams methodically dismantled the allegedly superior team to emerge with a convincing 35-6 victory and even their record at 1-1.

The quicker, bigger Applemen, who came into the game ranked 10th among West Virginia's Class AAA teams, had but one first down going into the fourth quarter, and the Rams were so much in synch and played with such focus, they did not have a penalty flag thrown against them until the final period. The Southern defensive unit limited Musselman to 121 total yards, most of which was gained in the fourth quarter, while the Ram offense rolled up 298 yards, all on the ground.

The Rams wasted no time putting points on the board, as they forced the Applemen into a third-and-long situation on their first possession. A long pass was then picked off by Josh Sharon, who returned the ball 57 yards for a touchdown with 9:39 left in the first quarter. Jeremy Hayhurst then booted the first of his five extra points on the evening.

The Rams doubled their points on their next possession, as tailback Steven Skipper capped a drive with a 33-yard touchdown run and Hayhurst kicked the conversion with 6:46 left in the first stanza.

	M	S
1st Downs Rush	6	13
1st Downs Pass	0	0
1st Downs Penalty	0	1
Total 1st Downs	6	14
Passes Attempted	7	0
Passes Completed	1	0
Passes Intercepted	2	0
Yards Passing	4	0
Rushes-Net Yards	27-117	50-298
Punts-Average	3-32	2-37
Fumbles-Lost	1-1	0-0
Penalties-Yards	4-37	1-10
Total Offense	121	298

The second quarter was also dominated by the Rams, who made it 21-0 when senior quarterback Sharon capped a drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge at the 5:17 mark and Hayhurst again hit the conversion kick.

Then with just 36 seconds left in the first half, Skipper crossed the goal line on a three-yard carry and, with Hayhurst's fourth successful PAT, the Rams took a commanding 28-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Southern maintained the momentum in the second half, and put a final touchdown on the board late in the third quarter, with Sharon breaking loose for a 14-yard scoring run. Hayhurst's conversion kick concluded the Rams' scoring for the night and gave them a 35-0 lead.

The Applemen averted a shutout with a one-yard touchdown run by Jason Chambers with 5:41 left in the game. The kick for the extra point was no good.

Skipper led the Ram rushing balanced attack with 100 yards on 18 carries, while Sharon finished with 84 yards on 13 carries. Hayhurst, who is also the starting fullback, picked up 78 bruising yards on 13 carries.

The Ram defense was paced by junior Brad Palmer, who recorded eight tackles, including two sacks. John Hayhurst finished with seven tackles and also forced a fumble, while Sharon and Skipper each had an interception.

"Obviously we were very pleased with our kids' effort," stated Coach Gregg. "It all came down to execution, and it was one of the best efforts I've ever witnessed.

"I think our two quick scores in the first quarter really took the wind out of their sails, and they never recovered," he said.

Gregg cited two specific reasons for his team's success. "First of all, we had tremendous improvement on our offensive line," he said. "Even though we were out-sized in several positions, our technique and enthusiasm allowed us to really control the line. Size wasn't a factor.

"Secondly, our perimeter play by our outside linebackers and our corners, which was so weak in the Keyser game, was also dramatically better," he continued. "We did a much better job of not letting anyone get outside on us, and we defended well against the pass."

Musselman attempted seven passes, but completed only one, and two resulted in interceptions.

Gregg said that his players came out of the contest generally healthy, with no significant injuries. "We've been very fortunate so far in terms of staying healthy," he said. "We don't have much depth, so we can't afford to lose anybody."

The next challenge for the Rams will come this Friday night at Grafton High School against a team that is sporting an unimpressive, but possibly deceiving, 1-3 record.

"The strength of Grafton's schedule is a lot like ours," Gregg said. "We absolutely cannot take them lightly, despite their record. They have their normal array of talent."

A significant piece of that talent is provided by 6-6 senior tackle Travis Garrett, who is being recruited by numerous Division I colleges. "He's an outstanding football player," Gregg said, "definitely Division I material."

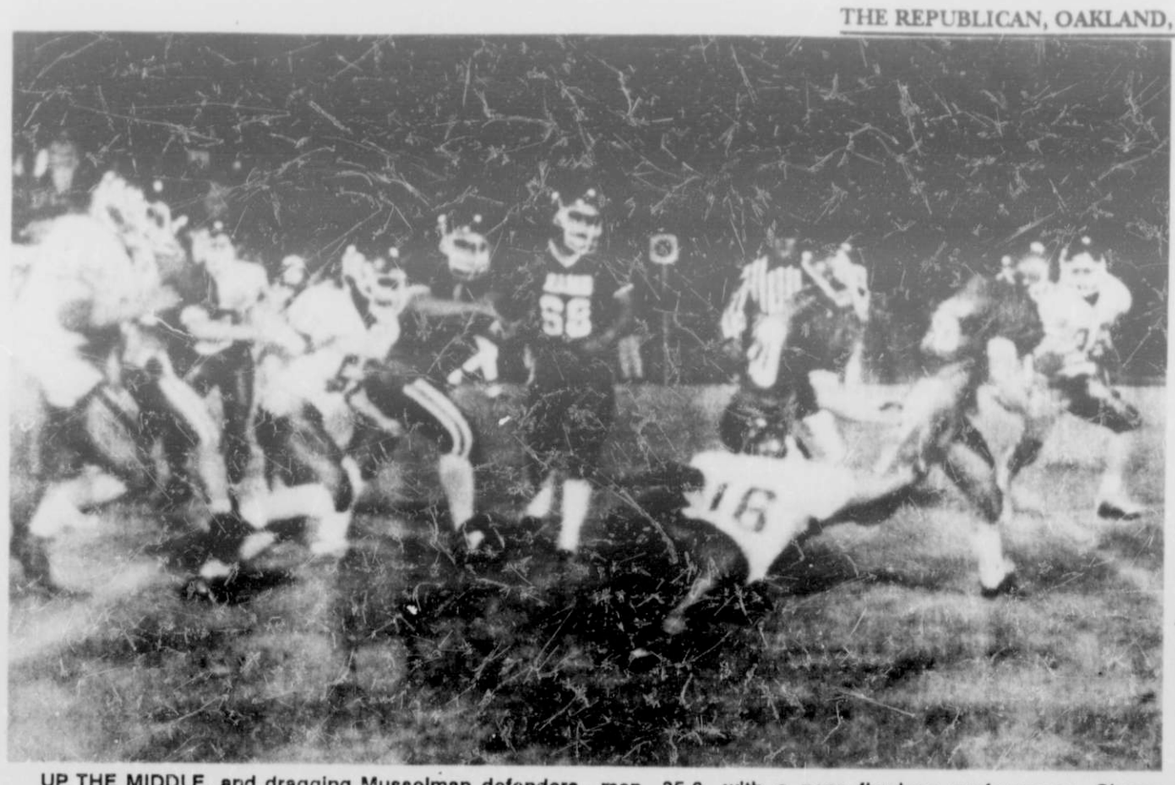
Other outstanding players include sophomore quarterback Josh Trickett (5-8, 145), senior fullback Mike Keener (6-0, 216), and a pair of tailbacks in sophomore Chad Green and senior Dan Meshaw.

"Their quarterback runs the option very well," Gregg said. "Keener is a powerful runner who will give us fits if we don't stop him at the line. And their tailbacks are real threats on the perimeter, much like (Gerald) Mayhew of Keyser."

Defensively, Grafton uses a 5-2 monster formation. "They have excellent team speed, which is really their forte," Gregg said. "They run to the ball very well, they are fundamentally sound, and always well coached. It's also a tough place to play.

"Our challenge this week is to try to duplicate last week's effort," he said. "We want to be just as good on the road as we are at home. If the kids play like they did against Musselman, we should be successful."

Friday's kickoff at Grafton is set for 7:30 p.m.



UP THE MIDDLE, and dragging Musselman defenders along the way, was Southern High School's senior quarterback Josh Sharon (right) on his way for a touchdown against the Applemen in the Rams' home opener last Friday evening. To the shock of both Musselman and Southern fans, the Rams manhandled the heavily favored Applemen, 35-6, with a near flawless performance. Sharon rushed for 84 yards and scored three touchdowns, one of which was recorded on a 57-yard interception return. The win evened their record at 1-1, and they will go after their second victory this Friday at Grafton.

NHS Girls Blanked By BW, Rams, Then Defeat Allegany

The girls' varsity soccer team of Northern High School played three matches this past week, of which they lost two and won one. The Huskies were blanked by powerful Bishop Walsh, 4-0, on Friday in the City/Garrett County Classic, hosted by the Spartans.

Northern then dropped a Western Maryland Interscholastic League match to county rival Southern, 2-0, in the same tournament on Saturday (see other story), and rebounded Tuesday night at home with a 2-1 WMIL victory over Allegany. The results left the Huskies with a 3-3 record.

Karen Knight accounted for two goals and an assist for the BW Spartans in last Friday's match. Her first goal came at the 18:46 mark of the first half off an assist by Shera Rowan to give the Spartans a 1-0 lead after over 20 minutes of scoreless play.

Rachel Carpenter doubled BW's total 77 seconds later when she scored off a feed by Knight.

Rowan put an unassisted shot into the goal at the 9:31 mark to give the Spartans a 3-0 halftime lead.

Knight added an insurance goal, unassisted, six minutes into the second half, which concluded the scoring for the afternoon.

The Huskies were outgunned in shots on goal by a 25-16 margin and in corner kicks, 6-1. It was the fourth straight shutout for the Spartans after a season-opener loss.

Ashley Warnick was credited with nine saves in goal for Northern, while Amoroso had 12 for the Spartans.

The Huskies never trailed in Tuesday's win over Allegany; however, it was a goal by 1999 WMIL Offensive Player of Year Brooke Butler with 18:13 left in the contest that ultimately gave her team the 2-1 victory.

Emily Rawe put the Huskies up 1-0 when she scored off an assist by Lyndsi Butler with 12:24 left in the first half.

The Campers rallied for a goal with 18:44 left when Koosie Boggs connected off an assist by Bethany Heavner, but the score was knotted at 1-1 for only 31 seconds, as Brooke Butler hit the match winner.

The Huskies led in shots on goal by a 12-5 margin, and also finished with a 3-2 edge in corner kicks. Warnick had three saves in goal for Northern, and TeAndra Smith recorded nine for the Campers, who dropped to 1-3 overall.

The Huskies will get another crack at Southern this evening at the Cove, and then be off until Oct. 5 when they will host Fort Hill.

Southern Girls To Sentinels, Huskies In WMIL Action

A pair of Western Maryland Interscholastic League victories this past week upped the Southern High School girls' varsity record to 4-1 (4-0, WMIL), as the young, but talented, Ram squad blanked Fort Hill for the second time this season last Friday afternoon, 2-0, in the City/Garrett County Classic Tournament at Bishop Walsh, and then recorded a 2-0 win over cross-county rival Northern on Saturday in the same tourney.

The Rams, who had whipped Fort Hill the previous week, 6-0, at Greenway Avenue Stadium in Cumberland, continue to get outstanding play by a host of freshmen, as Casey Taylor scored three of the team's four goals in the two victories.

It was Kristen Oxford who struck first against Fort Hill, however, as she put a ball past Fort Hill keeper Becky Beeman in the first half of action to put the Rams on top 1-0 at halftime.

Taylor then hit an unassisted goal in the second half to conclude the scoring.

The Rams dominated play throughout, finishing with a lopsided 40-2 advantage in shots on goal and a 6-1 lead in corner kicks. Beeman was credited with 38 saves for the Sentinels, and Becky Martin had two for the Rams.

Taylor had a goal in each half against the host Northern Huskies Tuesday night, the first of which was scored just 45 seconds into the match off an assist by Brittany Naylor. Her second came at the 30:32 mark of the second half off a feed by Charlena Reeves.

Again, the Rams dominated play, as they outgunned the Huskies in shots on goal by a 25-4 margin and held a 9-1 advantage in corner kicks.

Randi Beiler finished with 20 saves in goal for Northern, and Martin finished with nine for Southern. Martin has allowed a total of only three goals in five matches, and the win over Northern was the Rams' third shutout.

The Huskies came into the match following a 4-0 loss to Bishop Walsh the previous day in the same tournament, and then went on to defeat Allegany, 2-1, on Tuesday (see other story for details).

Coach Ron Petrella's team, which has yet to play at home this season, was to have played at Beall Tuesday night, but that match was postponed until next month because of a soggy field. They will play at Northern this evening and then be off until Oct. 3 when they are scheduled to travel to Keyser.

Husky Booters Tie With Sentinels, Blank Wildcats

The boys' varsity soccer team of Northern High School remains unbeaten on the season in Western Maryland Interscholastic League play; however, they had to settle for a 1-1 tie with host Fort Hill in a WMIL clash last Wednesday night at Greenway Avenue Stadium. Coach Tom Ables and his team returned to the win column Tuesday evening at home by blanking Westmar, 4-0, in another WMIL match. The results left the Huskies with a 2-1-1 overall record and a 2-0-1 mark in the league.

Jason Fickes put the Huskies on top 1-0 with a goal at the 14:46 mark of the first half off an assist by Eric Durst. The Sentinels tied it up about 6½ minutes later when Matt Dicks got one past Northern keeper Jimmy Kenner off a feed by Daniel Wood.

Those were to be the only scores for the rest of regulation, as well as through two 10-minute overtime periods, as both teams played outstanding defense. Fort Hill finished with a 28-19 advantage in shots on goal, while the Huskies recorded a 9-2 lead in corner kicks.

Kenner was credited with 21 saves for Northern, and Jake Sullivan turned away 14 shots for the Sentinels, whose record was evened at 1-0-1

Mike Fletcher hit the first one off an assist by Ron Lipscomb at the 26:34 mark of the first half. Some 13 minutes later, Lipscomb took a feed from Eric Durst and put the ball past Westmar's Brandon Kimble to give the Huskies a 2-0 lead.

Shane Mayle then struck paydirt for the Huskies just over a minute later, unassisted, to put Northern on top 3-0 at halftime.

Adding an insurance goal midway through the mostly defensive second half was Northern's Andy Fike off an assist by Durst.

The Huskies led in shots, 31-12, and in corner kicks, 5-0. Kenner finished with 13 saves, while Kimble turned away 25 shots by the Huskies. The loss dropped Westmar to 2-3 overall and 0-2 in the WMIL.

The Huskies are scheduled to host Salisbury this evening in a 7:30 p.m. match. They will travel to Westmar next Tuesday and visit Petersburg next Thursday.

Runnin' Rams Host Two Meets; Girls Place Second And First

The cross country teams of Southern High School competed in a pair of home meets this past week on their Broadford Park course. Both the girls' and boys' teams were edged by Fort Hill on Saturday, the girls falling by a single point, 29-28, and the boys being topped 22-35. The Southern girls then dominated a tri-meet with Allegany and Westmar on Tuesday, while the boys placed second.

Fort Hill's Stephanie Fleming won the girls' race on Saturday in a time of 21:26, followed by Southern's Melissa Durst in 22:06 and Natalie Domenick in 23:13. Placing fourth through sixth were Sentinels Kaljilin Bensley, Liz Tichnell, and Kate Zajdel, followed by Southern's Amber Stewart, Stephanie DiSimone, Emily Cosner, and Erin Lucas.

Four Fort Hill runners crossed the finish line before six Runnin' Rams completed the course, with Lucas Fleming and Justin Faith placing one/two with times of 17:58 and 17:59. Placing third and fourth were Sean Castillo and Robert Wilson, followed by Southern's Matt Frederick, Tony Cerrito, Steve Eiswert, Tom Crozier, Coy Ware, and Jared Fike.

Against Allegany and Westmar on Tuesday, the Southern girls captured five of the first six places to finish with 18 team points, while Allegany recorded 53 and Westmar was third with 63.

Durst, who placed third in the state championships last year as a freshman, paced the field with a finishing time of 21:42. Domenick was second in 21:56, followed by Allegany's Andrea Kelly (23:39), and Southern's Cosner, Stewart, and DiSimone.

In the boys' race, Westmar dominated with 17 points (just one more than the best possible score of 16), while Southern was second with 46 and Allegany placed third with 74.

Sid Bittinger of Westmar was the fastest runner of the day, completing the course in 17:11. He was followed by teammates Tyler Bennett (18:03) and Ricky Cook (18:22), and Southern's Frederick was fourth in 18:53. The next three finishers were Westmar's David Cavey, Andrew Nicol, and T.K. Fiester.

The Rams, coached by Louis Newcomb (girls) and Carl Booth (boys), will compete again this Saturday in the Uniontown Invitational.

GCC NETTERS START OFF STRONG — The 2000 Garrett Community College volleyball team has jumped out to a 4-1 start so far in this young season, cashing in on the experience of seven returning sophomores and the enthusiasm of five new freshman faces. The upperclassmen are kneeling in the front row, as from the left are Melissa McKeever, Tameka Graves, co-captains Crystal Kimble and Jessica Saturday, Alison Rose, Mia Leone, and Morgan White. In the back row are assistant coach Stacy Sines, freshmen Shannon Robinson, Lauren Stillwagon, Keri Niner, Mimi Harvey, and Erica Wilt, and head coach Margaret Quinn, who brings a 75 percent career winning percentage into her 15th year at the Lakers' helm.

HUSTLING NHS NETTERS SPLIT SWEEPS — It was an up-and-down week for the Northern High School girls' volleyball team, as the Huskies' 3-0 sweep of host Preston County last night came on the heels of a 3-0 loss at the hands of Westmar Monday night. Pictured above in the match with the Wildcats is NHS's Jolene Brenneman (#6), who went to the floor to make a fine save. Her teammates readying to capitalize on the effort are, from left, Malia Collins (#22), Christie Flockhart (#3), Amanda Frantz (#20), and Bridget Frazee (#21). The 2-3 Huskies travel to Cumberland Monday to take on winless Bishop Walsh.

Lakers' Winning Ways Continue Through Week Of 2-1 Action

Experience Paying Off Early In 2000 Campaign

Garrett Community College's volleyball program is riding a big upswing as the 2000 Lakers have jumped out to a 4-1 overall record, a strong turnaround from last season's 0-6 start which that squad never seemed to fully recover from. GCC's winning ways continued this week as the Lakers defeated Penn State-Fayette 3-1 on Friday and trounced Beaver County (Pa.) Saturday in a 3-0 sweep, before dropping its first match last night at Hagerstown in three straight sets.

It was a hard-fought match Friday in Uniontown as the Lakers battled to a 16-14 win in the opening game, lost by a 15-8 margin in the second, then held on in the next two gut-checks by scores of 15-13 in each.

It was the kind of match-up that was so close that one of the combatants needed picture-perfect performances to claim victory, and the Lakers got just that. Freshman Mimi Harvey, a former multi-letter athlete for the Northern Huskies, led the way by going 28-for-28 on service points and contributing four aces. Fellow NHS alumna Melissa McKeever and Circleville (W.Va.) High graduate Crystal Kimble, both sophomores, went 13-for-13 from the service line. McKeever notched a pair of aces, and Kimble had one ace and a 28-for-37 tally in sets along with eight assists. Freshman Lauren Stillwagon, an Allegany High product, went 16-for-17 on service points and 40-for-57 on sets, with 19 assists.

Tameka Graves, a sophomore from Anne Arundel County, led the Laker defense with 13 kills, while mounting a 25-for-28 performance on the attack. Former Southern High player Jessica Saturday, a freshman, went 17-for-20 on attacks and added 10 kills. Keri Niner, another first-year Laker who used to wear SHS's red and white, went 8-for-10 on service points and 24-for-25 on attacks, with one ace and six kills.

Garrett took a sweeping victory in Saturday's match, downing visiting Beaver County in three straight, 15-9, 15-12, and 15-11. Kimble was 17-for-19 from the service line with four aces, five assists, and a 22-for-28 setting tally. Stillwagon was 19-for-21 in serves with four aces of her own. Saturday had three kills and three blocks while going 15-for-17 on the attack, while Graves was 14-for-16 on attacks and had a team-high six kills.

The Lakers got their first taste of defeat last night in Hagerstown, dropping a sweep by scores of 15-5, 15-8, and 15-3. Harvey and Saturday were both perfect from the serving line, with respective 9-for-9 and 8-for-8 performances. Saturday was also 13-for-17 on attacks, finishing with three kills. Graves went 12-for-15 on the attack, and led Garrett with four kills. Kimble and Stillwagon each contributed three assists.

The Lakers' early success can be attributed to the experience of seven returning players and the enthusiasm of five new additions, making for a unit that has meshed quite well so far. After being forged in a trial by fire during last season's 6-21 campaign, this year's sophomores, along with the new talent (much of it homegrown), have a chance to make head coach Margaret Quinn's 15th season at the helm one to remember. "We look for the experience and maturity of our returning players to provide the concentration and unity for the program's success, and the addition of five talented freshmen will add to the total team concept," Quinn commented shortly before the season began.

The returning Lakers are: Graves, Southern High (Anne Arundel Co.) alumna and Deale native; McKeever, NHS alumna and Friendsville native; Saturday, SHS alumna and Oakland native; Crystal Kimble, Circleville High alumna and Seneca Rocks, W.Va., native; Mia Leone, Hampshire High alumna and Romney, W.Va., native; and Morgan White and Alison Rose, both Preston High alumnae and Kingwood, W.Va., natives.

Joining the unit as freshmen this season are: Harvey, NHS alumna and Friendsville native; Erica Wilt, Southern alumna and Swanton native; Niner, SHS alumna and Oakland native; Stillwagon, Alco alumna and Cumberland native; and Shannon Robinson, Hampshire alumna and Capon Bridge, W.Va. native.

The Lakers line up across the net with Graves, Leone, Niner, Rose, and Saturday, hitters who are relying on sets provided by McKeever, Kimble, Harvey, Wilt, Stillwagon, and Robinson. White is tagged as a defensive specialist.

Quinn knows how to shape a winning unit, hav-

NHS fell by game scores of 15-11, 15-3, and 15-9 to the Wildcats in Accident Monday. Malia Collins led the Huskies with seven points, two kills, and two aces, while teammate Bridget Frazee added seven points. Lisa Fazenbaker led Westmar with four points and nine assists.

Northern's junior varsity trounced the Westmar jayvees by scores of 15-6, 15-0. Kristen Hoffman led the way with 11 points, and Molly Wolf and Jodi Fratz each had five points.

Last night in Kingwood the Huskies triumphed convincingly in straight sets, 15-3, 15-6, and 15-12. Karla Buckel paced NHS with 11 service points, and Jolene Brenneman scored seven points and added three aces. Preston's statistics were not available.

NHS Golfers Take WMIL Again; Southern Duffers Finish Second

Northern High School's golf team won the WMIL championship for the third consecutive year this week as team co-captains Greg Speicher and A.J. Thomas led the Huskies to a 336 score at the Oakland Golf Club Monday. Southern took the runner-up honors by carding a 351, Westmar shot a 383, Fort Hill 385, Beall 424, and Allegany almost finished in a different time zone with a 451 over the 18-hole course.

Speicher maintained a par score over the front nine before carding 3-over on the back nine to top all individual golfers. Thomas clinched second place with an 82, but it took a PGA card-off with SHS's Justin DiSimone to clinch the slot. NHS's Kenny Wampler shot an 88.

The Rams were led by DiSimone's 82, while teammates Nathan Swartzentruber shot an 85 and Jordan Swerbinsky carded a 90. Westmar's Ryan Bateson led all other participating squads with a 92.

Garrett County's duffers earned a total of six spots on the All-WMIL team: Speicher, Thomas, and Wampler represent Northern, while DiSimone, Swartzentruber, and Swerbinsky were selected from Southern.

In other high school golf action this week, NHS placed a close second to Keyser in a quadrangular yesterday afternoon at the Wisp. The Golden Tornado unit tallied a 175, the Huskies shot a 178, Allegany placed third with a 224, and Union rounded out the field with a 178.

Thomas and Mark Bergstrom both shot 44s for Northern, four strokes behind low medalist Brad Yutzy of Keyser.

Southern's only other outing of the week came last Thursday as the Rams capitalized on a 42 by Travis Friend to triumph in a home-course triad. SHS finished at 173, Union scored 206, and Moorefield brought up the rear at 208. Travis took low medalist honors on the day.

The Rams are slated to host Bishop Walsh, Alco, and Preston today, before visiting Fort Hill on Monday to take on the Sentinels. The Western Maryland Regional Tournament follows on Tuesday, and both Southern and Northern (in its only appearance of the coming week) are slated to participate. The Regionals will be played on the Blackrock Country Club course.

Hunter Safety Class Offered At Herrington Manor

Herrington Manor State Park will offer a free hunter safety class next week. The course will take place from 6 to 10 p.m. each evening on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, Sept. 25, 27, and 29.

The course is open to all persons and is required for first-time hunters. It is recognized across the nation for hunters who intend to travel to another state to hunt.

Registration is required and may be made by calling the park at 301-334-9180. Early registration is encouraged, as class size is limited.

ing directed the Lakers to a pair of Region XX second-place finishes in 1995 and 1997, which bookended 1996's third-place squad. Under her steady but intense courtside demeanor, Garrett has amassed 11 winning seasons and a 257-192 record. Joining the skipper on the bench again this year is assistant coach Stacy Sines, a graduate of Southern High who still holds the school record for kills. Sines also played college volleyball for Garrett and Alderson Broaddus College in Philippi, W.Va.

"All the players have a very positive attitude and are continuing to work hard to improve their skills and cohesiveness," Quinn said of the 2000 edition of the Lakers. "We are looking forward to a successful season with a fine group of student athletes."

The coming weeks will see the Lakers put a number of miles on the GCC van, as they don't play at home until the first week of October. Garrett visits Frederick tomorrow, and on Saturday travels to Howard for a triangular that includes Charles. On Tuesday the Lakers travel to Cumberland to take on their arch-rival Allegany Trojans as part of a triangular that will also involve Mt. Alto.

Area Athletes Making Impact At Frostburg

Several local athletes, products of both Northern and Southern high schools, are performing well for the Frostburg State University Bobcats during this fall's collegiate sports season.

The FSU women's tennis team took a 5-2 win at Waynesburg College (Pa.) Friday with the help of a 2-1 victory by NHS alumna Kathy Arnold of Grantsville. Seeded at no. 3 in singles competition on the day, the Bobcat sophomore outplayed her Waynesburg opponent with set scores of 6-0, 2-6, and 6-4. Former Husky Dana Braskey, a freshman from Grantsville, took the first set of her fifth-seed match by a 6-5 score before the match was called on account of darkness.

The second-seed doubles combo of Arnold and junior Laura Efird of Waldorf defeated their Waynesburg counterparts by an 8-6 margin.

The following afternoon the FSU women's tennis squad traveled to Erie, Pa., to take part in the Penn State—Behrend Invitational Tournament. The Bobcats' stumbled in a 5-0 opening loss to Allegheny College (Pa.), a match that featured a hotly contested 8-5 match that Allegheny's third seed barely took from Arnold.

FSU later rebounded that day by downing Alfred University (N.Y.), a 4-1 triumph that featured an 8-2 thumping of Alfred's duo by the Braskey and Efird doubles combo. The pair combined for another impressive win against Bethany College (W.Va.) by throttling their opponents with an 8-3 rout.

A former Runnin' Ram did a fine job for the Bobcat women's cross country team during the Davis & Elkins College (W.Va.) Invitational Meet Saturday in Elkins. Freshman Elizabeth Sauder, an Oakland native, placed 26th in a large field with a time of 23:57. The FSU runners are slated to compete in the New York University Invitational, set for this Saturday at Van Cortlandt Park in the Big Apple.

AREA ARCHERS TAKE TO WOODS IN PURSUIT OF WHITETAIL DEER

Archery season has been in now for about a week, and local activity has been high. Local sporting goods retailers have noticed a big jump in sales activity, with a number of hunters being new to the archery game.

Dan Milavec of D&B Sports said that traffic in his store on the eve of opening day rivaled that of regular rifle season. Weather has been good for the most part. Many of the successful hunters have found their game either early in the morning or late in the day.

Hunters tagging deer in the first week included Gary Whitacre, who got a 4-point buck near Friendsville last Saturday, and Craig Collins, who got a doe near Eagle Rock on opening day. Robert Autry of Baltimore also got a buck near Eagle Rock. Tom Hayhurst got a buck near south of Oakland toward Red House.

Bow hunters took 16,214 white-tailed deer and 158 sika deer during the 1999-2000 archery season. The top 10 counties for total 1999-2000 bow harvest were: Garrett (1,672), Frederick (1,427), Allegany (1,424), Washington (1,395), Baltimore (1,356), Montgomery (990), Harford (967), Carroll (935), Howard (692), and Kent (680).

With a few exceptions, Maryland's deer bow season is closed during the firearm and muzzleloader seasons, but bow hunters are reminded that a bow may be used for hunting deer during these seasons, in accordance with firearm and muzzleloader season regulations. Exceptions to this rule include that the bow season remains open concurrent with the youth only firearm season on Nov. 11, and on Oct. 27-28, concurrent with the early muzzleloader season in Deer Management Region C and D only. During these periods when the deer bow season remains open concurrent with other deer seasons, any deer taken with a bow must be checked against the hunters regional bow bag limit.

Congratulations are in order for Bill Evans of Kitzmiller who was successful on a combined elk hunt and trout fishing trip to Colorado. Using a muzzleloader, Bill filled his cow elk tag and followed that up with a trophy 20-inch brook trout.

FALL CAN BE FISHING TIME AT ITS BEST

Fall brings some of the year's best fishing for both river and lake anglers. Recent rains have, at times, pushed stream levels up and made fly-fishing a bit more difficult. River anglers should keep in mind that we have very good tail race fisheries here on both the Savage and North Branch. When rains force streams up because of runoff, knowing anglers concentrate their fishing to those sections of the rivers close to the dams. Here flow is affected by discharge from the dam rather than runoff. Consequently, levels are generally predictable and discharges are published.

Fishing on Deep Creek has been quite productive, with nice catches of northerns, chain pickerel, and panfish.

TURKEY HUNTERS LOOKING FORWARD TO OCTOBER 28

Maryland's fall turkey season opens on October 28, and local hunters are optimistic about the coming season. Good-sized flocks have been observed all over the county.

EARLY CAMPGROUND CLOSINGS

Western Regional State Forest and Park Service manager Chris Anderson today announced new closing dates for state park campgrounds in Frederick, Washington, Allegany, and Garrett counties. In some cases, campgrounds will close earlier, and visitors are encouraged to use alternative camping locations.

Campers are still welcome to use primitive areas during the off-season. One impact of the closure is that Swallow Falls and Rocky Gap state parks will be closed to campers in western Maryland during deer firearms season. One camping loop at Rocky Gap will remain open through the off season for self-contained units only.

Lake Park, was second at the checkered flag. David Defibaugh was third after breaking down in his heat and coming from the rear of the pack. Rounding out the top five were Vic Vandergrift and Jerry Haseleu. Heats were picked up by Parrish and Louie Krushansky.

Back To School Can Mean Head Lice For Kids

Now that children are back in school, parents may see them scratching their heads a lot. It might not be because the homework is too hard, it might be head lice, the Garrett County Health Department warned in a statement this week.

Head lice infest about 10 million people worldwide every year, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The tiny blood-sucking insects live mainly on the head of their human hosts. The adult insects are about the size of sesame seeds, and can be seen with the naked eye. Lice eggs, or nits, look like tiny white, yellow or tan ovals attached at the base of a hair shaft.

Anyone can get head lice, but children are more prone to them because of close physical contact with other children through sports and play. "It's a popular misconception that only 'dirty' people get head lice, but nothing could be further from the truth. The parasitic insects aren't picky about whose heads they inhabit," said Dr. William Pope, Garrett County's deputy health officer.

Lice are usually spread through direct head-to-head contact, although sharing personal items like hats, brushes, combs, and barrettes can play a role, especially from child to child. It's not unusual for schools or day care centers to have outbreaks of lice," Pope noted.

The key to controlling the spread of head lice, according to Pope, is to quickly identify all of the infected children and remove both lice and nits as soon as possible.

There are both over-the-counter and prescription medications designed to kill head lice. Dr. Pope suggested that a person seek the advice of a doctor or pharmacist before attempting treatment, especially on children because medicated shampoos, rinses, and lotions for treating head lice are powerful insecticides that may be toxic if not used as recommended.

Some health professionals suggest avoiding chemical methods to kill lice, and using instead a simpler safer treatment, hand combing. Lice and their eggs (nits) may be removed using a special, fine-toothed comb to pull them out of the hair. A new comb called the "LiceMeister" is available over the counter. Even pet flea combs can be effective, health professionals point out.

When treating infested family members, it is important to make sure the family home is free of lice. Here are some steps to take to avoid re-infestation:

- Wash all bedding, hats, clothing and stuffed animals in water hot enough to kill any living lice. Dry all laundry using the high heat setting for at least 20 minutes.
- Dry clean any clothing or bedding items that are not washable.
- Soak combs, brushes, and hair accessories in alcohol or disinfectant, or boil them.
- Vacuum the floors and furniture.
- Hiring a pest control service or "bombing" the home with insecticides is not recommended.

For more information about treating head lice, persons may call the health department at 301-334-8111 or 301-895-3111.

Osteoporosis Reported Threat To Health Of Over 28 Million

Osteoporosis, a bone disease, is characterized by low bone mass and deterioration of bone tissue. This leads to increased bone fragility and risk of fractures. Referred to by some in the medical community as "the silent thief," osteoporosis may deplete bone tissue without any noticeable symptoms.

Hip, spine (vertebral), and wrist fractures are noted in medical journals as the most common fractures associated with the disease. "Individuals may not know they have osteoporosis until their bones are so weak that a strain, bump, or fall causes vertebrae to collapse or a fracture to occur," The Jacobs Institute of Women's Health reported recently.

According to medical statistics, though postmenopausal Caucasian women are at highest risk for osteoporosis, many other people also develop the disease, including men. Some of the risk factors for osteoporosis are described in a Jacobs Institute report as "non-modifiable," meaning they cannot be reduced through changes in behavior. These include age, race, and sex.

Potentially modifiable risk factors for osteoporosis have also been identified by medical professionals. Some of these include estrogen deficiency, impaired eyesight, low calcium intake, low body weight, cigarette smoking, and excessive alcohol intake.

Medical professionals agree that osteoporosis is both identifiable and treatable. For further information on this disease, its detection and its treatment, persons may contact the Garrett County Health Department at 301-334-8111 or 301-895-3111.

Breast Cancer Support Group Notes Meeting

A new breast cancer support group is organizing to provide support for those individuals in the tri-state area touched by breast cancer. The group coordinators will provide information, invite professional guest speakers, and teach methods of early detection.

"Most important of all, the group will provide emotional support for anyone who has concerns about breast cancer," a spokesperson said.

The support group will meet for the first time on Wednesday, Sept. 27, at 7 p.m. at the Community Services Building, located next to Garrett Memorial Hospital, Oakland. Everyone is invited to attend.

Double Trouble In Recovery Set At Right Step

Double Trouble in Recovery, a support group for men and women who have been dually diagnosed with substance addictions as well as with a mental illness, has formed a local chapter in Garrett County. DTR has been organized at Right Step, the Oakland-based drop-in center for people with mental illness.

The DTR group will meet weekly, on Saturdays, 1-2 p.m. at Right Step, which is located at 426 Weber Road in Midway Plaza.

Modeled closely on the 12-step recovery program of Alcoholics Anonymous, and with permission from that organization, DTR modified the 12 steps to reflect the needs of the dually diagnosed.

DTR meetings were organized to provide the opportunity for individuals to work together with "open-minded understanding and honesty," according to a spokesperson for the program.

Anyone interested in participating in the DTR group may contact Brent at 301-334-4630 or 877-694-8345.

Tips for Packing a Safe School Lunch

School lunches should be nutritious, delicious, and safe. To prevent the growth of bacteria responsible for foodborne illnesses, the two best precautions are cleanliness and proper refrigeration.

Cleanliness begins with clean hands, clean surfaces, and clean utensils. Everything that touches the food should be clean, emphasizes the Soap and Detergent Association. The reusable containers that travel back and forth to school should be thoroughly washed each evening using hot soapy water and rinsed well, also with hot water. Raw fruits and vegetables are a healthy addition to any lunch and should be thoroughly rinsed under running water or washed with a fruit and vegetable wash.

Proper refrigeration is essential. An insulated lunch box or sack and a freezer gel pack are wise investments. If you use a brown bag make sure it is packed with a freezer gel pack or similar cold source. These packs will keep food cold until lunchtime but are not recommended for all-day storage, even in an insulated lunchbox. Food not eaten at lunch should be discarded.

Double-bagging the lunch will help control leakage as food thaws and will also insulate the lunch better. For an additional cold source place a single-sized juice box in the freezer overnight. In the morning pack it with the lunch. If sandwiches are prepared the night before they should be kept in the refrigerator (or in the freezer if it won't hurt the filling) until packing in the morning.

Teach children to take an active part in keeping their lunch safe. Remind them to use the refrigerator at school if one is available. If not, make sure they keep their lunch out of direct sunlight and away from radiators, baseboards, and other heat sources. This is important even if the lunch is in an insulated container. Explain the importance of washing hands before eating lunch.

Additional information on packing safe school lunches is available via a toll-free meat and poultry hotline, sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food and Safety and Inspection Service. The hotline phone number is 1-800-535-4555 or 1-800-256-7072 (TDD/TTY). The hotline is open all year, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

SAVING GRACE

Rated R - Running Time: 1:34 - Released 9/1/00

Another clever British comedy to quietly work its way into American theatres when we need it the most, Saving Grace features a funny story, good performances, and directing designed to evoke real people, not Hollowwood stereotypes. Two-time Oscar nominee and Golden Globe winner Brenda Blethyn (Secrets & Lies, Little Voice), under the direction of film freshman Nigel Cole, delivers a charming portrayal of a bereaved woman forced to take drastic measures to pay off her late husband's staggering debts.

In a typically wacky British script written by Mark Crowdy and Blethyn's Scottish co-star Craig Ferguson, Grace Trevethyn's husband doesn't just die of natural causes. He jumps out of an airplane without a parachute. Although Grace (Blethyn) has no idea what would drive him to such a desperate act, she soon discovers the bad news: his entire fortune, including the large, lovely house she lives in, is currently in hock with an outstanding debt of 300,000 pounds. With no work experience and no skills except her incredible knack at gardening, Grace has no idea how to deal with the mounting bills and her imminent eviction, but when her young friend Matthew (Ferguson) asks her to help him save his ailing marijuana plants, she gets an idea. Soon she and Matthew have a greenhouse full of thriving dope, and he plans a trip to London to find a buyer.

Most everyone in the small town is aware of the plan, especially the town's weed-loving doctor (Martin Clunes, Shakespeare in Love), except for one person: Matthew's girlfriend Nicky (Valerie Edmond). Having just discovered she's expecting Matthew's child, Nicky has no desire to see him behind bars when the child is born. So Grace, who is completely inexperienced in the world of drug trafficking, must make the London trip herself. Soon she is standing on a streetcorner in Piccadilly Circus, offering a fattie to anyone with dredlocks or spiked hair.

Despite its drug-related content, Saving Grace is a wonderfully funny comedy revisiting the popular British theme of drastic measures taken in times of financial desperation (see The Full Monty and Waking Ned Devine for other examples). Besides the main plot revolving around Grace and Matthew's pot factory, there are several subplots, such as the hilarious sidebar involving some of Grace's very proper lady friends who stumble upon the stuff, mistaking it for tea, the more serious thread about Nicky and Matthew and their approaching familyhood, and Grace's chance meeting with her dead husband's extramarital lover. All the performances are truly full of heart and warmth, shining the ever-so-subtle light of reality into some hilariously silly situations. Blethyn is a gem in a multi-faceted role, and Ferguson, Edmond, and Clunes put forth engaging performances as well. Using the beautiful scenery of the British Isles as a backdrop, first-time director Cole presents a thoroughly enjoyable debut. My only criticism is that the plants look patently artificial, like plastic or flocked paper. But maybe that was just Cole's way of avoiding criminal investigation. Authenticity is fine, but even a good director doesn't want to spend 10 years in the pokey for the sake of art.

Although some particulary conservative viewers may disapprove of its seemingly permissive attitude toward the use of marijuana, Saving Grace is definitely worth a look at a time when there's very little else in theatres worth looking at. ★★★★½

BAIT

Rated R - Running Time: 1:59 - Released 9/15/00

Jamie Foxx is one of the growing number of black comedians who have launched a career fom the highly successful In Living Color television variety show created in 1990 by Keenen Ivory Wayans et al. Foxx is a talented comedian with an excellent sense of timing, but his latest venture is a film suffering from a number of maladies. Directed by Antoine Fuqua, written by Andrew and Adam Scheinman and Tony Gilroy, Bait is an overwrought, overlong action comedy with a conflict of styles and a lack of likable characters.

Featuring Foxx as Alvin Sanders, a petty criminal who somehow serves 18 months in jail for stealing shrimp, the premise of Bait is that Alvin will be used as an unwitting spy by the FBI in order to catch a criminal genius who killed two guards at the treasury department while stealing $40 million in gold bars. Since the killer's accomplice (Robert Pastorelli) dies before he can reveal where he hid the loot, the unnamed baddie (Doug Hutchison, The Green Mile) must attempt to get the information from Alvin, who was the doomed man's cellmate. The FBI agent (David Morse) expects this, so a listening device is implanted in Alvin's jaw to track the killer if he takes the bait. Get it?

The problem with Bait is that it's hard to get behind any of these characters. I guess the main protagonist is supposed to be Alvin, but Foxx plays him as such a dimwitted, dishonest schmuck, especially in the scenes with his extra-loopy brother Stevie (Mike Epps), that you just can't help rooting for him to go down. Hutchison is so busy doing a John Malkovich impersonation as the killer, he's got me wishing for Malkovich. Meanwhile, Morse plays the FBI guy like some kind of irate action hero whose tights are riding up, and his script doesn't help him any. "Welcome aboard," he says. "As of this moment, you no longer exist." Ack.

And that brings us to the conflict of styles. Director Fuqua, whose only previous project to date has been The Replacement Killers (1998), a plotless shoot-em-up in the Hong Kong mold, has trouble deciding whether he wants an action comedy or a straight cop shootout thriller. He directs Foxx and Epps to ham it up like a couple of homeboys in a ghetto comedy, but everything else in the film is deadpan serious — dark, even, with Morse alienating us more in each passing scene. Add to this the unlikely premise of the high-tech tracking device being implanted in Alvin's jaw (without his knowing it, of course) and the excessive length (2 hours is too long for a comedy or a cop thriller), and you've got yourself a regular squirm fest. I kept hoping this was going to be the scene where they wrap it up, but then another action sequence would start, punctuated by Morse's angry scenery chewing or some idiotic schtick by Foxx. Now I know how Dr. Zhivago felt when he was looking for Lara. Somewhere, my love, there will be the end credits. ★½

Jen Chapin To Perform At FSU

Frostburg State University's Center Stage will present Jen Chapin, playing her own, unique "urban folk" music Friday, Sept. 29, at 8 p.m. in the Lane Center Appalachian Station. The program is free and open to the public.

Chapin's earthy sound has been called "urban folk" by critics, an acknowledgment of both her father Harry Chapin's fertile folk-rock legacy and of her own background. She studied jazz at the Berklee College of Music and also taught the history of black music at a Brooklyn high school. "She writes songs of searching for solitude, of loss, and of loves, both pure and bittersweet," stated one critic.

For more information, persons may contact the Lane Center Information Desk, 301-687-4151.

Ice's Taxidermy

Although Ice's Taxidermy has only been in operation for a year, Wesley Massey has been doing taxidermy work for himself and family members for the last 10 years.

Wes and his wife Yolanda opened Ice's Taxidermy in their home at 1822 Oakland Sang Run Road near Oakland after Wes graduated from the Missoula Valley School of Taxidermy in 1998.

Available at Ice's is taxidermy of all fish, fur-bearing animals, and feathered birds. Samples can be seen in Massey's showroom, and at the Deep Creek Lake Discovery Center. These samples include coyote, bear, blue heron, and turkey.

Next Thurs., Sept. 28, between 6 and 9 p.m., Wes will be available for questions and have samples of his work on display at Southern States Oakland Co-op for its Outdoorsmen's Night Out.

Wes said he tans all hides before mounting, does custom bases and scenery, and has a much quicker turnaround time than the average taxidermist, with top quality work using the latest techniques.

Ice's Taxidermy can be reached by calling 301-387-0173.

Pittsnogle To Be Ordained During Sunday Service

Patricia Annette Triplett Tharp Pittsnogle, Grantsville and formerly Winchester, Va., will be ordained to the Ministry of Word and Sacrament in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America on Sunday, Sept. 24. The Service of Holy Communion and Ordination will take place at Moorefield Presbyterian Church, South Main Street, Moorefield, W.Va., at 5 p.m.

Friends and family are invited to attend the service and to "fish for people" by bringing an offering of canned tuna to benefit the Moorefield Active Caring (M.A.C.) Food Bank. The regular offering that evening will benefit the scholarship fund, Women of the ELCA, West Virginia/Western Maryland Synod.

Pittsnogle serves as pastor of the Bittinger Lutheran Parish located south of Grantsville. She is married to L. Keith Pittsnogle, formerly of Martinsburg, W.Va., and is the daughter of William F. and the late Joann S. Triplett of Winchester.

Bittinger's New Lutheran Church To Be Dedicated

The congregation of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, located at 22 Maynardier Ridge Road, Bittinger, will dedicate its new church sanctuary on Saturday, Sept. 30, at 3 p.m. The service of holy communion will include the installation of newly ordained minister Patricia Pittsnogle as the full-time pastor of the Bittinger Lutheran Parish.

Bishop Ralph Dunkin, head of the West Virginia-Western Maryland Synod, will preside at the service. Special music will be provided by the choir, under the direction of Sheila Southerly, director and organist, and Lana Roby will be a featured soloist. Former Emmanuel pastors will serve as lectors and communion assistants during the service.

The service of dedication marks the culmination of a 9-year plan to construct a new church building at Bittinger. Planning began in 1991 for phase I of the project, which involved the construction of an education building. In April 1999, ground was broken for the new church sanctuary which adjoins the education building.

At the end of May 1999, help arrived when the Mission Builders of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) came to Bittinger. These volunteers assisted members of Emmanuel and other local volunteers in constructing the new building. The cornerstone from the original church structure was opened on August 22, 1999, and the new church steeple was set and lighted on October 30 of that same year. Finally, in December 1999, a large stained glass window for the front of the church arrived. The setting of the new cor-nerstone occurred on June 4 of this year, and on Aug-ust 27, final services were conducted in the 126-year-old structure that had served Emmanuel since 1874.

Invitations to the dedication service have been mailed to former pastors of the Bittinger Lutheran Parish, the Mission Builders, and others who assisted in the construction of the new church. However, the congregation welcomes all members of the public to attend this service of celebration as Emmanuel moves to a new house of worship and welcomes a new pastor.

Fellowship and refreshments will follow the service at the Bittinger fire hall.

GCC CAREER SERVICES OFFICE OPENS — A new Career Services office has opened at Garrett Community College to assist students as they explore their career options. The bulletin board outside the office, which is located in the GCC Student Center, bears the message "It's a jungle out there! Prepare now with Career Services." Posted beneath that heading are notices of jobs throughout the region. Pictured are the Career Services staff; seated in the foreground are Wade White and Amanda Freeland, and standing at her desk is Stacie Upole, coordinator of Career Services.

Career Services Office Opens At Garrett CC

A new Career Services office has opened in the Student Center of Garrett Community College. The office's mission is to assist students as they choose appropriate careers and provide work opportunities during their college experience.

"Our office is all about helping students to develop clear career objectives and to acquire the necessary skills so that they can conduct a successful job search," explained Career Services coordinator Stacie Upole. "We are pleased that so many students are now coming in to use our service, and we hope that more will take advantage of what we have to offer so that they are ready for the challenge of finding employment successfully upon completion of their education."

One of the services available to GCC students and alumni is the Ten Step Career Plan—Sculpting Your Career, a software program that helps students identify interests and abilities that correspond to an appropriate career and specific jobs. The entire process takes about 1½ hours.

The Career Services office also provides workshops throughout each semester. This fall's offerings include: "Resume Writing and Cover Letter Magic," 4 p.m. Monday, Oct. 2; "Top 9½ Career Skills," 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18; "How to Interview for Success," noon Thursday, Nov. 9; and "How to Make Your Employment Rewarding," 4 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 29.

Upole speaks to various classes and teaches a class in career planning. She also helps students research job opportunities in their fields, as well as internship and volunteer opportunities through the Internet and other career resources. Her office maintains a credential file service and a career resource library.

The office also administers the student labor program at the college. This includes the Earn and Learn Program for out-ofstate students, the college's Work Study Program, Institutional Labor for Garrett County residents, and the Child Care Assistance for Willy Wisp Day Care. Through these programs GCC students earn money to defray tuition costs while they gain work experience. When possible, students are placed in jobs related to their chosen career.

For further information about the GCC Career Services office and its offerings, interested persons may call Upole at 301-387-3132.

We pass scenes like this one often. The powerful equipment is able to move massive amounts of earth, so that soon the original area is unrecognizable. Though massive rocks and tangled roots are abundant, though it seems almost impossible, they are easily moved. A vast new area is cleared and leveled. Finally, it is ready for the foundation which will support a sturdy structure built to stand far into the future.

To develop a sturdy spiritual foundation for our future, we must rely upon the power of God to wipe out the obstructing roots and stumbling-blocks of our past in order that our future life be spiritually founded on His Word.

A Worship with God each week. Discover His power to help you to begin a new life built upon the foundation of love and hope for the future. Nothing is impossible to God.

POTENCY IS AN IMPORTANT QUALITY

No medicine can be really effective in curing an illness, if it has, by the time it reaches your home, lost its potency. Just as certain foods can deteriorate if not kept properly, so can medicines.

Some drugs must be refrigerated to retain their powers - such as insulin, certain eye drops and many types of vitamins. With other medicines exposure to light is the culprit and special containers must be used to keep light out. Every manufacturer of drugs supplies us with detailed instructions on how best to preserve the potency of their products, and we carefully follow their directions.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

ANSWERING GOD'S PRAYERS

September 24, 2000

Background Scripture:
1 Samuel 3; 7:3-14.
Devotional Reading:
Luke 12.35-40.

No, that is not a misprint in the title. I realize that we never think of God 'praying,' especially to us!; but if prayer is really two-way communication, in a sense is God not praying when he calls to us, just as we are praying when we call to him? Might not God call us as much as we call upon him?

A little boy sent to the store to buy milk, lost the money his mother had given him to pay for it. As the boy sobbed, the town atheist gloated: "If God loved you, wouldn't he send someone to help you?" "He did," the little boy replied, "but they didn't listen to him!" When God seems to permit some tragic evil, the problem may not be that God doesn't send someone to prevent or correct it, but that he does and we do not respond?

Whether you think of God's calls to us as prayers, the result is the same—all too often we fail to respond because we don't expect to hear from him. We may assume that communication with God is essentially one-way: us to him. We may also believe that God calls some people, but not 'ordinary people' like us. Then, too, we may be so self-centered that we do not ever concern ourselves with what God needs of us.

No Frequent Vision

We see this in the story of Samuel, the young apprentice prophet serving Eli, the judge and priest of Israel. It is a story about spiritual darkness. 1 Samuel tells us that "the word of the Lord was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision" (3:1). Because of Eli's spiritual decline, the people of Israel were not enlightened. Symbolic of this spiritual darkness was Eli, "whose eyesight had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see..." .

Yet, despite Eli's spiritual and physical dimness of vision, as well

Don't fall for bogus Gibson Internet yarn

By Taylor Michaels

Mel Gibson

Q: A friend recently forwarded to me a bizarre story about Mel Gibson that is making the rounds on the Internet. It supposedly was reported by Paul Harvey and says, among other things, that Gibson once was beaten so badly in a fight that he had to have extensive reconstructive surgery, an incident that inspired his movie The Man Without a Face. This is completely bogus, right? –Hank S., Charlotte, N.C.

A: This ridiculous hoax, falsely attributed to Harvey, includes an alleged chronicle of Gibson's early years that is almost entirely false.

In fact, there is barely a glimmer of truth anywhere in this maudlin Internet story. Gibson did, in fact, get into a barroom brawl years ago on the night before his audition for Mad Max, but his routine cuts and bruises not only did not require extensive surgery, they also didn't even prevent him from successfully auditioning as scheduled.

As was widely reported at the time of its 1993 release, The Man Without a Face is based on a 1972 novel of the same name by Isabelle Holland.

You can read a detailed dissection of the multiple falsehoods in this Internet report at www.urbanlegends.com.

Q: How many TV series has Robert Urich been in? –Scott B., Colorado Springs, Colo.

A: Urich has starred in Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice, S.W.A.T., Tabitha, Soap, Vega$, Gavilan, Spenser: For Hire, American Dreamer, Crossroads, It Had to Be You, Lazarus Man and Love Boat: The Next Wave. He also has hosted Boatworks and Vital Signs and lent his voice to the animated series Invasion America.

Q: A few weeks ago, TV Land had a memorial tribute to Meredith MacRae of Petticoat Junction. When and how did she die, and what did she do after Petticoat Junction? –Ellen Hilton, Marseilles, Ill.

A: MacRae, 56, died July 14 of complications from brain cancer. After Petticoat was canceled in 1970, MacRae appeared in TV movies and episodic television until the late 1980s. After that, she worked on two local Los Angeles TV shows: Mid-Morning L.A., which earned her two Emmys, and Born Famous, in which she interviewed children of celebrities.

Q: I once read that Sarah Jessica Parker is the daughter of an actress named Diane. Who is she? –P. Sebesta, Fairbanks, Alaska.

A: Parker's mother, Barbara, is not an actress.

Q: Is it true that actress Phyllis Thaxter is the mother of Blythe Danner and thus, the grandmother of Gwyneth Paltrow? –N.M., Columbus, Ohio.

A: No. Thaxter, 78, is the mother of actress Skye Aubrey, not Danner.

TRIVIA

The five rings on the Olympic flag represent the continents of Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, and North and South America.

The Olympic marathon was exactly 26 miles until the 1908 London Games; when 385 yards were added to give the royal family a better view.

Because of the Australian quarantine laws, it was necessary to hold the 1956 equestrian events in Stockholm, Sweden, in June.

In 1992, Germany was once again represented by a single Olympic team because of the reunification of East and West Germany in 1990.

The U.S. won the most medals in the 1996 Atlanta Games. Forty-four gold, 32 silver and 25 bronze medals were garnered for a total of 101.

Efforts Of Park Volunteers Help GC Treasures Thrive Into 21st Century

This Saturday marks the beginning of Maryland's State Parks Week, which will continue through next Saturday, Sept. 30. The focus of this year's observance is a salute to the dedicated volunteers who donate time, energy, and financial resources in helping preserve, maintain, and interpret the natural gifts under the stewardship of the Department of Natural Resources for our benefit today as well as for generations yet to come. As a case in point, Grantsville resident Bill Martin, volunteer coordinator for the Friends of New Germany, was asked to contribute a history of that organization and its efforts, which are representative of volunteer groups at other state parks in Garrett County and across Maryland.

by Bill Martin

The Friends of New Germany recently completed their tenth year of service at New Germany State Park. Formed in 1991, this group of volunteers provides support to New Germany State Park and services and programs for visitors. New Germany was one of five state parks closed in 1991 due to budget problems. A group interested in reopening the park petitioned then-Governor Schaefer to permit them to conduct business as usual. With his permission, the volunteers re-opened the park, and also maintained Big Run and Casselman Bridge state parks.

The volunteers came from a variety of backgrounds and included students, doctors, lawyers, housewives, blue-collar workers, and CEOs, ranging in age from 3 to 80. Some volunteers worked 40-50 hours each week. Others could work only an hour or two, but with their combined efforts the work was done and the parks operated efficiently. Some classified personnel came back on their off-duty time and assisted the volunteers with various problems.

The volunteers were responsible for taking cabin and campsite reservations; cleaning cabins, campsites, and toilets; mowing grass and maintaining all park buildings; and providing normal services to park visitors. Classified park personnel were transferred to other facilities in Garrett County. Approximately 60 volunteers were involved in actual maintenance of the three parks. The volunteers had to rely on donations from individuals and organizations to keep the parks operating, and still depend on that source for income. They received no funding from the state, and still do not receive any funding to this day.

The Forest and Park Service took over operations of the three parks from the volunteers on June 18, 1991. During the 3½ months the volunteers were operating the parks, a total of 1,278 hours of volunteer service were accumulated. Donations from the public exceeded $1,500. Hundreds of visitors to the park were provided with the usual services, and many of them were surprised to discover that volunteers were doing all the work and activities with no pay.

With the return of the facilities to state control, the volunteers decided to stay active and support the personnel at New Germany by performing programs and activities that could not be funded by the state. A board of officers was elected. There is a co-coordinator, secretary, treasurer, and an executive committee.

The volunteers continue to provide a multitude of services to the public. In mid-April they sponsor a general park cleanup event with the assistance of local Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and individuals do this. Mid-May, the annual open house is held at the lakehouse, which features displays of safety and law enforcement equipment, rental cabin tours, and door prizes and refreshments.

The New Germany Fishing Rodeo, open to any youth under the age of 15, takes place in mid-June. All participants receive a prize, and refreshments are served. At Christmas time the volunteers, in conjunction with the Grantsville Rotary Club, donate money toward purchasing clothing and toys for local children in need. A volunteer awards ceremony and dinner takes place during the holiday season, at which the volunteer of the year is honored.

Donations are also used toward park beautification and safety programs. The volunteers have used funds to plant flowers in the park. They recently donated $3,200 for the purchase of vinyl siding and a roof extension for one of the oldest buildings in the park. They have also purchased a scanner and antenna for rangers' use, plus a color printer for the office staff, and they continue to procure supplies for the nature center come from donations to the volunteers.

New Germany State Park has a Camp Host program, another volunteer service which offers selected persons free camping in return for a few hours of work per day. The camp hosts greet visiting campers, assist in site location and camp setup, and provide information regarding local services such as grocery stores, service stations, and laundromats. Camp hosts also clean campsites and keep watch over the shower house and bathrooms.

During the winter months volunteers serve as cross-country ski hosts, assisting skiers on the trails and providing information about other park activities. They also provide the staff at New Germany with snow conditions, trail conditions and any unsafe conditions on the trails. During the summer months a variety of programs are conducted at the nature center. These programs are mostly done by volunteers, who are usually local citizens who are interested in imparting their knowledge to visitors to the park. The program topics have included presentations regarding birds, bats, bees, the stars, flowers, mushrooms, reptiles, painting, and various musical programs.

Local students have the opportunity to acquire service learning hours, required for high school graduation, through a program the volunteers offer in conjunction with the Garrett County Board of Education.

In addition to monetary donations made by park visitors, financial support is also provided by a number of local organizations—the town of Grantsville, the Rotary Club, the Grantsville Lions Club, Grantsville Foodland, Grantsville American Legion Post #214, and the Salisbury, Pa., American Legion Post. Substantial donations are also received each year from a Baltimore-area contractor.

Since 1991, a total of 40,925 hours of volunteer service have been donated to New Germany State Park. The year 2000 will produce another 6,500 hours of volunteer service, with 285 volunteers participating. We thank each volunteer for his or her contributions to the park, and always welcome new volunteers. No special qualifications are required, just a desire to help visitors enjoy the park. Volunteer meetings are held several times during the year and are advertised in local media. After 5 hours of volunteer service at New Germany each volunteer receives a cap, a nametag, and a T-shirt.

The Friends of New Germany encourage local residents and guests to visit a local state park and take part in the many activities that are available. You don't know what you might be missing.

Current Friends of New Germany volunteer coordinator Bill Martin is a charter member of the organization. A retired Air Force sergeant who has been doing volunteer work of some sort since 1955, he says that he receives great satisfaction from volunteer service—especially at New Germany State Park, where he grew up in the 1930s-40s. Bill's father, Matthew E. Martin Sr., was the first superintendent of Savage River State Forest. The younger Martin has written several articles about life in the New Germany area during the Depression years.

SOME OF THE FRIENDS OF NEW GERMANY, a large group of volunteers who provide a wide array of programs and services at New Germany State Park, are shown here. Teri and Tom Mooney, above, are southern Maryland residents who have served as camp hosts for five years. Other longtime volunteers, not shown, are the Brockey family of Cumberland, camp hosts for four years, and Jim and Jeri Minogue, proprietors of BJ's General Store along Savage River Road, who also provide volunteer service to campers, hunters, and fishermen. The volunteer coordinator of the Friends of New Germany is Bill Martin, below, who authored this article.

The Mrs. Maryland International Pageant celebrates the accomplishments of married women through marriage, career, family, and community service. Applicants must be between ages 21 and 56, married at least a year by August 2001, and a resident of Maryland for at least six months. 43rd Annual Springs Folk Festival Set

As fall approaches, plans are being finalized for the 43rd annual Springs Folk Festival to be held in nearby Springs, Pa., on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6-7. Once again the festival organizers have invited residents from surrounding areas as well as visitors to "participate in the celebration of the arts, skills and labors of our forefathers."

Over 140 craftsmen will be on hand to recreate past times and offer handcrafted gift items for sale. The home-arts and skills of farmers, blacksmiths, and others will provide a "learning opportunity" for both children and adults. In addition to the glimpses provided of life skills required in past generations, there will be entertainment for all people of all ages.

Hayrides will carry children and adults around the festival grounds. Visitors will also be invited to "relax" in the program building or stroll along the woods trail to be entertained by continual musical performances of stringed instruments and the a capella voices of local Mennonites.

A history pageant will be presented on Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday afternoon, depicting life in the area in the 1800s and early 1900s.

"The food alone is worth the visit. There will be Pennsylvania Dutch sausage meals, funnel cakes, bean soup, homemade bread baked in an outdoor kiln and fresh churned butter, homemade doughnuts, and items too numerous to mention," said event coordinator Harriet Berg.

The price for the event is $5 for adults, $2 for ages 6-18, and under 6 free. The hours of the festival are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6 and 7. Springs is located along Route 669 (Springs Rd.) between Salisbury, Pa., and Grantsville, in southern Somerset County, Pa. For more information persons call 814-662-4158 or 814-662-2625.

Ornithological Society Offering Workshop Grants

Applications are being accepted from teachers, park rangers, camp counselors, and other adults who work with youth to compete for summer ecology or ornithology scholarships offered by the Maryland Ornithological Society (MOS). The grants cover the cost of tuition, room, and board for a week of study at one of the National Audubon Society residential workshops located in Maine, Connecticut, or Wyoming.

"The MOS program is aimed at our most valuable resources—youth and nature," said MOS president Karen Morley. "If you work with youth in a nature education program, you will not want to miss out on this opportunity to learn more about ecology, conservation, and natural history through field study and instruction."

Up to 10 ecology and ornithology scholarships are expected to be awarded in 2001, and applications are now being accepted and must be submitted by Jan. 31, 2001. Among other application criteria, each candidate must provide a written statement about how the MOS camp experience will help them develop in young people an appreciation of our wild heritage and a sense of responsibility for the care and quality of our natural resources.

Described as the premier ornithological organization in Maryland, MOS has sent a number of youth leaders from across the state to these workshops over the last several years. One past recipient from Frostburg commented, "We got the latest on some bird population trends and Internet sites, and received guidance on what we could do in our communities to help foster interest in and preserve wildlife."

Persons interested in complete application instructions may contact Jean L. Fry, MOS Scholarship Committee Chairman, 1202 Ridge Road, Pylesville, MD 21132-1407. Fry can also be reached by phone at 410-452-8539 or via e-mail at jlfry@netfox.net.

Antiques by Ralph and Terry Kovel

Card playing was an important activity in the 18th century. There was no radio or television and few books, so games of all types were popular. Card games were part of the social scene where mixed groups of men and women met.

Women could compete with men on an equal basis. Young men could meet women card players without the usual supervision by parents. The games also appealed to those who liked to gamble and drink. Card games were played at special gaming or card tables. When the table was closed, it looked like half of a card table with a fold-over top. When it was open, it was the size of today's card table.

There were many styles: shaped or rectangular tops, fluted legs, plain legs, and legs with inlay or carved decorations. The card table was a practical piece of furniture. It was kept closed near a wall of a room and pulled out and opened when needed. Many old examples still survive and are popular with decorators and collectors.

AFTERMATH: RECOVERING FROM A FIRE

Q. I've got tons of information on how to prevent a fire in my home, but almost nothing on what to do if a fire does happen. Since I live in an area prone to brush fires (some of my neighbors' homes were damaged a couple of years ago), what do I do if it happens to me? — Jim L., Palm Bay, Fla.

A. ServiceMaster, a national restoration and cleaning company, offers several tips for homeowners who are facing the massive repairs resulting from a fire:

Once you've made sure the power to the house is off, go in (preferably with an insurance adjuster) and note the extent of damage.

First, what NOT to do: Don't walk into any rooms that have standing water in them, unless you are sure all power to the house has been turned off. Don't turn on any electric appliances, even if they seem all right — smoke damage can cause them to malfunction, so have a repairman check them. Don't lift tacked-down carpets; they shrink as they dry, and lifting them improperly could increase the amount of shrinkage. Don't try to wash the interior walls; you could make them look worse by smearing soot into the paint or wallpaper.

Next, contact emergency carpet care, home repair and restoration professionals, making sure that all of them specialize in fire recovery. And make sure they start working within 24 hours of the fire; that first day is crucial when it comes to saving carpets, walls, furniture and clothing.

Cover carpeted traffic areas with towels or old linens to keep soot from being ground in. Remove furniture, small appliances, books, clothing, plants and area rugs from the house. Send your smoke-infused clothing to a restoration cleaner — not a dry cleaner, who may not clean them properly. Prop up couch cushions so that they dry evenly, and open up damp books, flipping through the pages occasionally so that they dry. Wipe smoke and soot from the leaves of your houseplants, and change the air conditioning filter.

Depending on the extent of the damage, and the speed at which your insurance company works, repairs can take weeks or months to complete. For now, review your policy regularly. And if the worst does happen, stick to the tips above. Minimizing further damage will help repair crews restore your home a bit faster.

Pet Care
by Peter Edwards

The same research is being done with our pets, although on a much smaller and less-financed basis. For example, many of us have suspected that our pet cats — genetically speaking — have probably not changed too much from the African wildcat from which they are descended. So far, genetic and behavioral research would show that to be true. While they may have changed their appearance to some degree, they still retain their basic feral qualities. Indeed, cats that have not been acclimated to human beings while they're still kittens will never completely adapt to the demands of "pethood."

Dogs, on the other hand, show a far different genetic/behavioral picture. Dogs had a distinct genetic parting from wolves about 135,000 years ago. Since then, they have followed human beings into every place people have gone and have lived under every condition that has marked human history. Unlike Fluffy who remains very much the cat of her ancestry, Fido has become more closely involved with his human companions than his vulpine forebears. The dog, in short, reflects who we are and how we shape our cultures. He herds animals, guards children, guides the blind, and is very much the creature a writer once described as "the better part of our human selves."

At the James A. Baker Institute for Animal Health at Cornell University in New York, the work being done to map the dog's genetic makeup will not only show how dogs have evolved, but — as with the mapping of the human genome — will provide answers to how we can prevent, treat and/or cure canine health problems — many of which, not surprisingly, can be found in human beings as well.

Workshops Set To Discuss Plans For National Road

The Maryland Department of Planning (MDP) has joined with the Maryland Department of Transportation's State Highway Administration (SHA), the Maryland Office of Tourism Development, and the Maryland Historical Trust to hold public workshops to solicit ideas from community members for developing and enhancing Maryland's historic National Road (U.S. Rt. 40).

The ideas generated, according to the MDP, will help create an improved National Road to attract visitors and increase tourism along this corridor, which runs from Baltimore west to the state line along Alternate U.S. 40 and MD 144. The workshops will also focus on developing ideas on how to preserve the abundant historic, scenic, and natural resources found along the route.

One of the workshops will be held on September 28 at the Holiday Inn in Cumberland, 100 South George Street, from 7 to 9 p.m.

These workshops are part of the sponsoring agencies' ongoing efforts to develop a "Corridor Partnership Plan" for the National Road in Maryland. The plan is part of a six-state initiative to gain "All-American Road" designation for the National Road through the Federal Highway Administration's (FHWA) Scenic Byway Program. Funding comes from this program.

"The National Road project seeks to achieve many of the goals of Maryland's Smart Growth Program, which include spurring economic development and revitalizing existing communities while preserving the state's natural resources," said Harriet Tregoning, secretary of the Maryland Department of Planning. "MDP is working with other state agencies and local community leaders to gain "All-American Road" status, a designation that will mean increased federal dollars to enhance the quality of life of towns along the National Road. This project is a good example of how Smart Growth can work in Maryland."

The four agencies have been working with a newly formed Citizen Advisory Group to develop the Corridor Partnership Plan. The purpose of the plan is not to implement more regulations. Instead, the group is looking for ideas about how to develop and enhance the route to attract visitors and increase tourism; preserve the historic, scenic, and natural resources along the route; celebrate the heritage of the corridor and tell its stories; and maintain the quality of life found along the National Road in Maryland.

"The National Road, the first federally funded road in the United States, is of great historical significance to the state of Maryland. This route provided first Native Americans, then American settlers and travelers with a western path through the Appalachians to Illinois for centuries," said Parker F. Williams, SHA administrator. "As we look to increase the national recognition of this road, citizens have a critically important opportunity to ensure that future plans address all issues of concern in maintaining the cultural and historic significance of this route."

The National Road traces its history back to around 1806 when Congress authorized a road to run west from Cumberland. The historic National Road runs from Baltimore through the Appalachians and on to Vandalia, Ill.

The MDP has hired a multi-disciplinary team of landscape architects, community planners, engineers, and historians, headed by Lardner/Klein Landscape Architects, P.C., to assist in the development of the Corridor Partnership Plan. Over the next 16 months, the four agencies, the citizen advisory group, and their consultants will formulate a vision, goals, and objectives for the plan; identify important features and opportunities found along the National Road; develop strategies to preserve and enhance the important features and to help determine how best to take advantage of the opportunities; make recommendations regarding how the plan will be implemented; and make recommendations on whether or not to pursue designation as an All-American Road.

The September public workshop will include a discussion of the scope of the project, a slide show focusing on the issues and preliminary goals identified with the help of the advisory group, and a "brainstorming" session to identify additional issues and ideas for conserving and enhancing the National Road. A second public workshop is planned for early 2001 to make sure that the plan adequately addresses issues and concerns.

The Citizen Advisory Group includes representatives appointed by the counties of Garrett, Allegany, Washington, Frederick, Howard, Carroll, and Baltimore, plus Baltimore City. In addition, the advisory group includes a number of people throughout the corridor who bring special expertise and resources to the planning effort.

For more information, citizens may log onto www.mdp.state.md.us, and click on "National Road Corridor Partnership Plan." Or citizens may call the Maryland Department of Planning at 410-767-4432.

BBBS Starting School-Based Mentoring Prog.

Through a partnership between Garrett County schools and the Big Brothers Big Sisters program, mentors are being sought to visit with children for one hour each week to provide extra attention and help with homework.

According to JoAnn Fletcher, Garrett County BBBS coordinator, the school-based mentoring program is part of a nationwide mobilization to put caring mentors in the lives of more children in need. Traditionally, BBBS agencies have provided only community-based mentoring, she said, but are now moving into the schools to reach more children.

"Both types of mentoring focus on developing strong, professionally supported relationships, and both have been scientifically proven to have a powerful and lasting impact on children," Fletcher said.

According to results of a major study, 64% of students involved with this program developed more positive attitudes toward school; 58% achieved higher grades in social studies, languages, and math; 60% improved relationships with adults; 56% improved relationships with peers; 55% were better able to express their feelings; and 62% were more likely to trust their teachers. In addition, 77% of teachers, parents, and volunteers involved in the pilot programs reported increases in the students' self-confidence. The students were also less likely than their peers to repeat a grade, and their average number of unexcused absences decreased.

In explaining how the school-based mentoring program works, Fletcher said that, during their weekly visit, the child and his/her BBBS mentor take time to play educational games, engage in recreational activities, or read a book together.

"Big Brother Big Sister mentors can come from all walks of life in our community," she said, "and can include high school or college students, senior citizens, and employees who visit on their lunch hour, anyone who wants to be a good role model for young children."

She said that each mentor will receive training from BBBS staff and will agree to meet with the child at his/her school on a consistent, regular basis during the school year. Dennett Road Elementary School has been chosen as the pilot school for the program, with hopes of expanding it to other local elementary schools in the future.

A $10,000 grant from Big Brothers Big Sisters of America was given to BBBS of the Alleghenies (of which the Garrett County branch is a part) as a start-up and to partially fund this new program. The grant money will be split among its three county branches — Garrett, Allegany, and Mineral — and must be matched by the local branches through additional grants, fundraising, community donations, or corporate sponsorships. BBBS is affiliated with County United Way and can be designated as the agency receiving employees' withheld donations by participating employers. Direct contributions may also be sent to Big Brothers Big Sisters, 105 S. Second Street, #8, Oakland, MD 21550.

Persons interested in learning more about how to become a BBBS mentor may telephone the office at 301-334-3591 or 1-800-400-0735.

Local Residents In New Bachelor Degree Program

Two area residents will soon receive a bachelor's degree through a new program offered on the Garrett Community College campus. Zanea Mullenax, Swanton, and Reba Denise Gerard, Oakland, are the first two area students to participate in a program offered by Bowie State University through a partnership with Garrett Community College.

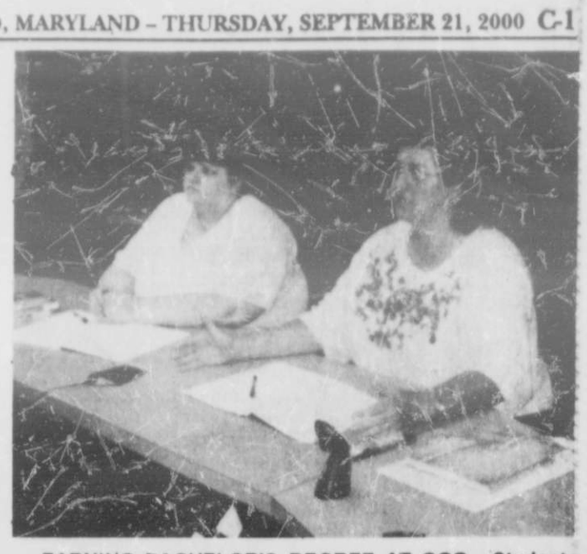
The new program offers a bachelor of science degree in technology with a concentration in business, and is intended to prepare students for career advancement in various fields. Students must have an associate's degree to enter the program. Students may transfer a maximum of 60 credits, including technical courses earned as part of the associate's degree. The remaining 60 credits are taken through Bowie State University using a compressed video network classroom on the Garrett Community College campus.

The program is designed to meet the needs of those who work full-time and want to continue their education without leaving western Maryland. Bobbi Dubins, the western Maryland program coordinator, said that all classes are scheduled at night or on the weekends. Most courses are offered in an eight-week format instead of the traditional 16 weeks, permitting a student to concentrate on fewer courses at one time, she noted.

This schedule also enables students to complete the program in two years, if they so choose.

Gerard, whose A.A. degree is in business and medical assisting, and Mullenax, whose A.A. degree is in legal and medical secretarial, have both nearly completed the requirements to earn the bachelor's degree, and plan to graduate in the spring of 2001.

Persons interested in more information about the Bowie State University program offered in western Maryland may contact Dubins at 301-784-2008 or 301-784-5340. The program is offered in both Garrett and Allegany counties.



EARNING BACHELOR'S DEGREE AT GCC - Students Reba Denise Gerard, left, and Zanea Mullenax will soon complete work for bachelor degrees from Bowie State University. Today's technology permits these women to pursue their studies at Garrett Community College.

The study, a beginning of a nine-session Bible study of Acts, "The Promise Is For You," was written by Donna Kamprath, a parish pastor and theologian serving in the Oregon Synod of the ELCA. The first lesson, "Celebrate The Spirit," was led by Leota Baker and emphasized the Pentecost experience of the disciples, and presented a challenge to break barriers to proclaim the gospel.

Devotions opened with a prayer in English and also in Spanish, and closed with singing the hymn "Come, Gracious Spirit, Heavenly Dove."

A letter of thanks was received from Lutheran World Relief upon receipt of a shipment of clothing recently sent by Zion's unit.

Oak. Southern States Schedules Annual Meeting

"Seventy-seven years ago, farmers organized Virginia Seed Service, which later became Southern States Cooperative, to serve their basic agricultural production needs. Through the years, the cooperative has been innovative in providing new products and services to help farmers improve their livelihood," said Carroll Gilbert, cooperative director of member relations.

"Growing Solutions Since 1923," the current local annual membership meeting's theme, reflects the regional co-op's "continuing dedication to improve farm inputs and services," added Gilbert.

Election of local board members and Farm Home Advisory Committee members are important features of the annual membership meeting for Southern States Oakland Cooperative.

Board nominees are William Grose, Ronald Harvey, Terry Hauser, Herbert H. Myers, Abner C. Swartzentruber and Michael Steyer.

The FHAC slate consists of Lois Strawser.

Nominees for delegates to the 2001 District E election meeting are W. Brooks Hamilton and Ray Miller.

A slide/tape presentation "Positioning in the 21st Century," featuring senior management will discuss the co-op's progress and dynamics.

Local operating statements and services provided to the agricultural community will be discussed, with retiring FHAC and board members being recognized.

The meeting is scheduled for 8:00 p.m. Tues., Sept. 26, at the Pleasant Valley Community Center, Joni Miller Road, Oakland.

Southern States—founded in 1923—is a farmer-owned cooperative operating in 16 states stretching from Michigan to Florida and west to Louisiana. The Richmond, Va., based firm is one of the largest U.S. farmer cooperatives, manufacturing, purchasing, or processing feed, seed, fertilizer and fuel. It also sells farm, animal health, lawn, home and garden supplies through 751 local dealers in its operating territory.

In addition, Southern States gins cotton and markets livestock, small grains, corn, peanuts and soybeans. In its fiscal year ended June 30, 1999, Southern States membership totaled about 321,000 and had sales of $1.3 billion.

Farming, Second Most Dangerous Profession–Still

Farming is still one of the most dangerous occupations in America, second only to mining. This is a timely warning for farmers heading into harvest season, according to new statistics released in advance of Farm Safety and Health Week, which started September 18.

Last year, farm-related incidents resulted in 26 deaths, including four children under the age of 15. The total number of deaths was down from 29 in 1998 and 41 in 1997.

Tractors and farm machinery were involved in the most deaths -- 20 in 1999. Other fatalities involved silo gas, a bull attack, an electrocution, a collapsed trench, a fallen gate and "farmer's lung" disease.

Horse Show Set For Sunday At Fairgrounds

The Mt. Top Saddle Club will hold its last horse show of the season Sun., Sept. 24, at the Garrett County Fairgrounds in McHenry. The show will begin at 10 a.m. with pleasure classes for children and adults in English, western, and pony competition. Classes will include showmanship, halter, English pleasure, western pleasure, hunter over fences, and trail.

A current negative Coggins test is required, and ribbons, prizes, and points will be awarded. The public is welcome to attend.

Maryland Crops To Reach Near Record Levels

According to a report recently released by the federal government, this year's corn and soybean harvest in Maryland may reach near-record levels.

In its second forecast of the season, the Agriculture Department predicted farmers will harvest 85% more corn and 29% more soybeans than last year. Last month, the government forecast 80% more corn and 22% more soybeans.

The generous harvest comes after farmers have suffered through three years of drought.

The USDA said Maryland farmers will harvest 62 million bushels of corn for grain, the second-highest crop in the past decade. The anticipated yield of 155 bushels an acre–up five bushels from last month's prediction–would top 1996's record-setting yield of 139.

Maryland soybean production is expected to reach 18.6 million bushels, which also would be the second-largest crop in the last 10 years, according to the Maryland Agricultural Statistics Service. The USDA predicted a yield of 38 bushels an acre, up two bushels from last month's forecast. That would surpass the record soybean yield of 37 bushels an acre, set in 1996.

Harvest Goes On Throughout The State Of Maryland

Crop harvesting continued throughout the state last week with growers having 5.1 days suitable for field work, according to Ray Garibay, state statistician with the Maryland Department of Agriculture. Most of this time was used for crop harvest, he said.

Corn and soybean conditions remained mostly good to excellent. Sweet corn is 96% harvested, the same as last year, but 1 point above the five-year average.

Drier conditions the past two weeks have allowed vegetable harvesting to remain at or ahead of last year's pace. Tomatoes are 93% harvested, 5 points below last year, and 3 points below the five-year average. Lima beans are 56% harvested, 11 points above last year, and 2 points above the five-year average. Snap beans are 91% harvested, 1 point below last year and the five-year average.

High temperatures for the past week ranged from 73 degrees on Sunday to 84 degrees on Tuesday and Wednesday. Precipitation for the week ranged from 0 inches in Howard County to 1.9 inches in Allegany County.

Crop progress for the week which ended Sept. 17, listing the item and percentages for this week, last week, last year, and the five-year average, follows.

ALUMNI AT WORK - The annual 4-H/FFA Alumni Fitting & Showing Contest at the Garrett County Fair was well attended by alumni and spectators alike. The alumni tested their memory and their rusty skills as they worked to get their borrowed animals ready to show. Some of these alumni are not so rusty, as many of them are helping and teaching their own children and other 4-H'ers and FFA members the skills they learned and polished themselves in the past. The picture above was taken during the sheep fitting and showing contest. The judges for the show were Andrew Harvey and Scott Bolyard. Placing first was Bonnie Bowers with a lamb borrowed from Lacie Berkebile; second was Nancy Berkebile with a lamb borrowed from Andrew Harvey; third was Sandy Harvey with a lamb borrowed from Henry Smearman; fourth was Michelle McCartney with a lamb borrowed from Ashley Rodeheaver; and fifth was Darvin Pysell with a lamb borrowed from Andrew Rodeheaver. During the evening a "king" and "queen" of the event were picked by crowd's choice. Richard McCrobie and April Enlow were honored by being chosen king and queen. Pictured above, from left to right, are Andrew Harvey, judge; McCartney; Scott Bolyard, judge; "King" Richard (hidden); Pysell; Harvey; and Berkebile. A dairy fitting & showing contest was held with Diana Mayfield and Alisa DeWitt judging, and Sandy DeWitt earning first place and Barb Falkner earning second.

MDIA Officials Meet With State Sierra Club Reps

Citing the need for better understanding of each other's policies and position, Maryland Dairy Industry Association (MDIA) representatives made the first move in a sparring contest with Maryland's Sierra Club.

MDIA and the environmental group traded barbs earlier this summer over the club's call for a moratorium on "large-scale farming operations." Extensive media coverage of charges and counter-charges over the definition of "corporate" and "factory" farms prompted MDIA to suggest a meeting and personal dialogue between the two groups.

Members of MDIA's board met with Sierra Club's executive director, Chris Bedford, on Aug. 28 in College Park, and discussed issues to help establish a meaningful relationship. According to MDIA president Myron Wilhide, the Sierra Club was told that dairy producers are the original environmentalists and that both groups share common interests.

WHICH CHURCH IS THE RIGHT CHURCH?

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH?

"The one true Church established by Christ is the Catholic Church. All are obliged to belong to the Catholic Church in order to be saved. When we say, 'outside the Church there is no salvation,' we mean that those who through their own grave fault do not know that the Catholic Church is the true Church, or knowing it refuse to join, cannot be saved." Baltimore Catechism, Lesson 12, pp. 29,32

"The Holy Roman Church believes, professes, and preaches that 'no one remaining outside the Catholic Church... can become partakers of eternal life; but they will go to everlasting fire which was prepared for the devil and his angels, unless before the end of life they are joined to the Church." Council of Florence

"We are compelled in virtue of our faith to believe and maintain; that there is only one Catholic Church... Outside this Church there is no salvation and remission of sins." Pope Boniface VIII, Unam Sanctum

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS?

The Mormon church "...is the only true and living church upon the face of the whole earth, with which I, the Lord am well pleased..." - Doctrine and Covenants 1:30

"My object in going to enquire of the Lord was to know which of all the sects was right, that I might know which to join... I was answered that I must join none of them, for they were all wrong... all their creeds were an abomination in [God's] sight...." - Pearl of Great Price, Joseph Smith History 2:18-19

"Mormonism is the one and only completely true and officially recognized religion by the Lord." - MR Hunter, The Gospel Through the Ages, p.286

"If it had not been for Joseph Smith and the restoration, there would be no salvation. There is no salvation outside of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints." - Bruce McConkie, Mormon Doctrine, p. 670

THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES?

"Is not the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society the one and only channel which the Lord has used in dispensing his truth continually since the beginning of the harvest period?" - Watchtower, 1 April 1919, p. 6114

The Watchtower organization is "...his [Jehovah's] sole visible channel, through whom alone spiritual instruction was to come...." - Watchtower, 1 October 1967, p.590

"Outside the true Christian [i.e, Watchtower] congregation what alternative organization is there? Only Satan's organization...." - Watchtower, 1 March 1979, p.24

"...come to Jehovah's organization for salvation...." - Watchtower, 15 November 1981, p.21

THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS?

"But the SDA Church is still the one repository of God's truth. Nowhere else may it be found... our God designates the SDA church as his remnant church." - Remnant Herald, Apr 1996, p. 13-14

"There is but one church [SDA] in the world who are at the present time standing in the breach, and making up the hedge..." - Testimonies to Ministers, p. 50

WELL, WHICH ONE IS RIGHT?

These are but four of the many religions of our day that claim to be the ONLY true church or the ONLY true way of salvation for mankind - no wonder the average person is fed up with religion! The Bible however makes it crystal clear that true salvation is NOT through any church or religious group, but through a Person!

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name [i.e. than Jesus] under heaven given among men, whereby we MUST be saved." (John 14.:6; Acts 4:12)

Beware of those groups who claim to be "the only way" - Jesus is the ONLY way into heaven for it is He who came to earth and died on the cross to pay for your sins. The Bible says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Rom. 3:23) Every one of us has an imperfect heart in the sight of God - though in different degrees, we are all sinners who fall short of God's standard of perfection. "The wages of sin is death." (Rom. 6:23) as all sinners "will have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." (Rev. 21:8) What an awful thing to look forward to! The Lord in his mercy did not want to see you have to pay for your sins in hell forever, so "God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Rom. 5:8) The man or woman who is willing to admit that they are a sinner, who will repent of [i.e. turn from] their sins, ask God's forgiveness and who will put their faith and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ will be SAVED from their sins and from hell! "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, SHALL BE SAVED!" (Rom. 10:13)

Joining a church will not get you to heaven - not our church - not ANY church! There is no deed you can do that is good enough for God to overlook your sins. "For by grace are ye saved through FAITH; and that not of yourselves; it is the GIFT of God; Not of works, lest any man should boast." (Eph. 2:8-9).

The options are only two: 1) trust in your own good works, your religion, your church, yourself or your way and end up in a real place the Bible calls hell; or 2) trust totally and only in the Lord Jesus Christ and the promise that He makes to save your soul - this is the only way to obtain God's forgiveness and eternal life! If you want to be assured of receiving God's forgiveness, avoiding hell and living with God for ever in heaven, please sincerely pray something similar to the following:

"Dear God, I know that I am a sinner and that I deserve to go to hell. Please forgive me of my sins and save me. I believe that you died on the cross and rose again from the dead to pay for my sins. The best way I know how, I want to trust in you alone to save me and I ask you now to be my Lord and Saviour as you promised in the Bible. Thank you for saving me - Amen."

Mathematical Calculations - Harvesting Corn

An extremely useful measurement is the length of row equal to 1/1,000 of an acre. This row length is dependent upon the row width. The following row spacing provides the length of row to equal 1/1000 of an acre: 30" row spacing measure 17'5", 32" row spacing measure 16'4", 36" row spacing measure 14'6". Yield, population, harvest loss, and other measurements can be taken in this row length and multiplied by 1,000 to convert them to a per-acre basis. For example, if you count 24 plants in a 1/1,000-acre row length, you can estimate the population on a per-acre basis to be 24 x 1,000 or 24,000 plants per acre. For improved accuracy, use the average of several 1/1,000-acre row lengths for these estimates.

To find the approximate number of bushels of shelled corn grain in a bin, multiply the number of cubic feet in the bin by 0.8. To estimate the number of bushels of shelled corn in a crib of ear corn, multiply the number of cubic feet in the crib by 0.4.

Looking Back at the Vegetable Gardening Season

Along with harvesting the last of the crops and cleaning up plant debris, analyzing results should be part of the season-end ritual of vegetable gardens. Taking notes on what worked well and problems that occurred can be very valuable information when planning the 2001 garden.

Important information includes both general and specific successes and problems. For example, if just about everything did poorly, there may be a major problem that needs correcting prior to next year. If problems were limited to specific crops only, then control for next year may be targeting specific problems or needs of that crop.

Major problems that can affect an entire garden include poor soil conditions, too much shade, weed invasions, and poor overall management. Critical components of garden soils include soil pH, fertility, and drainage. Most soils in Garrett County tend to have an acid, or low pH. This can cause problems for many crops. A soil test (kits available at the Extension Office) will indicate the pH and major nutrient levels and how to correct them. Fall is a good time to sample soils.

Soil fertility is controlled by factors such as pH, organic matter, planting history, and fertilizer application. If everything is doing poorly, perhaps the fertility is too low. Fertilizer should be worked into the soil.

The garden site itself may offer clues to garden failure. Too much shade often is the reason vegetables don't do well. If feasible, do some pruning or consider moving the garden. Remember that weeds in the garden are not only unsightly but will compete with garden plantings for light, water, and nutrients. Hand-pulling on a timely basis, mulching, and herbicides are options to consider for next year.

If problems were limited to one or two crops, then either a specific pest or disease was the cause or the crop is not being cared for properly. Spend the off-season researching the growing needs and typical problems of the crops in question. Make adjustments as needed, perhaps starting with selection of a different cultivator for the 2001 season.

Take a few moments to make notes as the season closes. You'll be glad you did early next spring!

Fall Management Strategies for Alfalfa

This is the time of year I get calls on harvesting alfalfa. For the best survival of the stand, attempt to take the last summer cut by late August or very early September, and let regrowth stand in the field (no late cut or grazing). If you have not fertilized in the summer, topdress any needed potassium in late August or early September.

Q. Due to summer harvest delays, my alfalfa is knee-high in mid-September. Can I cut it then?

The answer depends on whether the field will be saved for hay next year. If the answer is "No," harvest anytime. There will only be a slight reduction in nitrogen contribution to the next crop if the last top growth is removed. If the answer is Yes," the field will be kept for hay next year, then determine whether you need the hay from this mid-September harvest. If the answer is "No," leave the last growth in the field—do not graze in fall or winter. If the answer is "Yes," it is best to wait until at or after the killing freeze (23-24°F) to cut. Then leave a 5- to 6-inch stubble.

Q. But I cannot dry hay in October! What is the risk of cutting in mid-September?

A. If you cut in mid-September, alfalfa plants will begin to regrow following the mid-September harvest and to use some of their stored carbohydrates; thus, they will have a relatively low level available when the killing freeze comes. Reduced levels of stored carbohydrates can limit winter survival and inhibit regrowth in the spring. With a low level of stored carbohydrates, even a minor premature spring recovery and freeze-back will severely stress the plants.

Price Highlights Reported For Dairy Products

NASS, the National Ag Statistics Service, reported this week that cheddar cheese prices received for US 40-pound blocks averaged $1.26 per pound for the week ending Sept. 9. The price per pound increased 3 cents from the previous week. The price for US 500-pound barrels adjusted to 39% moisture averaged $1.16 per pound, up 4.5 cents from the previous week.

Butter prices received for 25-kilogram and 68-pound boxes meeting USDA Grade AA standards averaged $1.15 per pound for the week ending Sept. 9. The U.S. price per pound decreased 2.6 cents from the previous week.

Nonfat dry milk prices received for bag, tote, and tanker sales meeting USDA Extra Grade or USPH Grade A standards averaged $1.02 per pound for the week ending Sept. 9. The U.S. price per pound increased 0.3 cents from the previous week.

Dry whey prices received for bag, tote, and tanker sales meeting USDA Extra Grade standards averaged 18.4 cents per pound for the week ending Sept. 9. The U.S. price per pound decreased 0.2 cents from the previous week.

MDIA Begins Consolidation Of Dairy Plans

Should Maryland's dairy regulatory programs be consolidated under the state's department of agriculture? Maryland Dairy Industry Association (MDIA) representatives met last month with Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Dr. Henry "Bud" Virts to begin a dialogue on the subject.

MDIA believes that the state's current arrangement of having dairy farm inspections fall under the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is costly and inefficient.

"There's no agricultural expertise or interest there," noted MDIA member Boyd Cook. "We support the consolidation of dairy programs under our own Department of Agriculture." MDIA briefed Sec. Virts on possible organizational options.

Students Awarded GCC Scholarships

ADAM COWGILL

CHAD NICE

Two Southern High School graduates have been awarded scholarships by the Garrett Community College Foundation to attend GCC this fall, according to advancement officer Bretta Reinhard.

Adam Cowgill, resident of Oakland and 1994 Southern graduate, has received the Bell Atlantic and the GCC Board of Trustees scholarships. He is currently enrolled in the Business Administration program and intends to become a certified public accountant with the goal of one day opening his own CPA firm. His hobbies are bowhunting and fishing. Cowgill and his wife Jennifer have two children, Alyssa and Gavin.

Chad Nice, 2000 SHS graduate and son of Thomas and Sandra Nice of Oakland, has received the GCC Board of Trustees Scholarship. While at Southern he was named to Who's Who Among American High School Students, participated in the youth basketball program, and exceeded the required hours for community service. Nice is still uncertain of his major, but he said he plans to pursue a master's degree after earning his bachelor's degree.

NFIB Honors Rep. Bartlett For Voting Record

The small-business group of the National Federation of Independent Businesses (NFIB) has named U.S. Rep. Roscoe Bartlett (6th Dist.-Md.) a Guardian of Small Business for an outstanding voting record on behalf of America's small-business owners in the 106th Congress. NFIB president Jack Faris praised Bartlett for "taking a stand" for small business, citing Bartlett's 100 percent NFIB voting record.

"The record shows that when the roll is called, Representative Bartlett has been a true and consistent advocate for Main Street small businesses," Faris said. "Small-business owners pay close attention to how their elected representatives vote and will reward those who win the Guardian of Small Business Award. With election day less than two months away, small-business owners will remember those who supported small business, as well as those who didn't."

NFIB's voting record tallies 20 key small-business votes in the U.S. House of Representatives taken during the 1999 and 2000 sessions. Issues range from legal reform measures, to regulatory relief, to a variety of tax relief measures.

In all, NFIB will present Guardian awards to 215 representatives and 52 senators who voted favorably on key small-business issues at least 70 percent of the time during the 106th Congress.

Mountain Lake Park Observer

by Dan Whittelsey

At the last general meeting of the town council, Mayor Paul Shockey advised that an agreement had been reached with the owners of the El Lobo Restaurant. The property would be sold for $77,000, provided Mountain Lake Park obtains a grant from the governor.

Glenn Tolbert reports that identifying buildings under the Dangerous Building Ordinance has been proceeding well. Glenn says that, in fact, owners have been very cooperative and have promised to fix their properties as required.

Fred Callis and Dave Gangler advised they were unable to attend the recent Crime Watch Picnic in the Park because of prior commitments.

The Broadford Park situation is still with us. The mayor should consider the appointment of a committee with members from Oakland to develop the facts and recommend a solution.

Save October 8 for "Mountain Lake Park Days Revisited" at the Ticket Office.

SUPPORTING SALEM'S WORK - Local oral surgeon Howard Strauss, DDS, PA, became a corporate sponsor at the silver level for this year's OutSpokin' for Maryland's Kids campaign benefiting the Maryland Salem Children's Trust. Salem reached its fund-raising goal of $20,000 for the year 2000, with the help of many friends and supporters in the community, including businesses, individuals, churches, and civic clubs. The money will be used to help fund the residential, special education, transition education, and emergency shelter services as well as the horsemanship therapy provided by Salem. The goal of the organization is to give "hope and healing" to children who have experienced the trauma of abuse and neglect or who are homeless. Pictured above is Dr. Strauss (left) with Tom Ruckert, risk manager at Salem, who represented the organization in the recent OutSpokin' for Maryland's Kids bicycle ride across Maryland.

Notes from Bittinger

by Joan Sussman

It is a lot of hard work to be kids. It is not just now, as it was the same thing when I was growing up. It is a big job keeping up with school work. Sometimes you have to confront a seemingly impossible task. In my case it was understanding algebra. I just didn't get it even though I did the dreaded homework after doing the bearable homework from other classes. Every day there was another huge task that came up.

For Caitlin it is writing papers for English. She worries enough about her big two-page paper, as she is also under the gun to get ready for either a soccer game or practice. After a hard game that they dropped, she had to pick up and finish her final draft. It is not quite as tough for Mere since the 5th grade is a piece of cake for her. But she puts all her enormous energy into her soccer games.

Bless her heart, Claire made a tough choice and decided to be in the Northern High Marching Band. Now there is much more pressure in band than when Rodney, Cindy, and I were in the band in high school. We only had a rare practice for an hour or so after school. As Cindy said, "We just more or less blundered around." We reasonably succeeded in competition in local parades. But it did mean a lot to win the band trophy in a big parade in Frostburg.

I remember one year in late November (it was either a Thanksgiving or Christmas parade) that we got soaked to the skin with frozen rain. I remember my white gloves were stiff with frozen water. But we did win first place in the high school band division. I never have been so cold and tired after a parade. But I was breathless waiting for the Cumberland Times the next day for the results. We really did try hard.

Then there was the cold of the home football games. Most of the time it was really cold. Each time we had a different half-time show. I know how Claire feels now as a freshman in an experienced high-standard band. She tries so hard to perform well, even though she is very inexperienced. She was in a panic last week as the band was in a major competition at Martinsburg, W.Va. That was something new. Northern placed second and they were very happy to place above Southern's band. This week she faces a home soccer game with a half-time show she only has run through one time. She wishes she would have more practice than just one before the game. There is no doubt this is character building as much as athletics. They are also under immense pressure to perform well.

Among the Northern athletes, of course, are the Brenneman boys on the football team, and we do expect for Northern to have a winning season. A rookie on the squad is Greg Whittemore. The band performed well at the Friday night football game. It was typical football weather (I mean cold and wet). It was a perfect introduction for Claire and Robbie. I heard a rumor that someday Robbie wants to become a drum major. It is a lot of work for our kids, and we will not have to worry about them having too much free time to get into trouble.

Claire barely has time to shoot the breeze on the phone with her friends. That is pretty tough because that gives them a chance to digest the events in their lives. I was lucky in having a gang of close friends on the same bus, as we could use the time on the bus to discuss boys, fashions, etc.

Cindy Beachy, Susan Brenneman, Hazel Bowser, and I rode the same bus, driven by Blaine Bowser. Once he had to tramp on us because we hung out the windows and yelled something at Bob Hesson (Butch, as we knew him). That was the biggest trouble that I got into during my school days.

I had a goal while riding the bus to get my homework completed. I wanted to get it over with so when I got home I wanted to pursue my primary goal of making a young untrained horse into a champion jumper. I really wanted to get him and me to the Olympic team. That was an unreasonable goal since most of Olympic sports take 100% dedication to obtain that goal, with lots of resource (money). I saw what it takes to reach that level in equestrian pursuit. It takes a full staff, including an expensive trainer. I had to try hard to be the whole ball of wax. I had to be the trainer, groom, and rider. No wonder I only had half a mind on my algebra.

When I worked as a groom for a grand prix rider, I met lots of Olympic riders, including a gold medal winner in 1976. Watching the Olympics made me think about goal-setting and pursuing that goal. I once did beat a couple of former Olympic riders in competition. That was enough for a poor farm girl with a backyard horse who teamed together without much outside help except from instructions from books. We did not fail to reach the impossible — we succeeded very much. I apologize to my high school teachers for reading books about horsemanship in their classes and also planning my training and regimen. I used to draw dozens of horses in any available margin.

A fair number of football fans went over to the big game in Morgantown, W.Va., where West Virginia University played our Maryland Terps. Among the crowd were Lenny and Torrey Poholsky, Joe Powell, and the Southerly family. I believe most of them were W.Va. fans, so they were happy at the results. W.Va. won big time.

Rodney and Marci Glotfelty usually go to cheer on the Terps, but this year they went downstate to visit with Barry Glotfelty in Frederick and caught the Northern Band performing in band competition at Martinsburg, W.Va. Claire and Robbie also spent the night at Barry's. Sunday they loaded the car again and headed to the Glotfelty cousins' picnic at Fort Frederick, east of Hancock. Caitlin, Carol Bass, and family, Ruth DiPaolo, Dale Glotfelty, plus Jimmie and Donna Glotfelty and quite a few of their family also attended from Garrett County.

Our family always enjoys visiting with the others from Baltimore and especially the Marian Walsh family from Salisbury and the Eastern Shore. There were two little babies this year, and the girls had a great time playing with them and carrying them around. Paul and Alberta Nolder's little granddaughters were so sweet and beautiful. There were around 70 who attended, and all had a great time, especially with the special treat of steamed crabs that Tim Walsh and his sisters brought with them from Chrisfield.

Darryl and Elliot opted to stay with their Gram on Saturday night, along with Matthew and Scott Bass. They did not want to miss the first service in the new church, as Elliot was proud to be the first acolyte. Pastor Pat Pittsnogle will be ordained on September 24 at 5 p.m. at Moorefield, W.Va., by Bishop Ralph Dunkin. She told me that she felt she had to go into the ministry when she was 30 years old, and if you receive that call you have no choice but to follow it.

On September 30 she will be installed as the new official pastor of the Bittinger Lutheran Parish. Past Bishop Alex Black will be on hand for that ceremony, as well as to help dedicate the new sanctuary.

A gang of freshman boys from Bittinger are on the junior varsity soccer team from Northern. Derek Buckel, Eric Garlitz, and Torrey Poholsky help make up the team. Brent Housley plays on the varsity team, and it is quite a challenge for a freshman to face off with big senior guys. Brent has played in every game so far for the varsity team.

Neighbors and residents of Beachy Road were all invited to a block party at Willie's Pavilion last Wednesday evening. Teenagers and children played volleyball and games while others just visited. The Willis Maust family hosted the party and provided hot dogs and hamburgers. Each family brought a covered dish and/or a dessert. Approximately 60 people were present. Everyone had an enjoyable time, with many thanks of appreciation to the family.

Be sure to catch some new, hot art (by me) at the Art in the Park display at the Deep Creek Lake State Park Discover Center this Saturday. You will find special pictures of the lake and woodlands. Don't miss this chance.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Maryland Mining Program will submit an application to the U. S. Department of the Interior, Office of Surface Mining, for the funding of an abandoned coal mine reclamation project. The funding will be in accordance with Title IV, Section 405 of Public Law 95-87, Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977.

Qualification for Federal Funding under Title IV is contingent on an approved State Surface Coal Mining Regulatory Program and a State Abandoned Mine Lands Reclamation Plan. Maryland has received Office of Surface Mining approval of both programs. Project funding will originate from the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund, administered by the Office of Surface Mining.

It is the goal of the Maryland Abandoned Mine Reclamation Program to promote the reclamation of abandoned coal mine areas in Maryland that have been left in an inadequately reclaimed condition and endanger the safety of the public, degrade the quality of the environment, and/or diminish the beneficial use of land and water resources.

Comments are being solicited on the relative priority of the project listed below and/or any other abandoned mine problems in the Maryland Coal Region. The Bureau of Mines requests information from the public concerning abandoned mine problems that pose a potential threat to the public health and safety or severely degrades the environment.

The following is a general description of the proposed reclamation project, including the location, County, nearest town or physical feature, and nature of the problem:

1. KITZMILLER COAL WASTE STABILIZATION PROJECT

Location: Approximately ½ mile southeast of Kitzmiller, Garrett County, along Hamil Mine Road, immediately adjacent to the North Branch of the Potomac River:

Problem: Reclamation of 10 acres of abandoned coal mine land to eliminate public health, safety, and environmental hazards associated with the site. Reclamation will include stabilization of two abandoned coal refuse piles which are actively burning and sliding into the stream channel of the North Branch of the Potomac River.

Thursday, October 5, 2000
7:00 P.M.
Maryland Bureau of Mines
160 South Water Street, Room 107
Frostburg, MD 21532

Further information concerning the proposed project can be obtained by contacting Mr. John Eilers, Administrative Officer, Abandoned Mine Land Section, Maryland Bureau of Mines, 160 South Water St., Frostburg, MD 21532, 301-689-6764, x 304. Written comments concerning the project and the Maryland Abandoned Mine Reclamation Program will be received at the public hearing and until Wednesday, October 18, 2000. Address all comments to the Maryland Bureau of Mines, Attention: Mr. John Eilers.
